

BPW Hear Safety Talk

"Health and Safety" was the subject for the program of the November 7 meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club held at the Willard Hotel.

Colleen McEneaney, program chairman, introduced Dr. John C. Christiansen and Max N. Braden, Klamath County sanitarian, who spoke on diseases caused by improper sewage disposal and the situation in the South Suburban area where disposal facilities are inadequate.

Tickets for the three smash stage hits to be presented in Klamath Falls during the winter and early spring. All members of the BPW Club have tickets for "The Letter," to be presented January 10; "Picnic," February 21 and "Sabrina Fair," on April 10. The plays by the Civic Dramatic Guild of New York are sponsored by the club.

Polly Schroeder, president, conducted the meeting.

Tule High School To Present Play

The Tulelake High School senior class will present its annual play Friday, November 18, at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m. in the school gym.

The play's cast consists of Pat Schwabertland, Irving Whitaker, Josephine Tachy, Charles Smith, Susan Skidmore, Ann Potter, Bill Stephens, Janet Schweigert, Bill Westkamp, Cecil Moore, Willa Schindler, Gary Phillips, Tom Proctor and Anthony Adams. The play is being directed by Harry Santos.

SACRED HEART NOTEBOOK

Madrigals entertained the Mothers Club with two selections Thursday evening. These were "The Happy Wanderer" by Ridge and "On Dear What Can the Matter Be" an English Folk Tune. They also sang for the National Education Week program which was held at Pelican Court on Wednesday evening, and at the November student body meeting.

The Sodality chose new officers at the regular weekly meeting. Jeanne Chin is the new prefect, Elda Dal Broi is vice-prefect, Rosalie Finelli, secretary, and Charlotte Noble is treasurer.

The long-awaited sophomore hop proved to be a tremendous success Friday night as the couples danced to the music of Baldy's Band and enjoyed cake and punch during the intermission.

All students are asked to cooperate in selling of tickets for the oil painting. The proceeds will go to the parish bazaar, which will be held this coming Friday and Saturday night in the Sacred Heart Gym.

At the November student body meeting it was announced that there will be an essay contest held on "What the Sacred Heart Means to Me." The contest is open to all students and will be judged on the style, neatness, and content of the essay. Information for this essay may be found on the bulletin boards. The deadline for the contest is November 24.

SEPARATE COLLISIONS
RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—Police said John Henry, a civilian employee of March Air Force Base, was involved in separate collisions with six autos in one day. They booked him on charges of hit-run driving, drunk driving, driving without an operator's license and failure to yield the right of way. Everybody's all present and accounted for, however.

ATOMIC CANNON
SEOUL (AP)—A reliable military source predicted Wednesday the South Korean army will be equipped with atomic cannon in case a shooting war is renewed. The source said ROK army officers are receiving training from six U.S. atomic experts.

4-H News

GOOD COOKS
The meeting was called to order by Mrs. John Kerns, October 25. Our 4-H teacher taught us the base of cooking. She pretended to be Mrs. Pernelle Goose Grease. She did not measure her ingredients. Miss Primface measured all her ingredients in her biscuits and they were very good. Mary Ellen Hess was assistant to the leader. After the meeting was adjourned the biscuits made by Miss Primface were served as refreshments.
