

DIMINUTIVE is the word for this sawed-off ensemble, with demurely ruffled nightshirt stopping short to reveal beguiling little bloomers. Sanforized challis is printed in tiny rosebuds for daintiness and, since the outfit couldn't be much smaller, isn't it wonderful that the Sanforized label assures it can be washed repeatedly without shrinking? Artemis styles it for blondes or brunettes with pink or blue rosebuds on white grounds.

YOUNG NURSES will be just very professional in this costume which is a Christmas present for fun time all the rest of the year. Styled like a real nurse's outfit, it is made of Sanforized cotton, the crisp white apron and cap, with the identifying nurses' seals, going over a simple dress of light blue poplin. Over all is a dark blue cape with bright red edging. The whole outfit, including the cape, can be tossed into the washing machine. The Sanforized label on the costume means it can't shrink out of shape.
