

CITY BRIEFS

Square Dance—All square dancers are invited to the Merry Mixers open square dance at Henley Grade School gym Saturday at 8 p.m. Hank Fields of Alturas will call the dances.

Merry Mixers—The regular meeting of the Merry Mixers Square Dance Club scheduled for Friday night has been cancelled.

Food Sale—The women of the Church of the Brethren will hold a fancy work and food sale of cakes and candies at the Big Y Market on South Sixth Street all day Saturday.

Turkey Feed—The annual turkey dinner and bazaar of the Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will be held Friday, December 9. Serving will start at 5:30. The public is invited. This dinner was originally scheduled in November but was cancelled due to the bad weather.

Error Corrected—The time of a meeting of the Public School Faculty Wives was erroneously reported by the group to be scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday at the residence of Mrs. Len Surtles, 4330 Laverne. The correct time of the meeting is 8 p.m. on the same day.

Church Bazaar—The women of the Congregational Church will hold their annual bazaar and cooked food sale Saturday at Sears beginning at 9 a.m.

Naval Reserve—The Naval Reserve basketball team will meet for practice Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Riverside School gym.

Alumni Potluck—The Sacred Heart Academy alumni will hold a potluck dinner and social at the parish hall Saturday at 6:30 p.m. Those planning to attend are asked to call Mrs. Homer Brown, 4356.

Meeting—The Aloha Social Club, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Friday, December 2, at 1:45 p.m. at the Masonic Temple for potluck luncheon. Hostesses will be Maude Wright, chairman; Hazel Rhodes, Pearl Gisvold and Phyllis Rutledge, 1955 officers of the club. Members are asked to bring a potluck dish and gifts for gift exchange, 50 cent maximum. Grace Huls will be in charge of the Christmas tree.

Home—Mrs. Verne S. McClellan has returned home after undergoing surgery at the University of California. Herbert Moffitt Hospital in San Francisco. She was hospitalized for two weeks and her husband drove to San Francisco to bring her home.

Remember—The Klamath Union High Schools Parents and Patrons rummage sale at the Pelican Theater building, Friday and Saturday, December 2-3. Money raised pays for the annual senior banquet in the spring and goes also into the scholarship fund. Those having rummage to pick up call Mrs. Jim Olson, 5126 or Mrs. L. J. Craig, 5093.

ML Laki—Ladies Aid will hold a baked and cooked food sale starting at 10 a.m. Saturday, December 3 at the Quality Food Market. There will also be dressed chickens, cream and fresh eggs for sale.

Meeting—of Henley Bethel, No. 51, International Order of Job's Daughters, 7:30 p.m. December 5 at the Mt. Laki Church.

Vasa Meeting—The regular meeting of Klamath Lark Lodge No. 460, Vasa Order of America will start at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, December 3. A Lucia program and refreshments will follow the meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Death—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes, have received word of the death of Omer Avery, 60, Porterville, California. Mrs. Avery is the former Louise Goodrich, Klamath Falls and the couple visited here frequently. Funeral services were held November 28 in Porterville.

Called—Mrs. Lena Horton, Klamath Falls was called recently to Ashland by the death of her brother, Arthur F. Abbott, 84, member of a prominent Oregon family. Abbott was a retired Southern Pacific employe.

Mothers—who wish to attend the demonstration on making Christmas arrangements and other decorations to be given Saturday, December 3 at the Altamont Junior High School may have children cared for during the demonstration hours. Mrs. Franz Nehammer, well-known to local flower show enthusiasts will give the demonstrations. Instructions are open to the public starting at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Bazaar—St. Paul's Episcopal parish bazaar, Saturday, December 3 in the parish house, Eighth and Jefferson streets starting at 10 a.m. There will be baked foods, cookies, cakes, pies, candies. Also aprons and a variety of stuffed toys. Luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Coffee and sweets will be served all day and a spaghetti dinner at 6 p.m.

Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilkerson and children Dena and Gary, Los Altos, California have returned home after spending the Thanksgiving weekend with Wilkerson's mother, Mrs. Ingeborg Wilkerson, 912 Prospect Street, and his sister, Mrs. James B. Long, 4615 Winter Avenue. Wilkerson was employed at one time in the office of Ted Gillenwater when he was district attorney here.

