'Fun With Food' Toys Boom Spreading Through Playland

This Christmas toyland will resemble a supermarket with counters piled high with real miniatures of famous brands of canned and packaged foods and home maintenance aids.

Fun with food toys are a dominant trend in the new showings of how-to-do-it kits. Boys as well as girls are fascinated by chef activities involving full scale meal preparation, from soup to dessert with emphasis on well balanced nutritious menus, according to Toy Guidance Council.

Encouraged by letters from parents reporting improved eating habits evidenced by small fry who acquire chef skills, toy designers this season have come up with a bevy of new culinary adventures, slanted to the playroom set, including casserole cookery, meat sauces, twin soup combinations, as well as baking with mixes, short cut candy making and gelatine dessert projects.

Newest in the fun with food category is a how-to-do kit catering to junior frontiersmen. This Campbell Kids Chuck Wagon Set includes cans of real pork and beans, spaghetti and condensed soups, a campfire style pot and a set of outdoor eating equipment.

There's a record of cowboy songs to provide appropriate home on the range atmosphere. A cartoon style cookbook featuring Wild West recipes accompanies the kit. Pow Wow Chow, for example, is an easy-do combination of spaghetti. Dad's espousal of backyard bar-ting a featured spot in the toys to help home maintenance sector.

Watch Gains As Gift Item

Watches have been soaring to new popularity for gifting during recent years largely because they are, in addition to being a necessity, an important fashion item in the wardrobe of both men and women.

They are expected to be in highest demand for giving this Christmas with men becoming increasingly conscious of the fashion tastes of their wives. There are new watch bracelets for women designed to be an adornment rather than just a utilitarian means of holding the watch to the wrist, from which to choose.

There are the new tiny fashion watches, designed to decorate the costume as well as tell the time. These are contributions to good grooming.

There's a tradition among married folk of all ages suggesting the exchange of watches as gifts on important occasions. This has been stimulated by creation of designs that match, while they also reflect femininity on the one hand, and masculinity on the other.

Men are always candidates for watch gifts. If well equipped with a fine timepiece, he may welcome a rugged one for sports. On the other hand, if he hasn't a fine watch, perhaps this Christmas is the time to choose one for him.
