

EARLY DAY MEMBERS OF THE LIBRARY CLUB were honored guests at the Golden Anniversary celebration, November 12, at the library. Pictured above, seated, from the left, Mrs. George Hurn, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. William McMillan, first full time librarian. Standing, same order, Mrs. Don Zumwalt and Mrs. Leslie Rogers. Miss Enola Hawkins was unable to participate in the celebration because of poor health. The early members have vivid recollections of the methods employed to accumulate funds enough to break ground for the dream goal—now a past achievement—which continues to be an invaluable cultural contribution to the town. —Photo by Kettler

ABOUT 400 GUESTS widely representative of various community groups throughout the Klamath Basin were at the Klamath Falls City Library November 12, to share in the library's 50th anniversary year celebration. Yellow was the featured color in the autumn shades used in the Golden Anniversary decor. Pouring at the tea table, Mrs. Don Zumwalt serves Mrs. Leo Huls. Directly back of Mrs. Zumwalt is Mrs. Theodore S. Durment, wife of library board member. Others from the left, Mrs. George Lindley, Mrs. Oscar Peyton and Mrs. Harry Peltz Sr., former Klamath Falls resident, now living in San Francisco. In the receiving line were Mayor Paul Landry, Mrs. J. A. Nixon, librarian; Mrs. Merton E. Ferebee, president of Library

Club; Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, president Garden Club; and members of the library board, T. S. Durment, chairman; George McIntyre, Don Golding, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill and Mrs. O. K. Puckett. The library staff assisted throughout the open house hours. Also assisting were Mrs. Marvin Nerseht and Mrs. Tony Polzak. Others pouring during the afternoon were, Mrs. A. L. Gralapp, Mrs. Paul Landry, Evelyn Cooper, Mrs. T. S. Durment and Mrs. George McIntyre. —Photo by Kettler

Schuler-Tausch Vows Exchanged

DUNSMUIR — Barbara Jean Tausch became the bride of Lawrence C. Schuler in St. John's Catholic Church, October 22. The wedding was attended by members of the family and a few close friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Tausch of Dunsmuir. She attended local schools and is presently an employee of the California Theater. For her wedding, she chose a princess style afternoon dress and wore a corsage of tea roses. The Rev. James Casey officiated at the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schuler, now of Oroville, California, who formerly lived in Dunsmuir.

Circle Slates Future Events

WEED — At the Shasta Lily Circle meeting held November 3 in the Weed Foresters Hall, announcement was made of the regular meeting November 17. The next meeting will begin at 8 p.m. to enable members who care to attend a mission being held at the Holy Family Catholic Church. Husbands of the circle members will be entertained Sunday evening, December 4, with a social and potluck supper planned at the Foresters Hall. A food-sale planned for December 19 will be a special project of the Shasta Lily Circle and the time and place will be announced. Mrs. Walter Evans was hostess for the evening meeting last week and served refreshments to the several members present. Mrs. A. Sottana was given the traveling award.

WSCS Meeting

FORT KLAMATH — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church was an event of Thursday afternoon, October 13, when members met at the ranch home of Mrs. Ira F. Orem for an instructive and enjoyable afternoon. At the business meeting conducted by president, Mrs. William Brewer, plans were made for the successful silver tea which was held in the CI clubhouse Thursday afternoon, October 27; routine business was transacted, reports heard and other details discussed.

Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley conducted the study hour, reading a chapter from the current book study, "God's Psychiatry." At the close of the meeting and study hour, Mrs. Orem served refreshments to Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Theodore R. Nicholson, Mrs. Jack Thomas, all Fort Klamath members; Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Chiloquin; and Mrs. Forrest Doling, Agency Lake. Two special guests of the hostess were present, Mrs. J. L. (Doc) Helms and Mrs. Edward Floyd, Fort Klamath.

COUPLE CUTS WEDDING CAKE WITH HEIRLOOM CAKE KNIFE

DUNSMUIR — An heirloom cake knife tied with a satin bow was used by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rhyne to cut their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage in the Assembly of God Church in Dunsmuir on October 16. The bride, Carol Perkins, prior to her marriage, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Perkins of Dunsmuir. She was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. William C. Ross was officiant.

The bridegroom, Lewis, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue wool suit with pink accessories. Both mothers had yellow rose bud corsages. The reception was held in the church social rooms, where the three-tiered wedding cake centered the refreshment table which was decorated with autumn leaves and silver boughs. White candles in silver candelabra completed the decor. Mrs. Charles Dickerson assisted in serving the cake.

The bride attended Dunsmuir schools; and her husband went to school in Mount Shasta. He recently completed three years service with the U.S. Marines.

Southern California was the choice of the newlyweds for their honeymoon trip.

DESSERT BRIDGE

BONANZA — Mrs. Cecil Haley entertained with a dessert bridge at her home on November 2 at 1:30 p.m. Two tables were in play with Mrs. Owen People winning the high prize and Mrs. Merrill Stewart the traveling prize. Others enjoying the party were Mrs. Ava Foreman of San Diego, Mrs. Birdie Burk, Mrs. Elva Maxwell, Mrs. Roy Fernlund, Mrs. Bill Becholdt and Mrs. Claude Becholdt.

Convocation Of WOM Members

Convocation of Women of the Moose in Corvallis, Sunday, October 30, under the auspices of the College of Regents, was attended by a number of representatives from Klamath Falls.

In the local point, was graduate regent, Ruth Chapel, Klamath Falls Chapter, who was given recognition for her successful term as senior regent last year.

College of Regent members from the local chapter who served as group leaders October 30, were Fannie May Thompson, Mooseheart; and Belle Thompkins, social service.

Other Klamath Falls chapter members at the convocation were senior regent, Hazel Pulley; hospital chairman, Opal Donk; Mooseheart chairman, Virginia Dook; her committee members, Mary Wright and Pearl Adamo; and membership committeewoman, Arvilla Johnson.

RUTH CHAPEL Graduate Regent Women of Moose —Photo by Miller-Williams

Advertisement for Van Orman's shoes featuring 'Nothing but Poll Parrot Shoes' and 'SCAMPEROOS' for boys and girls. Includes prices and store address: 527 MAIN IN KLAMATH FALLS.

Advertisement for Miller's Fashion Circle Nylons' new 'do-it-yourself' Electric Color Selector. Features a diagram of the selector and text describing its benefits for choosing hosiery colors.

Large advertisement for Miller's Face Powder and VassarNettes panty girdles. Includes a portrait of Vi Reed, Miller's consultant, and illustrations of women wearing girdles. Text: 'they have such taking-in ways' and 'underneath it all... a vassarette'.