Adage Faces Sugar Ray

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP) — Sugar Ray Robinson will be fighting the past as well as the present when he climbs into the ring Friday night.

His opponent will be Bobo Olson, the man from whom he hopes to regain the middleweight championship of the world. But Sugar Ray also must beat the ancient boxing adage that "they never come back."

Nobody ever has.

None outside the heavyweight division ever has come back even far enough from retirement to merit a shot at the title. In this one instance, the Harlem dynamiter has shattered precedent in the lesser divisions.

But not even among the heavyweights — from John L. Sullivan through the likes of Gentleman Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries and Joe Louis—were they able to recapture the title they had lost or given up voluntarily.

HAD SHOT

Those five had their shot. Others like Jack Dempsey, Primo Carnera and Max Schmeling, among the heavyweights, never got back that far.

Nor, in the lighter divisions, did such as light heavyweight champion Paul Berlenbach; middleweight kings Billy Papke, Mickey Walker, Vince Dunee, Ceferino Garcia or Jake La Motta; welterweight champions Pete Latzo, Fritzie Zivic or Marty Servo; lightweight rulers Bat Nelson, Ad Wolgast, Willie Ritchie, Benny Leonard, Al Singer, Tony Canzoneri, Lew Ambers, Bob Montgomery or Beau Jack; featherweight bosses Benny Bass or Bat Battalino, or bantamweight Panama Al Brown.

They all tried, for one reason or another. For a very few it was boredom and the personal thought that they still were as good as ever. For most of them it was the need for money. This, it is said, is Robinson's excuse and need.

TITLE SHOT

Look merely at the ones who made it back to the title shot. The great John L. had been out two years when he came back and was kayoed by Corbett. Gentleman Jim tried it three times and was flattened by Fitzsimmons after a 16-month layoff; by Jeffries after a two-year retirement, and again by Jeffries after a three-year layoff.

Fitzsimmons tried after a five-year retirement, and called it quits after a no decision bout with an unknown. Jeffries waited six years and was flattened by Jack Johnson. Louis lost to Ezzard Charles after 19 months of inactivity and wound up as cannon fodder for Rocky Marciano.

The periods of retirement varied in the cases of all these champions who attempted a comeback. Mickey Walker was inactive only eight months, yet even in that brief time he had "had it." Servo waited only a year, but was kayoed in his second attempt.

MANILA, (UP)—Danny Kidd of the Philippines, successfully defended his flyweight championship of the Orient Wednesday when he scored a 12-round decision over rugged Vitichai Kunoi of Thailand. Kidd scaled 111¾ pounds to his opponent's 109¾.

NEW YORK (UP)—The Eastern College Athletic Conference opened a three-day meeting Wednesday by electing presidents for its various affiliated leagues and associations and set dates for some of its 1956 and 1957 events. In the most notable change, Providence College was admitted to the Intercollegiate Ice Hockey Assn., raising the number of schools in the league to 15.

DUBLIN, Ireland (UP) — The Irish Olympic Council has announced that a 10-man team and manager will be sent to represent Ireland at next year's Olympic games in Melbourne, Australia. A nation-wide drive to raise funds to send Irish competitors to Melbourne will be started soon.

QUANTICO, Va. (UP) — Wes Santee, former Kansas U. runner now in the Marines, clipped two seconds off his own American three-quarter mile record Wednesday when he was clocked in 2:56.2. Santee set his previous mark at Randalls Island, N.Y., in 1952.

COLLINS, Miss. (UP) — The Covington County Board of Supervisors today withdrew a $250 donation to help finance a California trip for the Jones Junior College band because the school is playing against Negroes in the Junior Rose Bowl.

Jones' unbeaten football team faces Compton, Calif., Junior College's unbeaten football team with several Negro players in the lineup, next Saturday at Pasadena.

Brown Shuffles For Title

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press Sports Writer

Paul Brown probably won't be picked as the National Football League's coach of the year this season because folks are surprised only when his Cleveland Browns lose — but he had to do some fancy shuffling to win his 10th straight pro division title.

