Red Leaders Hear Nehru

CALCUTTA, India — With the Soviet Union's two top leaders listening, Prime Minister Nehru said Wednesday the world need not fear that his Russian guests will draw India into the Communist bloc.
He told an enormous crowd, here to welcome Soviet Premier Bulganin and Communist Party secretary Nikita Khrushchev, that India is sticking to its "basic policy" of not joining any "camp or alliance."

Then in an apparent reference to the blasts against the West by Khrushchev and Bulganin in previous speeches in India, Nehru declared:
"We try to be friendly with all countries whether we agree with them or not. That is the reason why we refrain from criticizing other countries, even when we disagree with their policies, unless circumstances compel us to explain our viewpoint."

Millions of wildly enthusiastic Indians packed Calcutta's streets and parks to greet the two Kremlin chiefs. The turnout was believed the greatest in India since the funeral of Mahandas K. Gandhi.
Thousands upon thousands had trekked hundreds of miles from Bihar and the interior of West Bengal. Some men, women and children had been camping for more than 36 hours in Mitan Park, in the center of Calcutta.

THE SEVEN CLEVER COOKERS

The third meeting of The Seven Clever Cookers was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Ernest Gray, November 15. President Martha Cantrall called the meeting to order with roll call by secretary Sue George, following the pledge to the flag. All members were present, including the assistant leader, Mrs. Gerald Quinn.

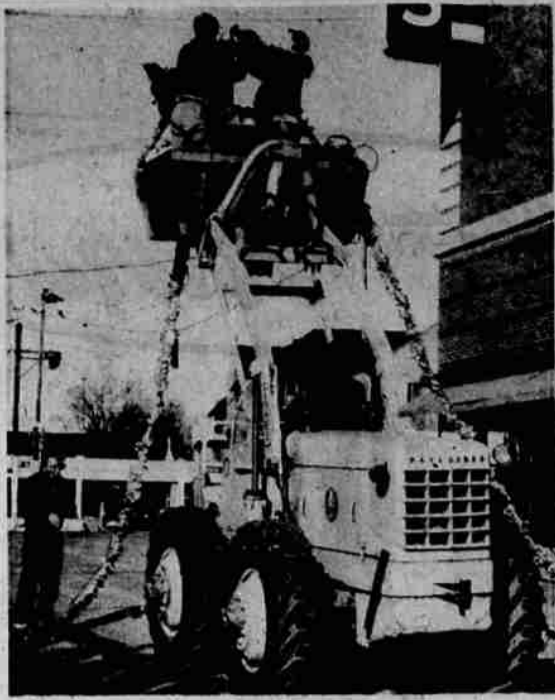

Following the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, the group discussed the creating of new officers for members not already in office. These will be yell leader, Betty Baumgart, refreshment chairman, Sharon Adamec, and keeper of the records, Judy Baumgart.

A scrap book was exhibited to the club by Sue George and Martha Cantrall.

The leader demonstrated the making of cream of tomato soup, and everyone wrote down the recipe. Mrs. Gray will demonstrate vegetable salad at our next meeting, which will be on our regular meeting night, Monday, November 28. All but one of the girls had completed their work to date.

After the meeting was adjourned the group played bingo, with everyone winning a prize.

Foresters Give Wrong Data

SALEM (AP)—Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry said Wednesday that the U. S. Forest Service gave him the wrong data for distribution of federal forest funds for 1954.

The apportionment totals $4,988,306, the same as originally announced. But the amounts given to individual counties were wrong.

The adjustment as to the individual counties will be made in next year's apportionment.

For instance, Lane County, which got the largest share, $1,030,350, was overpaid by $30,812.

Other overpayments to counties were: Benton $683, Clackamas $11,881, Coos $2,525, Jackson $2,073, Josephine $12,215, and Polk $306.