Death—Word has been received of the death of a former Klamath Falls resident, Mrs. John Wolfrum, November 27 at her home in Kallispell, Montana. She left Klamath Falls about six years ago. A stepson, Fred Wolfrum, 4305 Altamont Drive survives. She was 75 years old.

Bazaar—Women of the Congregational Church will hold their annual bazaar and cooked food sale starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, December 3 at Sears Store.

BASIN BRIEFS

Home—Mrs. Marion Padgett of Keno, Mrs. William Habinek and Mrs. Asier Bowman of Klamath Falls returned by plane this past weekend from the East where they were called to the bedside of their mother, Mrs. G. P. Glasco who underwent major surgery in St. Michael Hospital in Texarkana on November 18. She is now at home in Broken Bow, Oklahoma.

Sunday Breakfast—Monthly King's Men breakfast at 7 o'clock, Sunday, December 4 at the Presbyterian Educational Hall at Lakeview.

Christmas Seal Sale—Bernard Busic, president of the Lake County Tuberculosis and Health Association, reminds Lake County residents to mail their Christmas Seal money before January 1. To date $484.90 has been turned in reports Mrs. Dean Elliott, Christmas Seal chairman.

Speech Scheduled—Daniel Dunham, Lakeview, national president of the Future Farmers of America, is scheduled to speak before the youth group of the National Farm Bureau Convention in Chicago on December 13-14.

In Maneuver—Marine Cpl. William S. Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Williams Erickson of Chiloquin, participated recently in a major amphibious exercise involving 25,000 Marines, 20,000 Navy men, 300 aircraft and 125 ships. The exercise was held on the Pacific Coast near Camp Pendleton, California. American ships were supplemented by ships of the Royal Canadian Navy.

Meeting—Unit No. 12 of the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Bonanza Club—The ladies of the Bonanza Women's Club are giving their annual bazaar and food sale at the library December 3 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Prizes will be awarded. This annual bazaar is given for the library fund for operating expenses. All contributions will be gratefully accepted.

Lorella Dance—There will be a dance at the Lorella Hall Saturday from 9 to 1 a.m. Music will be by the "Three Notes." Supper will be served at midnight.

Merrill—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham and children spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his mother, Sue Fellows, in Paradise, California. Mrs. Cunningham's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oldine of San Francisco were guests also.

Dance—The Step-En-Stompers Square dance has been cancelled for Thursday night, December 1 because of the high school basketball jamboree.

Fort Rock—Joint installation of officers for Summer Lake and Fort Rock granges will be held Saturday, December 3, at 8:30 p.m. at Fort Rock. Edwin A. Eskelin will be installing officer.

Dunsmuir—Six southern Siskiyou County merchants sponsored a style show and dinner dance at Hotel Dunsmuir on November 23. Peggy Reiberg of Mount Shasta was commentator. Seventeen models, professionally coached, showed a wide variety of styles. Music was by the Hottentot Trio.

Bonanza—Mrs. Florence Horn

Reunion—The first family reunion in eight years was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Groves, when all members of their family were home for Thanksgiving including Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Groves, Benicia, California; Mr. and Mrs. Dines Sapp (Jeri Groves) and four children, Lancaster, California; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hammers (Gretel Groves) and two children, Susanville, and Mr. and Mrs. Philo Groves and son, 2436 Vine Street, Klamath Falls.

Meeting—of the Henley Home Extension Unit, at the home of Mrs. Walter Croft, Friday, December 2 for a 9:30 a.m. breakfast and demonstration on candle-making.

and son Jack spent the weekend at Alturas and brought her aunt, Mrs. Annie Clins, back to Bonanza for the winter.

Visit Son—Mrs. Willard Noble of Bonanza is at Rapid City, South Dakota, visiting her son, Duane, and his wife, stationed at the Air Force base there.

Willow Ranch—The Willow Ranch Firettes will hold a card party Friday, December 2, at 7:30 p.m. at the Willow Ranch Fire Hall. Public is invited. There will be prizes and refreshments.

Alturas—Garden club members and their guests have been invited to the district garden club meeting and Christmas workshop to be held at Altamont Junior High School, Klamath Falls, Saturday, December 3. A coffee hour will be held from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m., preceding the lecture and demonstration of the use of Christmas materials by Mrs. Franz Nehammer of Portland. Luncheon at noon. Those from Alturas and vicinity wishing to attend are asked to call the president of the Alturas club, Mrs. Guy Young, at 4585, so that reservations may be made.

