Georgia Tech Shuns Segregation Protests

ATLANTA (UP) — Georgia Tech will ignore a protest by influential segregation supporters against the Sugar Bowl game with Pittsburgh, which has a Negro player.

"Our boys voted to play in the Sugar Bowl and we will not break our contract, especially since Georgia and Tech have played against Negroes before and there has been no criticism," a spokesman said.

If Pitt uses second-string fullback Bobby Grier he will be the first Negro to play in a Sugar Bowl football game but mixed athletics in other sports is not new to New Orleans.

Neither Sugar Bowl nor Tech officials placed any racial conditions in their post-season game contract and Pitt's Negro player attracted little attention until the protest was issued yesterday.

The executive committee of the States' Rights Council of Georgia, Inc., with membership including one member of the State Board of Regents, sent its protest to Georgia Tech Coach Bobby Dodd.

Dodd declined to comment publicly but the spokesman said Tech considered the matter to be "the Sugar Bowl committee's business—they make the invitations."

Although no Negro has actually played in a post-season Sugar Bowl game the Loyola University basketball team has been meeting teams with Negro players in games at New Orleans.

New Orleans observers knew of no state or local law such as exist in Alabama prohibiting such mixed sports contests.

Pitt football officials had already announced they would ignore the protest and said Grier may be the starting fullback.

Grier will "sleep, eat, practice and play" with the team during its training on the Tulane University campus, and in any of its off-campus recreational activities, a spokesman said.

Donavan New SF Seals Prexy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Jerry Donovan, named president and general manager of the San Francisco Seals, said Wednesday night of all the jobs in baseball "This is the one I wanted most."

Donovan, who has been president of the California State League and executive secretary of the Pacific Coast League, said:

"Now I'm going to pray we can have the kind of club that will draw the people back to the stadium."

Donovan's appointment was announced by Joe Cronin, general manager of the Boston Red Sox. Boston purchased the forfeit San Francisco franchise from the Pacific Coast League for $150,000.

College Season Underway

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Lasalle without Tom Gola, Dayton without Johnny Horan and North Carolina State with Ron Shavlik take to the courts tonight as another long college basketball season gets under way.

Lasalle, Dayton and North Carolina State are just part of the mob that gets the collegians rolling in their first big weekend of the season—but they are the only representatives of the top 10 teams of last season to play tonight.

San Francisco, No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll last season and the NCAA champion, opens tomorrow night against Chico State.

Lasalle, with three-time All America Gola graduated and now a pro, warms up against Millersville (Pa.) in its opener under new Coach Jim Pollard, the former pro standout.

Lasalle, ranked No. 3 behind San Francisco and Kentucky in last season's final poll, got a big jolt yesterday when Bob Maples, one of its returning veterans, broke an ankle in practice. He'll be out two months.

North Carolina State, in good standing after a season on probation by the NCAA, is back in force. The No. 4 team of 1954-'55 opens against Florida State with Shavlik, second-team All America who came into his own in scoring and rebounding, topping a club that lost only two from last season's starting five and is expected to make the big noise in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Dayton, the NIT runner-up and No. 9 in the final poll, is rebuilding with Jack Sallee and Chris Harris lost by graduation along with Horan. The new squad gets a test from touring Pepperdine tonight.

Bill Tarr Honored

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Bill Tarr, Stanford's all-Pacific Coast fullback from Bellingham, Wash., was named the team's outstanding player at the annual Stanford football awards banquet Wednesday night.

Quarterback Jack Lewis of Omaha was given the most inspirational player trophy.

Campy Backed By Cobb

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Roy Campanella is one of the favorites for the National League's most valuable player award and you can take it from Ty Cobb that the roly-poly catcher of the Brooklyn Dodgers really deserves such honors.

The Georgia Peach, first man into the Hall of Fame, goes even farther than that. He'll tell you that "with a couple more years" Campanella may belong on baseball's all-time team.

Cobb, who came East for a Shrine affair, isn't putting the knock on the modern ball players with his old enthusiasm, however.

Not too far back, in a magazine article, he found few good words to say for the modern players. It produced a quick bath in "hot water." Now he has good words for almost anybody you name, including such as Yogi Berra, Duke Snider and Ted Williams.

