GRADE SCHOOL CLASS PARTIES

BONANZA—Most of the elementary grades in Bonanza school had Halloween parties on Friday afternoon. All the rooms were decorated with corn stalks, pumpkins, black cats and witches. Refreshments were varied, and included decorated cup cakes, ice cream, cookies, doughnuts, cider and punch.

The second graders came in costume and visited all the rooms to have the prize winners judged. Winners were Donna Raiph, David Seater, Donny Shriner, Blaine Dye and David Tanner. Mrs. Roy Whitlatch is room mother for the second grade and was in charge. Their teacher is Mrs. Olive Fraley.

Mrs. Bob Brett, room mother for the fourth grade, planned their party. Their teacher, Mrs. Sarah Schmor helped Mrs. Brett.

Mrs. Jimmy Wakefield and Mrs. Don Rice were hostesses for the fifth grade party to which the mothers were invited. Their teacher, Mrs. Marilee Butler helped her grade stage a hobby show, and the displays were many and varied. Each child arranged his own hobby, and gave an interesting talk on his display.

The sixth grade party was given by Mrs. LaVern Haskins assisted by Mrs. Tommy O'Connor. The youngsters had a lot of fun bobbing for apples, trying to bite an apple hung by a string from the ceiling and other games and contests. Mrs. Johanna Chatman is the sixth grade teacher.