Wed—Hank Yamagata of Alturas, and Marie Ulmer of Arcadia, California, were married recently.

Malin—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilson spent Thanksgiving with his sister, Mrs. Emmaline Shepherd, and family in Portland, returning Saturday. His mother, Mrs. Emma Wilson, returned home with them after six weeks in Portland.

First Son—Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hawkins of Malin are parents of a son, Bruce, born November 21, at 5 a.m., weighing 5 lbs. 6 oz. He has two older sisters. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Storey, Malin.

Son—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale of Malin are parents of a son, Charles Harvey, born at Klamath Valley Hospital on Thanksgiving Day weighing 8 lbs. 8 oz. Mrs. Lena Francisco, Mrs. Hale's mother, is with the family until Christmas from Kisse Mills, Missouri. Hale is principal of the Malin elementary school.

Assigned—Dr. Al Miller, who has just finished at Stanford University, will teach botany at the University of Massachusetts. Mrs. Miller is the former Margie Bunge of Malin.

Go South—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. McAuliffe and Billy and Mary Lenore left Fort Klamath Sunday to spend the winter at their ranch home in the Bald Hills area near Cottonwood, California.

To Red Bluff—Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr., and six children left Thanksgiving Day for the winter at the Miller Company ranch.

With Parents—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Engle and family of Eugene spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle.

Fort Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley are grandparents for the fourteenth time with the arrival of their seventh grandchild, Rodney, weighing 7 lbs. 14 oz., November 23, to their son and wife, Aic and Mrs. Wilfred Loosley at Offut Air Force Base, Nebraska. This is the couple's first child.

Moved—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown and family moved last week from the Alta Rightier Apartments to the Weston Engle residence, Fort Klamath.

Christmas Party—The date of Thursday evening, December 22, has been set for the annual Fort Klamath community Christmas tree and program which will be held in the C.I. clubhouse. The holiday affair is sponsored jointly by the school, church and C.I. Club.

SHIP TO ARRIVE TOKYO, (U.S. Army Secretary Brucker will arrive here Saturday on a tour of the Far East. Brucker will visit Japan until Dec. 9, spend two days each in Korea and Okinawa and then visit Formosa.

Decoration Plans Finished

Plans are complete for the demonstration of Christmas decorations to be given Saturday at Altamont School by Mrs. Franz Nehammer, Mercer Island, Washington, according to Mrs. Charles Thurman, Klamath district garden clubs president.

Mrs. Nehammer, who is a member of the National Board of Research for the Federation of State Garden Clubs, will present two lectures and demonstrations, at 10:30 and 1:30, in the Altamont gym.

Lunch will be served at Joan's Kitchen at the fairgrounds. Guests are asked to bring their own table service, including cup, plate and silver.

There will be booths at which candy, cookies, fruit cakes, corages and materials for making Christmas decorations will be sold. Child care will be provided, and mothers are asked to bring a sack lunch for their children.

The public is welcome to attend both demonstrations at a cost of 50 cents per session. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Charles Thurman, 7838.

Rape Trial Begins Monday

A preliminary hearing for Billie Richardson, 20-year-old Bend logger, charged with rape, is set for Monday at 10 a.m. in District Judge D. E. Van Vactor's court.

The logger, accused of ravishing a 26-year-old Klamath Falls housewife was arrested Wednesday in Roseburg by Deputy Sheriff Del Summers.

According to District Attorney Richard Beesley, Richardson was a guest in the home of the woman he is alleged to have attacked. The attack was supposed to have occurred after the alleged victim's husband was called out in the night to go to work.

As soon as he was booked at the county jail, Richardson, who claims he has been "framed," retained the legal firm of McKay and Panzer of Bend to represent him. He refused to make a statement to the district attorney.

Lakeview Streets To Be Decorated

LAKEVIEW—Lakeview's streets will start wearing their Christmas trimmings on December 2, announces Mills Flynn, chairman of the retail merchants committee which each year furnishes the street decorations.

On December 10 at 2 p.m. at the High School Auditorium, the retail merchants will give their annual Christmas party for the children of Lake County. H. M. Goodenough, chairman, says there will be a movie and treats.

Auto Slides On Scott Hill

LANGLE VALLEY—Slippery road conditions were blamed for an accident shortly after 6:45 a.m. today on Scott Hill.

