

CANAPÉS and pre-dinner petit café dainty demi tasse cups filled with hot coffee, are a gracious gesture of hospitality and particularly welcome served before the Thanksgiving feast when breakfast was a long time ago and it seems that dinnertime will never come.

Petit Cafe

Thanksgiving is a time for the whole family to get together. That's what makes a Petit Cafe party so much fun. It's French for "small coffee" — dainty demitasse cups filled with the goodly brew. Served before the Thanksgiving feast, Petit Cafe welcomes everyone: teenagers, grandparents and all those who simply prefer coffee.

With the Petit Cafe, serve an array of tidbits that tempt the appetite. Try fresh fruit and vegetable morsels, a Holiday Dip in which to dunk them, and delicate, zesty Paprika Cheese Straws. There's no nicer way to begin a truly Happy Thanksgiving.

PAPRIKA CHEESE STRAWS

1 cup sifted enriched flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons shortening
½ cup finely grated American cheese
1-3 cup milk
Paprika

Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening and cheese until mixture is like coarse corn meal. Add milk and mix well. Roll out pastry ¼-inch thick, sprinkle generously with paprika, and cut into strips about 3 inches long and ¼ inch wide. Bake on greased cookie sheets in hot oven, 425 degrees F., 5 to 7 minutes. Makes about 90.

HOLIDAY DIP

1 cup sour cream
¼ cup mayonnaise
dash tabasco
½ teaspoon curry powder
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine all ingredients; beat with rotary egg beater or blend in electric blender until smooth. Makes about 1-1½ cups.

CLEANING CADDY

Use an empty soft-drink bottle carton as a caddy for household cleaning supplies. The compartments will hold soaps, detergents, scouring powder, polishes, cloths, sponges and so on. The beverage carton carry-all should be kept in your cleaning closet, filled and ready for action at a moment's notice.

Chocolate Pancakes

Here is a new-tasting treat recommended for the teen-age crowd. It has been tested for both pancakes and waffles and was an immediate hit in all cases and with all ages. The recipe comes originally from Pennsylvania.

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoon sugar
About 3 tablespoons cocoa or enough to make a nice brown color

Sift the above ingredients together. Add two eggs well beaten, 1¾ or more cups of milk and 4 tablespoons melted shortening. Mix well and drop by spoonfuls on a slightly greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and syrup.

TC? OFF a dieter's lunch (if you are saving your permissible extra calories for holiday parties) with a low-calorie pudding in any one of three flavors. D-Zerta Pudding is sugar-free but satisfying. It's a morale-builder because you don't feel you are giving up desserts entirely.

Sugar-Free Puddings

General Foods is introducing a brand-new product, D-Zerta Pudding, which comes in three flavors: Chocolate, Vanilla and Butter-ecioch.

All three are delicious and low in calories.

It is gratifying to be able to offer your calorie-careful friends a pretty dessert and it is a mighty handy dessert to have for your own luncheon when you are "saving" the extra calories for party-time.

The tray luncheon pictures has two slices of fowl, grilled tomato halves and three pieces of Melba toast, topped off with a pleasing eat and pretty to look at: dessert topped with an orange slice and mint sprig.

To make D-Zerta Pudding, add one envelope of pudding to one cup of whole or skim milk, stirring until well blended. Heat and stir to a full boil. Remove from heat and pour into serving dishes. Pudding thickens as it cools. Chill, if desired. One envelope makes two servings.

To garnish, use unsweetened fruits or cubes of low-calorie fruit-flavored gelatin.

There are 64 calories per serving when the pudding is made with skim milk: 64 calories per serving when it is made with whole milk.
