

Prosecution Says Abbott Guilt Sure

By GLENN STACKHOUSE
United Press Staff Correspondent
OAKLAND (UP)—The prosecution claimed today it has already presented enough evidence to prove Burton W. Abbott guilty of murder "beyond any doubt."

But even so, Dist. Atty. J. Frank Coakley prepared to call a noted criminologist to the stand to provide the "exclamation point" to his case.

The criminologist, Dr. Paul Kirk of the University of California, is expected to testify that a fragment of Stephanie Bryan's dress was found in Abbott's car.

Abbott is on trial for kidnaping and murdering the 14-year-old Berkeley schoolgirl on April 28. Her body was found near his mountain cabin on July 20. Her assailant had beaten her to death.

To lay the groundwork for Kirk's testimony, Coakley prepared to recall an important witness to the stand. He was Inspector Charles O'Meara of the Berkeley Police Department, the man who coordinated the investigation of the case.

O'Meara will be asked to identify the fragment. He will probably say it was from the slain girl's skirt. And Kirk will then tell where it was found.

Kirk is expected to take the stand tomorrow.

Another witness to be recalled is Mrs. Charles S. Bryan, Stephanie's mother. It will be her heartrending task to identify the clothing taken from Stephanie's body after it was found in its shallow grave.

Mrs. Bryan has already looked at the clothing. This was to lessen the shock that would have come if she had to examine the garments publicly for the first time since her daughter vanished.

Coakley said that even without Kirk's testimony, he thought his case against Abbott was proved.

He pointed to the testimony of witnesses who placed Abbott in Berkeley on the afternoon of April 28 and near the corner where Stephanie was last seen; and to witnesses who told of seeing a man resembling Abbott struggling with a girl resembling Stephanie on Tunnel Road.

He also pointed to the fact that some of her belongings turned up in the basement of Abbott's Alameda home and that her body was found near his cabin. Abbott has admitted being at the cabin April 28.

Planes Seek Lost Fliers

HAMILTON AFB (UP)—Air Force and civilian rescue planes resumed search at dawn today for a light plane and two men missing three days on a flight from Reno to Oakland.

The missing men were identified as Robert G. Holsten, 29, San Francisco, the pilot, and his passenger, E. Woods (or Woodson), Oakland.

Holsten, a pilot for American Air Service of Oakland, and his passenger took off from Reno in the Beechcraft Bonanza at 4:30 p.m. Thursday and business associates said they planned to arrive in Oakland the same day. They filed no flight plan.

Maj. William McDonald of the 41st Air Rescue Squadron said the plane was not reported missing until yesterday.

The search was concentrated in Northern California and Nevada over the route a light plane normally would follow in crossing the Sierras.

County Fair End Asked

PORTLAND (UP)—Dissolution of the Multnomah County fair was proposed Sunday by an official of Wood Village, the community where Multnomah County commissioners want to locate the new fairgrounds.

Robert M. Chrichton, chairman of the Wood Village planning commission, suggested that "The people of Multnomah County be given an opportunity to vote on the dissolution of the county fair with the proceeds of such liquidation to go to the county school fund."

Other officials of the residential area now under development also protested location of the fairgrounds in the Wood Village area.

Mayor Paul G. Sherman said the district had been planned and zoned for residential construction.

He added that county officials had not consulted him before taking options on the 170-acre tract.

Sherman was critical of the fair management's proposal to rent part of the area for dog racing. He said commissioners were "attempting to foster private interest in dog and horse racing, cloaked in the mantle of public profit."

He also challenged the right of the county "to engage in or foster private enterprise even through rentals."

CHAMP HERRIN, Ill. (UP)—The new champion of the English Springer Spaniel National Amateur Shooting Dog Stake is Sam-Dwan Sam, owned by Mrs. Delancey Nicoll Jr., of Friday Harbor, Wash.

PRINEVILLE (UP)—Another child has been stricken with polio in this area—raising the Crook County total for the past five months to nine cases.