Katherine Dearborn, who works for Lorenz Company in Klamath Falls, left home as usual to drive to Bonanza where she usually rides into Klamath Falls with Reg Thomas. When she did not arrive, Mrs. Thomas phoned the girl's parents.

Her father found her walking toward home about three-quarters of a mile from the spot where her car had gone out of control and overturned, badly damaging the automobile. Harold Snyder took Miss Dearborn to Klamath Falls for medical attention for cuts and bruises.

Shooting Fray Jails Worker

A 64-year-old steel worker was held in the county jail Thursday on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon following a shooting affray at 1713 Fargo Street. Two other persons are held as material witnesses.

The victim of the shooting Tuesday night, Luther Carey, 41-year-old unemployed construction worker, is in Klamath Valley Hospital with a bullet wound in his chest.

Robert Christensen was charged with the shooting in a complaint filed by District Attorney Richard Beesley. Christensen was given a $500 bond.

Scout Tree Sale Starts Saturday

LAKEVIEW—Scouts of Explorer Post No. 115 and Troop No. 15 open their annual Christmas tree sale on Saturday, December 10 at the Adams and Fossum Lumber Yard. Special orders will be taken for taller than average trees.

As a community service, the Scouts will collect discarded Christmas trees after New Years Day for a special tree burning at the city dump. The date of tree pick-up will be announced later, states Millard Adams, explorer adviser.

The two Scout groups are sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Auto Slides On Scott Hill

LAKEVIEW—Slippery road conditions were blamed for an accident shortly after 6:45 a.m. today on Scott Hill.

Katherine Dearborn, who works for Lorenz Company in Klamath Falls, left home as usual to drive to Bonanza where she usually rides into Klamath Falls with Reg Thomas. When she did not arrive, Mrs. Thomas phoned the girl's parents.

Her father found her walking toward home about three-quarters of a mile from the spot where her car had gone out of control and overturned, badly damaging the automobile. Harold Snyder took Miss Dearborn to Klamath Falls for medical attention for cuts and bruises.

en until Monday to decide whether he wants a preliminary hearing when arraigned late Wednesday before District Judge D. E. Van Vactor. His bail was set at $3,500.

Beesley also ordered Edith Edna Atkinson, 51, and her husband, Walter V. Atkinson, 48, held as material witnesses.

The district attorney said the shooting followed an evening spent drinking in taverns by the four persons involved.

"We have been unable to find out the exact cause of the shooting," Beesley explained. "We know that the four persons were all in the Fargo Street house at the time. Carey says he was shot by Christensen."

LIKE TO SELL A TRAIN? Now's the time! Call 8111 for a helpful Classified ad-writer.

TREAT YOURSELF AND YOUR FAMILY JUMBO Frog Legs FOR ONLY $1.35

PENNEY'S ALWAYS FIRST QUALITY! Jingle Jingle Hear the sweet sound of extra-savings in your pocket!

Christmas Dollar Days! ELEVATOR SERVICE ALL FLOORS

COLLECTORS ITEM 200 ONLY IMPORTED CUP and SAUCER SET

Penney's SPECIAL PURCHASE of famous maker's costume jewelry!

TOYLAND SPECIALS Take the Elevator to the Third Floor HYDRAULIC DUMP TRUCK A ONE-TIME BUY! TERRIFIC VALUE!

LAZY SUSAN Ball Bearing Revolving base. 5 compartments. BALCONY

CHRISTMAS STORE HOURS OPEN EVERY FRIDAY NIGHT 'TIL 9'

SMALL DEPOSIT HOLDS CHRISTMAS LAYAWAYS TILL DEC. 15th

Penney's Sleepwear Special SLEEP-WARM GOWNS OF COTTON FLANNELLETTE 177 SPECIAL!

PENNEY'S PRETTIES 3/1.00 All Gift Packaged three to a box in white and pastel colors... lace trimmed... elastic leg.

SPECIAL! Quality-Packed BEDSPREADS 5.00 A Terrific Value for your own use or a much appreciated gift.

BROADCLOTH PAJAMAS... A WORTH-MORE GIFT 2.00 This one time buy gives you fine Penney pajamas for less!

DACRON SHARKSKIN UNIFORM 5.00 Save Money! Save Time! They need so little care.