But only on Campanella and Phil Rizzuto does he wax enthusiastic.

"It's very hard for anybody to crack into my all-time team," Cobb admits. "How can you beat the likes of 'em."

NAMES TEAM

You wonder, too, when he names as his choices outfielders Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker and Shoeless Joe Jackson; infielders George Sisler, Eddie Collins, Honus Wagner and Pie Traynor; catchers Mickey Cochrane and Bill Dickey, and pitchers Walter Johnson, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Christy Mathewson, Big Ed Walsh, Eddie Plank and Lefty Grove.

"Just to show you what those guys could do," Cobb said, "look at Kid Nichols. He won 30 or more games for seven consecutive years. Some people may say that Rogers Hornsby belongs on any all-time team but he couldn't take pop flies and go back into the outfield like Collins."

But of the moderns, "who don't exercise enough in the off-season and are home run happy," Cobb thinks that Campanella and Rizzuto are fine all-time prospects.

"He's a catcher, that Campanella," Cobb enthuses. "The moderns don't play long enough to reach true greatness but with a couple more years he should have it made.

YANKEE HEART

"And that Rizzuto," he adds. "He should be in there. If there ever was a shortstop, there is one. He was the heart of those great Yankee ball clubs."

Ty admits cautiously that Hall of Fame selectors are reaching a stage where it is possible some undeserving players may get into the charmed circle because of what amounts to a talent-less popularity poll.

But Cobb will be 69 in December and at long last it appears that the all-time world champion of the basepaths is losing some of his fight.

"They could draw a line, at least between the dead ball and the live ball era," he said with equal caution. "But don't go saying that I said fellows like Campanella and Rizzuto were the only ones who are great today. Don't do that to me."

National Dog Trial Begins

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Thirty-six of the nation's top retrievers began four days of competition at a ranch near here Thursday to determine the national champion.

Ranging in value from $4,000 to $10,000 the bird dogs will vie in an elimination contest demonstrating their ability to retrieve pheasants shot on dry land and ducks dropped on water.

Site of the National Retriever Trials is the Conway Ranch, 16 miles west of here in Yolo County.

Out to retain his 1954 title is Major VI, owned by Mrs. Fraser Horn of Long Island, New York. King Buck, champion in 1952 and 1953, is also entered. He is owned by John Olin of Alton, Ill.

Some of the dogs, flown in by special planes, began working out more than a week ago.

Sports World Shorts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — Outfielder Harry Elliott of the St. Louis Cardinals who played with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League in 1954, has been sold back to the Padres. Elliott, who was used mainly in utility roles with the Cardinals in 1955, batted .256.

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. (UP) — Sugar Ray Robinson leaves by train for Chicago today after completing training here for his Dec. 9 middleweight title bout with champion Carl (Bobo) Olson. Robinson worked four brisk rounds Wednesday bringing to 52 the number of rounds the former middleweight champion worked here in two months.

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League have asked waivers on halfback Ralph Goldston and returned halfback Roy Ledbetter, out since Oct. 30 with an injured thumb, back to the active list. Goldston, of Youngstown, Ohio, was a star in his rookie year, 1952, with the club, sat out most of the next season after he suffered a broken leg, and has since been used mainly on defense.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (UP) — George Barclay's contract as head football coach at the University of North Carolina will not be renewed according to a report in the Charlotte Observer. Barclay's three-year contract expires Jan. 1. Most frequently mentioned as Barclay's successor is Jim Tatum, an alumnus, who currently is head coach at the University of Maryland.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (UP)—Willie Hartack, the nation's leading rider this year, who is bidding for 400 winners before the year ends, cained two more triumphs at Tropical Park Wednesday to run his total on the year to 393. Hartack scored on Bated Breath ($6.40) and Briar Man ($10.70).

OMAHA (AP) — Pete Elliott, former assistant football coach at Oregon State and now assistant at Oklahoma, is among those mentioned as a possible head coach at the University of Nebraska.

The Omaha World-Herald said an Oklahoma source reported Elliott has been approached for the job as successor to coach Bill Glassford. The source also reported Elliott is interested, and that Elliott is bound to become a head coach some place because "he's too good a man to hold as an assistant."
