

Shotgun Charge Fails To Halt Oregon State Gridder

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was a hopeful tone in casualty reports on the frigid big game front in Oregon Thursday as Pacific Coast Conference teams drilled for Saturday's football traditional.

Ron Siegrist, Oregon State co-captain, was hit in the left leg by the accidental firing of a shotgun while duck hunting near Corvallis Wednesday.

But a doctor who took 30 pellets from Siegrist's leg said he should be able to play at top form against Oregon at Eugene Saturday. Coach Tommy Prothro ran a secret indoor workout with snow covering the practice field.

Oregon's coach, Len Casanova, victim of an appendicitis attack, was released from the hospital without an operation. His doctors said Casanova could see Saturday's game but only as an observer. Jack Roach, assistant coach, will handle the team.

Snow continued falling with three inches already on the Eugene field.

At Seattle, Coach Johnny Cherbberg gave his Washington squad an hour's drill on pass offense and pass defense on the solid-frozen turf in university stadium. Washington, Seattle, Washington State there Saturday.

"Against the Cougars," Cherbberg said, "season records don't mean a thing. If we're not ready to go all out for 60 minutes we'll be clattered."

Idaho Coach Skip Stahley hauled his squad in buses to Pullman for a night workout in the Washington State field house. Idaho's home field at Moscow is snow-covered. The Vandals play Montana there Saturday.

California and Stanford fields were soaked in rain. California's coach, Poppy Waldorf, gave his squad a full workout on the soggy field. He hopes wet weather will slow down Stanford's sharp passer, John Brodie, and fullback Bill Trier.

Chuck Bradley, Stanford coach, said he wasn't worried about wet weather.

"It's a false god of the underdog," Taylor said, "I think we'll be able to carry on with our regular offense. The officials change the ball after every play. Both center and quarterback carry towels and the backs and ends carry resin bags."

Coach Red Sanders is grooming Doug Bradley as UCLA's passing sharpshooter replacement for injured Ronnie Knox in the Bruins' traditional clinax game with Southern California Saturday.

Tailback Sam Brown, UCLA's explosive running star, will start at tailback before the expected Los Angeles Coliseum crowd of more than 100,000. But if UCLA must take to passing again, USC's husky Trojan, Bradley will take over.

Coach Jess Hill at USC concentrated on ground power in a sharp line blocking drill. In Jon Arnett, the Trojans have a back who can ramble if given a break away start. Hill said he expected his squad would be at near top strength against UCLA.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

Herald and News Sports

CLAYTON HANNON
SPORTS EDITOR

Norris-Weill Feuding May Retire Marciano

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP) — Boxing Promoter Jim Norris and Rocky Marciano's manager, Al Weill, are feuding today and the upshot very well might be the heavyweight champion's disgruntled retirement before he fights again.

Weill currently has Marciano on a nationwide personal appearance and refereeing tour despite "Al the Vest's" heart-breaking plea that Marciano can't fight again before next summer because he is making too much money.

Norris, whose promotional contract with Marciano has expired, wanted Marciano to fight in February. The International Boxing Club president feels that Marciano should make his peace in the ring instead of taking bows like an actor.

It makes you wonder who has the monopoly.

Norris always has been accused of having a strange hold on the sport. But it's a cinch he doesn't pull the strings on Weill — and therefore, on Marciano.

Without shilling for Norris, it seems that in this case he was a part.

"We prefer to have Marciano fight, rather than travel around as a referee," Norris asserts. "All activity in boxing revolves around the heavyweight champion. The sport received a tremendous shot in the arm with the Archie Moore fight and it would have been a great lift to the sport to have a bout in February."

February coming in the same year as June, when Weill wants Marciano to fight, the refusal can't be a tax gimmick. The question which arises is whether, possibly, Weill intends to freeze out the IBC and promote Marciano's future feuds himself.

This, of course, has no meaning to most of us on the disinterested side when it comes to who does the promoting.

But Marciano is a great champion and certainly would prefer to fight, rather than to participate in one-night stands. Therein lies the rub.

Marciano is losing a great deal of dignity in the process, and could lose more in a promotional hassle. He is a proud man and his wife and mother have been after him to quit boxing.

If the Norris-Weill feud breaks into the open and gets nasty, Rocky just might tell them both to look for another big meal ticket.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

WEED'S outstanding player award for the 1955 football season went to tackle Russell Calkins, a 186-pound senior. Not only is Calkins the finest lineman at Weed, but one of the best in Siskiyou County.

"May I remind you once more, girls, the object of the game is to outscore them... not outstream them!"