When the 1955 season began, Cleveland was the special target for every rival because it was the defending league champion. And Brown's problems included:

1. Billy Reynolds and Chet Hanulak, two top - notch halfbacks, were in the service.

2. Tommy Catlin, the former Oklahoma star, also was in the service.

3. Tony Adamle, an expert linebacker who came out of retirement to help Cleveland clinch the 1954 Eastern Division title before suffering a broken leg, had decided to concentrate on his medical studies.

4. Kurt Burris, the Oklahoma All-America Cleveland had drafted No. 1 last January to bolster its linebacking, decided to play in Canada.

EXPERIENCE

5. Rookie Sam Palumbo of Notre Dame, the team's No. 2 linebacker, had virtually no previous experience at this vital defensive position.

6. Of the team's rookie hopefuls, only Palumbo, Bob Smith of Nebraska and Charley Weber of West Chester Teachers made the squad. Of the 33 players, 16 were "old men" between 29 and 34 years of age.

7. Otto Graham, who came out of retirement just before the campaign opened, played poorly in Cleveland's opening loss to Washington.

Shortly before the season began, Brown ran out of healthy halfbacks and had to shift Fred Morrison from fullback to halfback. He got a lucky break when he obtained fullback Ed Modzelewski from Pittsburgh. He switched tackle Bob Gain to middle guard. He moved Mike McCormack, one of the league's top middle guards last season, to offensive right tackle.

McCormack's blocking became the key that made Morrison and Modzelewski the league's best 1-2 running punch this year.

DIVISION TITLE

After completing the shuffling, Brown said early in the season he believed the team which suffered the least injuries probably would win the Eastern title. Most of his superbly-conditioned "old men" were fortunate enough to escape serious injuries and the Browns clinched the division title last Sunday.

The Browns can concentrate on celebrating "Otto Graham Day" this Sunday while the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears decide the Western Division winner. The Browns (8-2-1) are picked to defeat the Cardinals (4-6-1) at Cleveland. The Rams (7-3-1) are picked to defeat the Green Bay Packers (6-5) at Los Angeles and the Bears (7-4) are picked to defeat the Philadelphia Eagles (4-6-1) at Chicago.

Other selections for the final regular season games: Baltimore Colts (5-5-1) over Forty - Niners (3-8) at San Francisco; New York Giants (5-5-1) over Lions (3-8) at Detroit; Redskins (7-4) over Pittsburgh Steelers (4-7) at Washington.

Survey Says TV Big Help

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's been more interest shown in college football and more talk about it since the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. has been bringing the game into living rooms and bar rooms via television. Has that helped the game as a whole? Dunno.

The nation's sports writers and broadcasters, uncertain about the effects of TV on football in past seasons, cast a nearly unanimous vote in favor of it as an advertising agent in The Associated Press post-season football survey.

But they were pretty evenly divided as to whether televising football hurt the gates at non-televised games.

Only a few raised the question of whether the NCAA restrictions on television were satisfactory or otherwise—a subject that has brought a sharp division of opinion in past seasons. Apparently they feel that the restrictions, like TV, are here to stay.

In reply to the question, "Has the televising of games increased or decreased interest of the public in football?" 126 out of 149 newsmen and radio-TV experts gave the opinion that there had been an increase. More women and people who normally don't go to see games, they pointed out, now were getting a taste of football and liking it.

Only two said that interest in general had decreased and 13 said there was little or no effect from TV. Eight gave no opinion.

At the same time many of them claimed that television whetted the fans' appetities only for more televised games. On part 2 of the question, concerning the effect on attendance at non-TV games, 49 said there was little or none, 38 said attendance definitely was hurt and 12 gave the opinion that the increase in attendance was reflected in greater attendance.

There was a general agreement that the real big games were hurt little, if at all, by TV competition but that the smaller schools and secondary games suffered—especially if a top attraction was on TV. The effects of bad weather and traffic also came into the discussion.
