Little Budding Beauties

"It was the night before Christmas" and all over the land little girls are stirring in their beds wondering what morning will bring. Every little girl dreams of being a fairy princess, so make her dreams come true on Christmas morning with a gift that breathes of enchantment.

So sweet, so feminine, so right for little girls, is Tussy's Budding Beauty. Either individually or in a gay gift set, Budding Beauty is a step in the right direction for the ever-increasing four-to-twelve age group.

Daintily packaged in pastel pink, decorated with white wavy lines and bearing the central motif of a little girl's head framed in a garland of flowers, the entire series presents a serious approach . . . yet soft and feminine . . . to a budding beauty's need for cleanliness and charm.

The light floral bouquet of Budding Beauty delights all the members of the family, and is the perfect accent for flower fresh little princesses. Bathtime will be funtime with the three little cakes of pure, mild, caustic-base soap molded in a replica of the Budding Beauty's head. If she's a shower "fish," she'll enjoy the jumbo bath soap that comes with a pale blue cord to slip around her neck and stay secure. And, what is more fun than a bubble bath! Let your little girl bask in the delight of a swirl of bubbles . . . whether with the liquid bubble bath or bubble bath powder . . . and, at the same time, be surrounded with the softly scented Budding Beauty fragrance.

Her topknot can be her topnote with the gentle, mild, yet effective liquid shampoo. Non-irritation to sparkly eyes and tender scalp. It keeps children's hair "squeaking" clean.

After bath fun will appeal to your budding beauty. An all-over spray with her own light floral toilet water is not only fragrant, but practical. It'll keep little fingers away from Mother's sophisticated scented Silky-soft dusting powder patted on from head-to-toe with a gay fluffly puff or her satiny powder mitt will make your little girl feel special and beloved as well as spanking

By Bessy, the Basin Bossy There must be a million kinds of pies. Well, a thousand, anyway. There are the ever popular apple, pumpkin, berry, cherry, cream and others.

And, once in awhile, somewhere, someone serves up something new in the way of pies. Below is one of these, designed to test your taste and heed only a tall glass of milk with each serving to make it complete.

It's Black Bottom Pie: Crust: 14 Graham crackers, 5 tablespoons melted butter. Filling: 1 tablespoon gelatin, 1 cup cold water, 2 cups rich milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 4 teaspoons cornstarch, 4 egg yolks, 1 1/2 squares chocolate, melted, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 2 tablespoons rum or 1 teaspoon rum flavoring, 4 egg whites, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon of tartar, 1/4 cup sugar and 1 cup whipping cream.

Crust: Roll crackers fine. Add melted butter, mix well, pat out evenly in a 9-inch pie pan and bake 10 minutes at 300 degrees F. Filling: Soak gelatin in cold water. Scald milk. Combine sugar and cornstarch. Beat egg yolks and add acid milk slowly, stirring well. Stir in sugar mixture. Cook over hot water, stirring occasionally, about 20 minutes or until custard coats a spoon heavily. Take out one cupful of the custard. Add melted chocolate. Blend well and cool. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla. Pour chocolate custard into crumb pie shell. Dissolve soaked gelatin in remaining custard which has been kept hot. Cool, but do not let set. Add rum. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add salt and cream of tartar and beat until stiff. Beat in gradually, one tablespoon at a time, one-fourth cup sugar. Fold the egg whites into the custard. Cover the chocolate custard with the rum-flavored custard. Chill until set. Whip cream until stiff and spread over top. Sprinkle shaved chocolate over the top. (Serves 6).

Ideal for Fall Winter Parties New 48-Cup Urn

With the arrival of winter weather, parties moved indoors from the patio and the beach, changing the accent from cool salads and iced tea to steaming casseroles and good hot coffee. What, for example, tops off a winter afternoon at the homecoming game better than piping hot chili and delicious coffee for the crowd? Nothing, to be sure, especially if the chili is really hot and the coffee is both flavorful and plentiful.