BOWLING

AUTOMOTIVE LEAGUE

	W	L
Basin Motors	20	11
Motor Investment	20	11
Quaker State Oil	21 1/2	10 1/2
Lorenz Co.	21 1/2	10 1/2
Windsor Buick	20 1/2	10 1/2
Commercial Shell	20 1/2	10 1/2
Halverson's Union	20	10
Pacific Fruit	19	21
Eastside Electric	17	23
Hand-Portland	10	30
Specialized Service	9 1/2	30 1/2

Last night's results:
Motor Investment 4 Quaker 6
Basin Motors 4 Halverson's 0
Eastside 3 Specialized Service 1
Windsor Buick 4 Commercial Shell 0
Halverson's 3 Lorenz Co. 1
Pacific Fruit 3 Hand-Portland 1

High team game—Motor Investment 976
High team series—Basin Motors 2774
High individual game—Al Backes 223
High individual series—Al Backes 572

MINOR CLASSIC LEAGUE

	W	L
Bin's Fountain	20	15
AVA Farms	20	15
Round-Up Tavern	22	18
Lendry Insurance	18	24
Grens Mfg.	10	22
Al Longe Realtor	10	22

Last night's results:
Round-Up 4 Grens Mfg. 0
AVA Farms 4 Lendry Insurance 0
Bin's Fountain 3 Al Longe 1

High team game—Bin's Fountain 955
High team series—Round-Up Tavern 2574
High individual game—Bill Kienas 241
High individual series—Bill Kienas 585

MAJOR CLASSIC LEAGUE

	W	L
Bill Davis Associated	30	10
Haley Herford	25	15
Oregon Woolen	19	21
M. L. Johnson Ins.	17	23
Pelican Motor	18	22
Sixth Street Oxygen	11	29

Last night's results:
Sixth Street 1 Davis 3
Oregon Woolen 1 Pelican 3
Haley Herford 2 Johnson 1

High team game—Oregon Woolen 937
High team series—Pelican Motors 2644
High individual game—Al Hakenwerth 586
High individual series—Al Hakenwerth 586

Uclan-Trojan Game Heads Week's Video

LOS ANGELES (UP) — The UCLA and Southern California football teams, those cross-town rivals who bring their bitter local feud into full view of a national television audience Saturday, wind up the serious phase of practice today.

The Uclans, fifth-ranking team in the country and possibly the Pacific Coast Conference's representative in the Rose Bowl, remain the favorite to win but most observers predict it will be close and most likely a grid-dumb-brook.

The coaches, Henry R. (Red) Sanders of UCLA and Jess Hill of the Trojans, named their probable starting lineups today and neither occasioned any surprise.

Sanders' single wing backfield lists Sam (First Down) Brown at left half, Jim Decker at right half, Bob Bergdahl at the quarterback-backing position, and bopping Bob Davenport at fullback.

The Trojans' multi-offense includes speedy Jon Arnett at left half, Jim Contratto at quarterback, Don Hickman at right half and Gordon Duvall at fullback.

Each team packs speed in its backs, notably the shifty Arnett for USC and Brown and Decker for the Bruins, and each carries a wallop in the fullback department, including such reserves as C. R. Roberts for the Trojans and Doug Peters for UCLA.

Tommy Byrne Cops AL Comeback Title

NEW YORK (UP) — On June 15, 1951, the New York Yankees announced they had given up on left-hander Tommy Byrne, the wild man of the American League.

They had kept him season after season since 1940 despite his erratic course and lack of control. Finally they sent $25,000 along with Byrne to St. Louis for veteran Stubby Overmire.

Four years later, Byrne, in his second hitch with the Yankees, buried a five-hit 4-1 World Series triumph over Brooklyn. His World Series start was a reward for his brilliant 16-5 won-and-lost record during the regular season.

For that, the 36-year-old alumnus of Wake Forest College who still makes that North Carolina city his home, bagged 80 out of a possible 99 votes to easily gain the American League Comeback-of-the-Year honors for 1955.

Byrne joins catcher Roy Campanella of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who won the National League comeback honors, beating out his teammate Don Newcombe 57 votes to 35.

Campy, who had slumped to .207 in 1954 because of a crippled left hand, rebounded with a fourth-place .318 mark that included 32 home runs and 107 runs batted in.

