MATCH LOST

SHEPHERDSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—C. R. Shelton lost an impromptu wrestling match with a four-point buck yesterday. Shelton, 41, was trying to find out why several dogs were barking near his farm when the deer bolted through a patch of tall grass and banged into Shelton. The farmer and the buck wrestled a bit before the buck slipped away and swam across a river.

Farm Youth To Travel

A Klamath Falls youth was among the four Oregonians who will go abroad next year as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates. While overseas, the group will work and live with farm families.

Tom Zinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Zinn of Weyerhaeuser, and three others selected last week from among 16 candidates as official visitors in the program conducted by the 4-H Club foundation and the federal extension service.

The others are Marilyn Bradshaw of Albany, Carolyn Varitz of Estacada and Ward Armstrong of Newberg. Miss Varitz is a graduate of Lewis and Clark and a teacher at Grants Pass, and the other three are students at Oregon State College.

Although knowledge of a foreign language is not a requirement, Zinn speaks some German which he learned from his parents. Some of the other delegates have studied foreign languages in school.

The countries which will be visited by Zinn and the other delegates have not been decided upon, but delegates from throughout the nation will be assigned to countries in Europe, Africa, Asia and Latin America. They will spend six months in 1956 and 1957 in a country living with farm families in an attempt to better understanding between youth in the United States and other countries.

Zinn has been active in 4-H work since he was in grade school.

Eugene Timber Hearings End

EUGENE (AP) — A congressional committee looking into federal forest policies in the Pacific Northwest wound up its first week of hearings here Friday with a number of small lumber operators complaining about access road regulations.

Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore) said after hearing some 18 witnesses that "the whole case of access appears to be the meat of the coconut in this question of federal management so far as the smaller operators are concerned."

R. T. Ross of the Globe Lumber Co., Walton, Ore., told of difficulties his firm had experienced in bidding for federal timber. He said the Bureau of Land Management had prepared a tract of federal timber for sale and had worked out an agreement with his company for use of Globe access roads.

However, the day before the sale was scheduled, it was cancelled because BLM officials said they had made technical errors. When the timber was put up for bid again, the use of another company's roads was required to reach the timber. This other firm then was able to buy the timber for less, Ross said.

Day Bailey, Eugene attorney, suggested that the federal government turn back its timber holdings to the states for administration.

Others criticizing BLM access road policies included Welby Sehneider, Dale Porter and Nils Hult.

ALTURAS GARDEN CLUB

The home of Mrs. Fred Ash was the scene of activity on Thursday, November 10, when the members of the garden club met for their annual Christmas workshop.

Members answered roll call with showing a handmade ornament. Some of these were very clever in ideas and fashioned with expert workmanship.

Ornaments and decorations were made to be used in the decoration of the trees and halls of the Modoc Medical Center during the coming Christmas season.

The attendance prize furnished by the hostess, Mrs. Ash, an African violet in full bloom was won by Mrs. Joe Surmeier. The corsage made by Mrs. Bert Wardwell of pin-tail duck feathers and rhinestones was truly a masterpiece and was the subject of much favorable comment during the day.

Mrs. Phillip McKenny brought two arrangements of dry materials and conducted a contest upon the correct identification of the materials used. The prize, a lovely Christmas candle was won by Mrs. George Kormier.

Plans were made for the attendance of the district meeting to be held at Klamath Falls on Saturday, December 3, at which time a demonstration of the use of Christmas materials will be given by Mrs. Franz Nehammer, of Portland, the national chairman of flower shows of the federation.

Mrs. Conrad of the Cedarville Garden Club was a guest of the club. A delicious planned potluck luncheon was served at noon.

KLAMATH FALLS

Isabelle Brixmer spoke on "Beauty Is Where You Look For It," at the November 7 meeting of the Klamath Falls garden club held in the city library. Her talk, that emphasized the fact that much of the world's beauty is passed by, unobserved, was illustrated with colored slides.

Mrs. Hal Ogle led the pledge to the flag. Mrs. Phil Schroeder read the "Collect" by Mary Stewart.

Mrs. Raymond Ball was appointed vice president for the remainder of the year to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Fred Fletcher, teacher at Pelican School.

Mrs. Florence Briggs, Mrs. John F. Hein, Mrs. William Culberson, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. E. O. Jackson and Mrs. J. F. Ferguson, new members were welcomed and presented with pine cone corsages made by Mrs. Will W. Wood.

LADY VEEP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—There will be a lady vice president and three women members of the Supreme Court by the year 2000, says Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States.

Mrs. Priest made the prediction yesterday that half of Congress will be female by the turn of the century. Mrs. Priest addressed the ladies auxiliary of the American Institute of Laundering, holding its 68th annual convention here.

KUHS Girls Still Missing

State and city police continued a search Saturday for two Klamath Union High School girl students who have been missing for three days.

They are: Carolyn Young, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Young, 1707 Oak Street, and Janice Sharon Friend, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Friend, 4534 Douglas Street.

County Juvenile Officer Francis Mathews said Saturday night he was informed that the girls had made known their intention to run away in conversations with other students.

The Young girl is described as five feet four inches tall, weighing 120 pounds, wearing a blue skirt, white blouse, dark purple corduroy vest, blue (shortie) topcoat, white buck shoes and white boots. She has dark brown hair and blue eyes.

The Friend girl is five feet six inches tall and weighs 145 pounds. When last seen she was wearing a black sweater, charcoal grey skirt, white saddle oxfords, black gloves, green scarf and dark coat. She has short blonde hair.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of these girls is asked to phone state or city police.

Jury Finds Ford Guilty

After only a half hour of deliberation, a jury in Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg's court Saturday found Ulysses Ford, 28-year-old garage worker, guilty of forgery.

Ford was accused of signing the name of Leo Huls, Klamath Falls, contractor to a $47 check and cashing it at a local store.

After the verdict was returned, Judge Vandenberg announced he would pass sentence on Ford at 10 a.m. Tuesday. The check passer was remanded to the county jail.

On a motion of District Attorney Richard Beesley, a second forgery charge against Ford was dismissed. He was scheduled to face trial on that count Monday.

Ford was defended by Attorney Donald A. W. Piper, who a year ago won acquittal for Ford on another bogus check writing charge.
