Mrs. Doris Morgan was seated as worthy matron and Errol Beaughan as worthy patron. Mrs. Mina Kimble, retiring worthy matron was hostess for the evening. Installing officers were Mrs. Selma Porter, Mrs. Helen Dabovich, chaplain, and Mrs. Dorothy Alberts, marshal. Leonard Smith was flag bearer.

Mrs. Morgan's corps of officers includes Mrs. Frances Welch, associate matron; Tracy Morgan, associate patron; Mrs. Selma Porter, secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Cavin, treasurer; Mrs. Elaine Dews, conductress; Mrs. Lucille Corson, associate conductress; Mrs. Marguerite Smith, chaplain; Mrs. Mina Kimble, marshal; Mrs. Jessie Herin, organist; Mrs. Lulla Kendrick, warder; and Roscoe Kimble, sentinel.

Star points are Mrs. Alice Chandler, Ada; Mrs. Barbara Stewart, Ruth; Mrs. Meadus Wright, Esther; Mrs. Grace Harris, Martha; and Mrs. Sidona Beaughan, Electa.

The theme of the evening was the triangle of the Trinity and the motto of the Deputy Grand Matron Margaret Olson, "For Service, Not For Self." This theme was observed in the blue room decorations and on the refreshment tables with blue and yellow chrysanthemums and a autumn leaves completing the decor.

At the conclusion of the installation, the star points formed a triangle on the west steps, illuminated by colored lights while Mrs. Porter read the meaning of the Trinity.

The ceremony concluded with presentation of gifts to the retiring officers and tributes of thanks from Mrs. Morgan and her address.

A reception with refreshments and dancing in the maple room brought the evening to a close.

An honored guest was Mrs. Margaret Olsen, deputy grand matron of District No. 2, who was escorted to the east. Musical entertainment was provided by Mrs. Marjorie Williams, vocal soloist, and Miss Judy Kimble, violinist. Among the out of town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holcomb of Prospect, Oregon, parents of Mrs. Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Alberts and son, Larry, Mrs. Marjorie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gillewater, all of Grants Pass, Oregon.

AN EARLY SPRING WEDDING is planned by Terri Borgen to George Hanson, according to announcement made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Borgen, former Klamath Falls residents now living in Medford.

The prospective bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Alma Hanson and Percy Hanson, Bellingham, also former Klamath Falls residents.

Terri transferred from the University of Oregon this fall to Western Washington College, where her fiancé is also a student.

ALTAR SOCIETY

WEED—Election of officers and discussion of plans for a Christmas party made up the general business of the meeting of the St. Catherine's Altar Society held at the St. Michael's Hall last week.

The Rev. James Vaughn, new pastor of the Holy Family Catholic Church of Weed, was welcomed by the members on his first attendance with the society.

Mrs. Gino Micalon, was re-elected president of the group and will be assisted during the ensuing year by other elected officers including: Mrs. Paul Guerra, vice president; Mrs. James Aquila, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Duchi, secretary; Mrs. Alfred Linville, publicity; and Mrs. Carmen Mazzei, flower chairman.

The presiding officer announced that, beginning with the January meeting, all stated meetings would be held on the evening of the third Tuesday of each month.

The date of the society Christmas party is to be announced within the next few weeks.

Members present were served after a meeting refreshments by Mrs. Guerra, Mrs. Frank Mazzei, and Mrs. Carmen Mazzei. Those present included those mentioned and Mrs. Oliver Solus, Mrs. Anthony Vega, Mrs. Oscar Barbieri, Mrs. John Soletti, Mrs. Cedro Serna, Mrs. Harold Moore, Mrs. Victor Acquasapace, Mrs. John Mantle, Mrs. Nick Rovito and Mrs. Charles Bell.

Dal Gallo-Franchi Nuptials
In Mount Shasta St. Anthony's
Catholic Church Ceremony

MOUNT SHASTA—Elvira Franchi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Franchi of Mount Shasta, was married on October 27 to Frank Dal Gallo of Weed.

The couple exchanged vows at St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Mount Shasta. The Rev. Edward Christen officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bouffant gown fashioned in tiers of scalloped lace, a tight bodice, decollete neckline and sleeves inset with lace. Inset pleating cascaded into a chapel length train.

A veil of silk illusion was held in place with Chantilly lace over a tulle headpiece edged with seed pearls and tulle.

Verna Franchi, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink tulle gown. Secondary attendants, Gesilda Dal Gallo, sister of the bridegroom; Bianca Pastega and Rose Spini, wore gowns similar in styling to the one worn by the maid of honor.

A blue dress trimmed with pale blue and pale blue accessories were worn by the bride's mother. The bridegroom's mother wore a maroon dress with pink accessories. Carnation corsages completed both costumes.

Robert Fontana of Weed was best man; Richard Franchi, brother of the bride, Dante Capovilla and Joe Tallero of Weed were ushers. Mrs. Solon Busby was soloist, and Mrs. Joe Pohl, organist.

Over 200 wedding guests attended the reception at the parish hall following the ceremony. A multi-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom under a heart-shaped arch of pink roses and lilies of the valley, was cut by the newlyweds and a turkey and ham supper was served.

Assisting at the reception were Carole Riccomini and Mrs. Gino Ruffinelli. Dancing continued until a late hour.

The bride left for her honeymoon wearing a charcoal gray suit with turquoise accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. She is a graduate of Mount Shasta High School and Heald's Business College in San Francisco. Her husband, employed by the Long Bell Lumber Company is a graduate of Weed High School and a Korean war veteran.