Byrne had no opposition whatsoever. The remaining 19 ballots among the voting members of the Baseball Writers Assn. were widely scattered.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

After a mediocre record with Charleston of the American Assn., he caught on with Seattle of the Pacific Coast League in 1954, pulled himself together, revised his pitching pattern and won 20 games. Desperate for pitching help needed to overhaul the Cleveland Indians, Stengel recommended the purchase of Byrne late last year.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Byrne's comeback at 36 is one of the most dramatic in a decade. He did not make the grade with the Browns and also failed with the White Sox and finally the Senators.

Claassen Sees Win For Mich.

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (UP) — The next-to-last glance at the crystal ball for the winners of the weekly college football games.

Last week's figures: 37 correct, 13 wrong, 740. For the season: 312 correct, 110 wrong, 739.

This week's expected winners: Michigan over Ohio State: Not much to choose between these two Big Ten powers, but the game will be played on Michigan's field and the Wolverines know that if they win they go to the Rose Bowl.

Notre Dame over Iowa: Iowa has 14 good players. Notre Dame has three times that many. But it could be close.

Maryland over George Washington: Only the Florida team of early season has made George Washington look badly on the field. The Colonials' defense is rugged but Maryland has enough to pierce it.

Michigan State over Marquette: In a breeze.

UCLA over Southern California: If the season doesn't end soon, UCLA may run out of able-bodied backs. Even if Ronnie Knox and Bob Davenport are shelved, the Uclans want to go on to the Rose Bowl with a victory over their arch-rivals.

Texas Christian over Rice: Jim Swink of TCU gets the same reverence in Texas as a 10,000 barrel oil well.

Auburn over Clemson: How can a team with Fob James and Joe Childress ever lose?

West Virginia over Syracuse: The angry Mountaineers, dumped last week by Pittsburgh, take it out on Syracuse. But the New Yorkers are rugged and could win.

Yale over Harvard: That Yale line, with powerful Phil Tarasovic as the bossman, to decide.

Tennessee over Kentucky: A spot for an upset.

Florida over Rutgers: Penn State, Columbia over Rutgers, Boston University over Temple, Holy Cross over Connecticut, Delaware over Bucknell, Lehigh over Lafayette, Princeton over Dartmouth.

SOUTH: Duke over Wake Forest, Furman over Davidson, Miami over Alabama (Friday night), North Carolina State over William & Mary, North Carolina over Virginia, Vanderbilt over Florida.

MIDWEST: Colorado over Iowa State, Purdue over Indiana, Missouri over Kansas, Wisconsin over Minnesota, Illinois over Northwestern, Kansas State over Oklahoma A&M, Detroit over Tulsa.

SOUTHWEST: Arkansas over Louisiana State, Baylor over Southern Methodist, Houston over Villanova, Texas Tech over College of Pacific, Oklahoma over Nebraska.

FAR WEST: Arizona over New Mexico, Colorado A&M over Brigham Young, Idaho over Montana, Oregon State over Oregon, Stanford over California, Washington over Washington State.

INDIANS WORKOUT

STANFORD, Calif., (UP) — The Stanford Indians worked out on a soggy field yesterday, but Coach Chuck Taylor said he didn't think rain would hamper his squad's attack in the game against California here Saturday.

The injury situation remained static as tackle Paul Wiggins, who suffered a hip pointer in last week's game against Oregon, was progressing nicely and should see action against the Bears.

NEWSPAPER SPOT ADS are inexpensive —repeated daily, 79c

OLD Mr. BOSTON Oregon's largest selling Vodka

FIRST IN SALES IN OREGON BECAUSE IT'S FIRST IN VALUE

$3.65 4 1/2 QT.

$2.35 PINT

80 PROOF DISTILLED FROM 100% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS
MR. BOSTON DISTILLER INC. BOSTON, MASS.

It'll Knock Your Hat Off!

See The '56 Nash

World's Finest Travel Car.

THURSDAY, NOV. 17

FRED JOSLEN-NASH

833 E. MAIN PHONE 3713

ATTENTION Welders

Hardfacing Clinic

TO BE HELD AT O.T.I.

Thurs., Nov. 17 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Larsen of the Stoddy Co.

Will be present to give a demonstration of the NEW MAGNA-WELDER. He will also give a short lecture, followed by a short answer and question session.

SPONSORED BY Industrial Air Products Co.

6th St. Oxygen Sales

play it Safe... ON WET SLIPPERY HIGHWAYS

GOOD YEAR TRACTIONIZING

Gives Tires Added Traction

- No waiting! Done in a matter of minutes.
- Economical, too!
- Puts on thousands of tiny, sharp edges to grip the road!
- One treatment lasts all winter for normal driving!

GOOD YEAR SERVICE STORE

11th & Klamath Ph. 8141