YULETIDE SPARKLE is reflected in a gift of costume jewelry. Here, bracelet, necklace and earrings by Tri-fari. Dress by Herbert Sondheim.

Gay Wrappings, Must For Christmas Gifts

Gay colorful wrappings are a must for Christmas gifts — even those to be mailed. But for mailing purposes, you'll need special designs that won't get crushed.

The answer to this problem is to use colored gift wrap tapes. These tapes can be arranged in a variety of designs that will be easy to cover for mailing.

Besides an assortment of colored tapes, you'll need white or colored shelf paper (less expensive than wrapping paper), transparent tape and a pair of scissors.

Cutouts from last year's greeting cards are helpful to add a few decorative touches.

Gifts may be wrapped in colorful Christmas papers or in plain shelf paper first. It's best to re-wrap the decorated package in the shelf paper before finally treating it for mailing. On the other hand, if first wrapped in shelf paper, gift wrap tapes can be used for applying myriad decorative designs.

Transparent cellophane tape can also be used in a number of ways to create unusual patterns. For a glamorous effect, try dipping the sticky side of the tape in gold or silver glitter and tape this around your package.

Even salt, talc or ornamental "snow" crystals can be applied to the sticky side of tape in the same way.

Toothpicks, colored straws and any other colorful items you might have around the house can be taped directly on the package to form original motifs.

Gifts for mailing out of town should be mailed about four weeks before Christmas. Cushion breakable items with excelsior or shredded paper.

An inner wrapping of corrugated paper gives extra insurance for packages marked "fragile." For the outer wrapping use heavy brown paper or a corrugated carton, as needed. Tie these with simply twine, doubling it for greater safety.

To keep the paper in place while you're tying it, fasten first with some cellophane tape.

It's also a good idea to use tape on the corners of the package to prevent the twine from cutting into the outer wrapping.
