Band Festival Attracts Interest

The Honor Band and Chorus Festival to be held in Pelican Court, Klamath Union High School, Saturday evening, December 3, is attracting a lot of interest in the cities of Lake and Klamath counties and Northern California, announced Andrew Loney, director of music education in the city schools, today.

Students were selected for the band and chorus on the basis of their proficiency and interest in further music work. Both groups will be conducted by a nationally known director, W. H. Hannah, who will be here to rehearse the band and chorus all day, December 3, in preparation for the festival that evening.
