The between-class candid was taken in front of one of the residence halls at Stephens, where Carolyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Boyd, 1315 Pacific Terrace, is a senior, concentrating in primary education. She is a member of honorary art sorority, Tau Sigma Tau; the honorary swim club, Swans; chairman of the Senior Pal group in her residence; chairman of the Burrall Community Service Project working with Girl Scouts—and she sings with the school's concert chorus.

Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Estes, 2056 Lawrence Street, is a junior, in retailing specifically, and a general course in her other study hours at the college. She and Carolyn are both members of the Stephens Independent Association, a social organization. —Photo by Sue Russell, Stephens

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST H. MOSER, of Stony Point, New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Maurice Alpert, Saddle River Township, New Jersey.

The announcement will be of interest to local friends of the Moser family and many former playmates of the bride-elect's. Her mother is the former Edna Dunbar, and she and her husband lived here with their two daughters, before going to Cameroun, West Africa, as missionaries, taking the girls with them.

Barbara attended Grove City College in Pennsylvania; and was graduated from Wood Secretarial School in New York. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Verna V. Alpert, Brewer, Maine. He is a graduate of the Maine Maritime Academy; attended the University of Virginia; and is a senior at the N.Y. University Law School. The wedding date is set for December 31.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN VOGEL (Angelina Pastega) cut the cake at their wedding supper Monday evening at Sari's. They were married on Thursday, November 10, by the Monsignor T. P. Casey at Sacred Heart Church with Mrs. Otto Sari and John Wallace as attendants. Mrs. Sari prepared the wedding supper with loving hands and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and Father Casey were among the 50 friends (one of whom came from as far as Weed) who were on hand to wish them happiness. —Photo by Ellis

Prosperity Chapter No. 160 Observes Star Point Night

MALIN—Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Order of Eastern Star, met in the Masonic Hall in Malin, Thursday, November 10, in regular session, with worthy matron, Emma Wilde, and worthy patron, Mervyn Wilde, presiding in the East.

Thelma Fink, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter No. 172, Klamath Falls; Edna Jones, worthy matron of Aloha Chapter No. 61, Klamath Falls; and Juanita Harris, worthy matron of Alpha Chapter No. 1, of Ashland were introduced and escorted to the East.

Following the regular business, star point night was observed by an addenda. Star point stations were filled by Adah, Frances Kalina; Ruth, Hazel Kalina, substituting for Hazel Bowman who has moved to Pasco, Washington; Esther, Nell Retterath, substituting for Virginia Blohm; Martha, Agnes Schreiner, substituting for Maxine Cole, who has moved to Corvallis and Electa, Mildred Dobry. Each was presented with a flower of her color station, and a gift of appreciation from the worthy matron and worthy patron.

First time visitors to Prosperity Chapter were introduced. They were: Mrs. J. Harris; Mrs. Dorothy Loomis and Mrs. Amy Hart of Manzanita Chapter; and Mrs. Eileen Hope, Oakdale Chapter, Oakdale, California.

Following the adjournment, the 50 members and visitors were served refreshments in the dining room which was decorated with stars in five colors: blue, yellow, white, green and red, also five colored papers on graduated candles, and place mats in the colors of the Star stations.

Refreshment committee members were Mrs. Peggy Harris, Mrs. Violet Harris and Mrs. Gladys Malperth, all of Bonanza.
