

A BLANKET INVITATION was extended to members of the Klamath Falls Garden Club by Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, club president; and Mrs. J. Pitts Elmore, to a pre-holiday tea at the Dorlaque residence, 1953 Lawrence.

The hostesses planned the Wednesday afternoon, November 16, as a strictly social club event, to bring the members together for an informal discussion of mutual gardening and attendant interests.

MR. AND MRS. MILES L. MOORE cut their Golden Wedding anniversary cake at a recent celebration in observance of the 50th November 19th they have shared as a married couple.

In 1905 on that November date, Pearl Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Haskins, Pampa, Washington, became Mrs. Miles L. Moore in Pampa, Washington. They moved to Klamath County on November 1, 1909, and have been farming near Merrill since that time. Present for the festive occasion were their two daughters, Mrs. Hallie Dodenhoff, Eagle Point; Mrs. Esther Ervin, Cedarville; and three sons, Lester, Wendell and John, all of Merrill. Guests from a distance were a brother, Ray Moore and his wife, Dayton, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wolf, Berkeley; Mrs. Grace Platt, Ellensburg; and Margaret Ann Ervin, granddaughter, San Francisco.

A program of entertainment featured 10 grandchildren of the total 12 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild. The great-grandchild and two of the grandchildren were the only three not present.

AAUW Local Members Hear Illustrated Travel Talk At Winema Hotel On 19th

The American Association of University Women heard Orpha Hudson talk about "Truth is Stranger Than Fiction," at the regular monthly meeting held November 19 at the Winema Hotel.

Her talk was beautifully illustrated with slides taken on her trip this summer to England and European countries. She studied at three universities in England, Italy and Germany. Other countries visited included Ireland, Scotland, Switzerland and the Russian sector of Germany. She was introduced by Mrs. K. Stordalen, international relations chairman.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt presented Ken Jensen who played an oboe solo accompanied by Judy Hadley.

The stand to be taken by AAUW on other than educational matters was discussed by Mrs. William Wales Jr. It is hoped that each member will express her opinion by submitting a ballot.

Mrs. George Nelson introduced the following new members: Mrs. Richard Beasley, Mrs. Robert Nichols, Mrs. W. T. Long, Marie Johnson, Mrs. Gerald Cote and Joan Moore.

Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., announced plans for formation of a committee to gather AAUW literature to place on file at the Klamath Falls library, the material to be available to anyone interested.

Seasonal decorations of dried leaves and grasses were arranged by Mrs. Stordalen.

Pocahontas Social Night

WEED—"Thanksgiving" was the theme of the social night observed by the members of Wabeno Council No. 231, degree of Pocahontas, at the regular meeting of the local council held Friday night November 18 at the White Pine Hall.

Twenty members attended and a planned potluck dinner was served following the business session adjournment, presided over by Mrs. Al Cook, Pocahontas. Mrs. Cook was assisted by Mrs. Donald Zibull in the arrangements for the evening.

Delegate prize was awarded to Mrs. Andrew Schneberger and the mystery award was given to Roy Holder. The exchange of secret pal gifts added to the evening festivities.

COLOR... AS YOU LIKE IT

Yes, color can transform your room! Use color to set a mood, to brighten a dark corner, to camouflage a dated mantel (by painting it the same color as the wall), to give warm, friendly atmosphere to cheerless rooms, and rooms of northern exposure, to temper the warmth of sunny rooms. Use it to make every room in the home bright and cheerful. Lime and Wedgewood Blue were combined effectively in the Modern bathroom sketched. Washable, coated wallpaper has blue background with pattern in lime with dashes of shocking pink. Lime-colored draperies are plastic, need no laundering. Here is a room as practical as it is pretty. Both wallpaper and painted surfaces will stand hard use and repeated scrubbing.

We're proud of the fact that we bring you only the finest in tested materials and equipment. We make sure that you get high quality, good performance, and money-saving value with every purchase you make from us. Come in... make us your paint and wallpaper headquarters.