A new 48-cup coffee urn with self-contained heating unit that boils the water, then keeps the brew hot for serving, solves the problem of the busy hostess trying to keep many guests supplied with steaming coffee.

Only 24 1/2 inches high, the new urn makes 24, 36 or 48 cups of delicious drip coffee. It has a restaurant-type faucet with a glass gauge that indicates how much coffee is in the urn at all times. Weighing less than 12 pounds, it is easily portable from kitchen to recreation room to dining room. It's perfect, too, for clubs, church kitchens, lodge meetings, employe coffee rooms and many other places where coffee is needed in large quantities.

FRESH PEARS

Whether it is 7:30 breakfast or 7:30 supper, or anytime in between, baked fresh pears are a taste treat. Fresh baked or raw pears are so versatile they are good around the clock. To bake, cut pears in half and remove cores. Place, cut side down, in baking dish to which juice of a half lemon and enough water has been added to cover the bottom of the baking dish. Cover and bake about 30 to 25 minutes. Remove cover, turn the pears and sprinkle each pear half with 1 1/2 to 2 teaspoons sugar. Return to oven to glaze the pears and complete the baking, from 10 to 15 minutes.

perfect little girl fragrance . . . Budding Beauty. The dainty pastel pink gift box, with its own little drawer, will be a welcome addition to her table as an ultra feminine catch-all for bobby pins and curlers, pretty hair ribbons and perky bows.

There are many choices, many gift sets and combinations, and among them, is the so-right one for your budding beauty. Create a magic spell for that one-in-a-million child on your list with a gift that says "you're special" . . . and make her Christmas morning the morning always to be remembered!

THE TINA BOX is another addition to Shulton's Early American Old Spice line of women's toiletries. It contains miniature sizes of toilet water, bubbling bath crystals and body sachet with its own fluffly puff — all in the famous roses-and-spice fragrance of Early American Old Spice. This little set is an ideal weekend traveling companion and is an ideal way to start teen-agers on the road to fragrance-grooming.

Color for Christmas

Color has taken the country by storm. It is in everything from kitchens to Cadillacs—telephones to typewriters—the "magic of color" bringing us pleasure and warmth through a world of brilliant-hued pageantry.

So this year, do-it-yourself, put the magic of color into your Christmas. Choose luxury gifts in colorful designed boxes and make them personal, gay and exciting. For her — a fragrance gift, one to fit her personality, as well as a luxury to make his shaving and grooming a pleasure. Everything from bath crystals to perfume come in colorful single gifts or combination sets for the feminine names on your list. For the tiny tots, too, there are delightful miniatures in addition to the one pictured here. For him, the famous Old Spice for Men Shaving and Grooming luxuries are personal enough to delight any "male animal." They are colorful, too, in new bright red packaging, they're perfect for Christmas. You'll find gifts galore — everything from the familiar Shaving Mug to the new presurized Smooth Shave and Electric Shave Lotions, singly or combined in gift sets. Even for the youngest man in the house there are the new Shulton "Soap Personalities" — Pirate, Spaceman, Red Head, guaranteed to make even a future president run, not walk, to the nearest shower or tub.

When gift wrapping, let your imagination run riot and take you spinning into the wonderland of color. Use the brilliant new Decorator Colors if you like, Forest Green with Sky Blue — Baby Pink with Hyacinth.

Fragrance Each epoch has its great perfume. Christian Dior's "Miss Dior" and "Diorama" are perfumes of our times. Whether your gift is a magnificent Baccarat presentation of his perfume, or the two-ounce "Traveler" size of his Eau de Toilette, you may be confident of its welcome. "Miss Dior" is perfect if she is chic, feminine and if she delights in a beautifully composed floral fragrance. If she is brilliantly alive, subtly assured and frankly enamored of a smouldering Oriental fragrance, then give her "Diorama." The Eau de Toilette is presented in a deluxe flacon as elegant as if it were for perfume itself. Frosted embossing gives a charming light-and-shadow effect which makes the lovely liquid gleam like gold behind the crystal walls.
