Zan-Aiello Rites in McCloud St. Joseph's Catholic Church

McCLOUD — "At home" at 36 Southern Avenue in McCloud are Mr. and Mrs. Guido Zan who have returned from a honeymoon trip to the Bay Area and the Redwood coastal points.

Prior to the double-ring ceremony, late afternoon September 24 in St. Joseph's Catholic Church in McCloud, the bride was Emma Aiello. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matteo Aiello of McCloud.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of imported lace with a tight bodice, full skirt, scalloped beaded neckline and a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a small beaded cap. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid. Father Carl Wilman read the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Rose Yanez, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a princess style dress of pink taffeta with a bouquet of roses.

The bride is a graduate of McCloud schools and an employee of the forest service in McCloud. Her husband, a newcomer to the United States, is employed by the McCloud Lumber Company.

pagne shade, were bridesmaids. They carried pink roses and carnations also. Jean Pellegrino served as flower girl and Mike Del Nero was ring bearer.

Mario Zan, brother of the bridegroom, was best man with Raymond Zan and Enio Simonetti serving as ushers.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and fern. Kay Davis served as organist for the wedding.

The bride's mother wore a dress of rose lace and a carnation corsage. The parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Zan, live in Italy.

Wedding guests were served a supper at the reception held at the McCloud Hall. This included a multi-tiered wedding cake cut by the bride; and Corrine Frantz carried the guest book.

Housewarming

MERRILL — Mrs. Peter Calise was honored in her new home at 5077 Bryant Street in Klamath Falls when several Merrill friends came for potluck luncheon and a housewarming on Thursday, October 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Calise have lived in Merrill the past 25 years and Mr. Calise recently retired from the Southern Pacific Railroad.

A gift for her home was presented to Teresa by sisters of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary to Post 4056.

Everyone greatly admired the beautiful rug Teresa worked on approximately one year. It is braided by hand, size 18 feet by 12 feet and truly a work of art.

Those who enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Calise were: Mrs. Dale Walker, Mrs. Jack Fleck, Mrs. Allen Duncan, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. Don Raloff, Mrs. Mary Marquis, Mrs. Ernest Merrilees, Mrs. Leo McKoen, Mrs. Bowlsby, Mrs. Ralph Swister, Mrs. Wayne Hickerson, Mrs. Robert Merrilees, Mrs. Leo McKoen, Mrs. William Walker.

Couple Attended By Relatives At Bruner-Brown Nuptial Rites

Bronze and yellow Turner chrysanthemums with huge sprays of vine maple in brilliant autumn colors were employed in the striking decor for the recent wedding of Betty Louise Brown to Wayne Jehrome Bruner in Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil D. Brown, 4441 Frieda Avenue, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bruner, 2525 Eberlein Avenue.

Vine maple tied with bronze ribbon also banked the altar. Escorted by her father to the chancel rail, Betty wore a dress of Chantilly lace over heavy satin, styled with a Basque waist, Peter Pan collar, long sleeves pointed at the wrists — and a full cathedral train of the same lace over satin.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white Turner chrysanthemums trimmed with silver tricotine; and a white velvet clip hat trimmed with seed pearls, held her veil of imported illusion.

The "borrowed" linen handkerchief had been carried in turn, by the bride's mother and the aunt, who served as matron of honor.

Her wedding gown was "new" — and the four garters were "blue." Her only jewelry was the "old" — a platinum lavalier with an amethyst stone.

Mrs. Henry C. Harris attended her niece as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert C. Brown, Betty's sister-in-law, Covina, California; and Virginia Leaming, her cousin. Train bearers were Karen and Susan Leaming, also cousins of the bride. Flower girl was another cousin, Joan Leaming; and bridegroom's cousin, Ronald Bruner, was ring bearer.

The honor attendant and bridesmaids wore ballerina length frocks of polished cotton in a toast shade — with yokes of matching tucked organza. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze Turner chrysanthemums with gold tricotine; and their headbands were of bronze and yellow pompoms with croton leaves.

The flower girl and train bearers wore dresses similar to the senior attendants in shell-pink polished cotton — and their headbands were of the same flowers.

Andrew F. Bruner served his nephew as best man; and Jack Keller, bride's uncle; and Robert C. Brown, her brother, ushered.

The Rev. Timothy B. Collins officiated at the 4 p.m. service, in the presence of some 200 guests.

Doris Helley, organist, accompanied Janette Rochon, vocal soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a blue faille costume with black accessories. Mrs. Bruner wore royal blue jersey with black accessories — and both mothers wore shoulder corsages of Tallman roses.

The reception was in the parish hall — and at the door were Homer W. Brown and Arthur C. Leaming. Helen Yarnell, friend of the bride since grade school days, registered the guests. Mrs. Jesse M. Brown, bride's aunt, cut the cake; Mrs. Andrew F. Bruner, bridegroom's aunt; and Mrs. Arthur C. Leaming, bride's aunt, presided at the coffee service; and Mrs. Homer W. Brown and Mrs. Glenn H. Brown, both aunts of the bride, were at the gift table.

The couple left for a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Lake Louise, Banff and Calgary, Canada, after the buffet dinner at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds are now at home in Klamath Falls.

Betty is a graduate of KUHS; and attended University of Oregon and Reed College. She was a member of Dramatic Club, Ski Club and Job's Daughters.

Bruner was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy, and was on both the football and basketball teams. At OTT, he was a member of the Ski Club. He plans to go to Oregon State College.

Out of town guests included the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Brown, Covina, California; uncles, aunts and their families, Major and Mrs. Glenn H. Brown, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Homer W. Brown, Brookings; Mrs. Jesse M. Brown, Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Grimes, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Leaming, Spokane.

Bridegroom's aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keller and family, Albany, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bruner and Ronald (ring bearer) Merrill; and Mrs. Lester Yarnell and Helen Ann, Eugene. Special guests were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Grimes and Mr. and Mrs. Hartford D. Crandall, all of Klamath Falls.

PRE-NUP TIAL SHOWER

Included in the series of pre-nuptial events was a shower for the then bride-elect of Wayne J. Bruner. The hostesses were Mrs. Robert Baker, and Mrs. Sena Baker, and the latter's home, 247 Eldorado, was the setting for the party.

Guest list included Mrs. Cecil D. Brown, Mrs. Oscar L. Grimes, Mrs. L. Dan Morgan, Mrs. Sterling Doege, Virginia Leaming, Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mrs. Hartford D. Crandall, Mrs. Michael G. Bruner, Mrs. William Perrin, Mrs. Arthur C. Leaming, Mrs. Hugh D. Rundell, Mrs. Andrew F. Bruner, Merrill; Mrs. Henry C. Harris, Mrs. Gilford Wood and Mrs. Pat Slawey.

Another September event for the bride, was an informal coffee given for the bride by her mother, at the family home. The bridegroom's parents entertained with a rehearsal dinner at their home on Eberlein, for principals in the wedding party and out of town relatives, the evening before the wedding.
