Top Golfer-President Named At Reames Auxiliary Luncheon

Mrs. R. O. Sproat was named outstanding golfer and Mrs. W. Ray Lamb was elected president of Reames Auxiliary at a combined trophy luncheon and election meeting held Friday, November 4, at Reames Golf and Country Club.

Mrs. Sproat was awarded several trophies, including an award as winner of the Oregon Women's Golf Association Trophy Tournament and the Laddie Selkirk sportsmanship trophy.

Elected to assist the new president were Mrs. Dick Reeder, vice president; Mrs. Melvin Miller, secretary and Mrs. John Ashley, treasurer. Mrs. Stanley Miller and Mrs. L. W. Soukup were named directors.

Trophies were presented by Mrs. O. J. Horn, tournament chairman, to the following: Spring handicap tournament runner-up, Mrs. H. E. Ferebee; first flight; Mrs. J. D. Merryman; runner-up, Mrs. Charles Schuss; second flight, Mrs. C. Buz Larkin; runner-up, Mrs. H. L. Robertson; consolation, Mrs. L. W. Soukup.

Club championship: medalist, Mrs. L. E. Soukup; club championship, Mrs. R. O. Sproat; runner-up, Mrs. Marvin Nerseith; first flight, Mrs. Paul Farrrens; runner-up, Mrs. O. J. Horn; second flight, Mrs. R. Hemmesch; third flight, Mrs. W. P. Hooper; third flight, Mrs. R. Merklin; runner-up, Mrs. John Ashley; consolation, Mrs. L. W. Soukup and Mrs. Roger Hopson.

The eclectic tournament, 18-hole trophy was presented by Clark Groot, the club's pro, to Mrs. R. O. Sproat, winner of the first half, and Mrs. T. Bingham, runner-up. Winner of the second half was Mrs. F. Mosebar; runner-up was Mrs. R. Hemmesch and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher was named the newest player with the best score.

The trophies were displayed on a table before a background of black on which was simulated a silver trophy cup inscribed with the names of out-going officers, including Mrs. George Clark, president; Mrs. W. R. Lamb, vice secretary and Mrs. William Peak, treasurer. Arrangements of bronze chrysanthemums and fall leaves banked the trophy table. Other arrangements of fall flowers and small tee flags centered the luncheon tables.

Mrs. W. R. Lamb was chairman of the luncheon, assisted by Mrs. C. Buz Larkin, Mrs. John Houston, Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Wes Lorenz and Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr.

Mrs. George Clark presided at the luncheon and introduced her slate of chairmen which included, in addition to Mrs. Horn, Mrs. Earl Maskell, handicaps; Mrs. C. Buz Larkin, rules; Mrs. J. Martin Adams, junior golf; Mrs. Robert Sproat, Golf Gab; Mrs. T. F. Farley, ways and means; Mrs. P. D. Meade, house; Mrs. E. B. Bromsthouse, bridge; Mrs. Robert Thompson, social; Mrs. H. L. Roboyd, teenage; Pati O'Connor, publicity; Mrs. Homer Ellis, flowers.

Mrs. Roger Hopson, last year's president, presented Mrs. Clark with a silver plate in token of her service as president during the year completed.

OUTSTANDING GOLFER named at the Reames Golf and Country Club Auxiliary election and trophy luncheon Friday, November 4, at the club, was Mrs. Robert Sproat (center). TRI-TAUS PREVIEW CHRISTMAS DECOR

In a recent preview of Christmas decorations Santa raced across the fireplace while angels and choir boys sang from the mantle; kissing balls, streaming mistletoe hung from the doorway, while corsages were displayed on the table; at the home of Mrs. Richard Fennell.

The setting was at the November meeting last Tuesday and Tri Taus busied themselves copying the decorations provided by Mrs. William Sari, demonstrator for the evening.

Other ideas which Mrs. Sari discussed were Santa Claus and Thanksgiving place cards and stained glass window effects. The business was very brief because of the varied projects.

Those attending were Mrs. Kenneth Schneider, Mrs. Lewis Hamblin, Mrs. Paul Stewart, Mrs. Leslie Carr, Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu, Mrs. Vern Hensel, Mrs. Glenn Kircher, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. Owen Robbins, Mrs. Paul Ryan, Mrs. Fennell and Mrs. Sari. Those absent were Mrs. Donald Baldwin, Mrs. Sam Ramsey, Mrs. George Cunha and Mrs. James Rodgers.

The December meeting will be in Sprague River at the home of Mrs. Rodgers with Mrs. Kircher demonstrating.

PLAYERS CLUB

The football theme was carried out in the room and card table decor at the Player's Club meeting November 3, at 8 p.m. in the city library club room. Hostesses for the evening were Minnie Krandenberg, Mabel Waechter, Vivian Landis and Clea Paddock.

Following the business meeting cards were played with high score in bridge won by Katie Lake; low, by Opal McDonald. High in pinocle went to Nancy Groves and low to June Wallwork.

The next regular meeting is slated for Wednesday evening, November 16, in the city library club room.

Take it from me girls... stay Smart and Healthy

By Bessy, the Basin Bossy

Smartness, to the ladies who use the word, means what some of the younger set might mean when they say "sharp," or "george," or "Schmaltz."

Have you ever wondered why the word "smart," then, is included in the heading over this column? That's the answer, right there.

To tell you how important "smartness" is takes more than just "one gal to another," though. Sometimes we've got to fall back on the words of a man. And the words we'll fall back upon today are those of a real man — and what's a man — Clark Gable.

In a recent magazine article Mr. Gable mentioned something to this effect: "American girls are getting prettier all the time."

But he described beauty as more than just the stuff we call "glamor" and which Marilyn and Doty have so much of. On the contrary, he tabbed true, modern American beauty as our modern girl's depth of character and personality.

And there he said a mouthful. Bubbling, vibrant personality has become a major attraction, menwise. So has depth of character — understanding and patience and wisdom.

Let's face it. There are but a cherished few to whom the Almighty doles out terrific looks. The rest of us are somewhere on down the ladder. So most of us MUST depend on something besides the physical features we were born with to take our places in this world.

Now all of this leads to one thing. That is, to have the internal energy to bubble and vibrate with personality, and to keep keen and sharp mentally, we've got to look to nutrition. May I suggest—three glasses of fresh milk every day?
