Mixing-Bowl Fresh Angel Food Cake Mix By Dromedary

Angel Food Cake, light as a moonbeam, fluffy as a summer cloud, white and moist as a fresh snowfall—that's the kind of cake promised by Dromedary with its new Early American Angel Food Mix. The new mix will be on the market in Klamath Falls early in January.

Dromedary has turned to a favorite recipe used in the birthplace of Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scouts.

The inspiration for this new mix—a veritable masterpiece of the baking art—was found in an old family cookbook. Result is an Angel Food Cake that bakes high and light and with a yummy crust and flavor all its own.

Dromedary received the rights to the Angel Food Cake recipe used in this mix in return for its support of the restoration and endowment of that historic home now owned by the Girl Scouts of the USA, a member organization of the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

Once again, Dromedary is making history with another historic recipe. Watch for it in January on your grocer's shelves.

Fashion Cuff-notes

More and more it becomes apparent that the West is becoming as much of a style-setter as the East.

Oregon's own Jantzen and White Stag are known all over the world. So, too, are many California designers and manufacturers.

You might make Christmas gifts a family affair this year and include yourself in on this gift-matching terry robes from Jaybro of California. All can be monogrammed in any color you choose and they stay fluffy after repeated launderings. No need to iron or have them drycleaned.

Lee Mar of California has a wonderful line of blouses for Christmas this year—nylon which needs so little upkeep. Just wash and hang. No pressing, please. Some have festoons of pearl, crystal and diamante on the front—wonderful with a bouffant black taffeta skirt for the holidays.

Don't forget Cole of California or Koret of California, either, when doing your Christmas shopping.

ESCALLOPED POTATOES

Next time you scallop potatoes, add a can of chicken fricassee and you'll find yourself with a grand solution to the old problem of finding a new touch for an old standby. Remove chicken from 1 can (1½ cups) chicken fricassee. Dice chicken and mix again with fricassee gravy. Layer 5 cups of thinly sliced potatoes (6 medium potatoes), chicken fricassee, ¼ diced pimiento, and 2 tablespoons minced parsley into a buttered 2-quart casserole. Add ½ teaspoon salt, dash black pepper and ¼ cup water. Stir to moisten potatoes. Cover and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) for 1 hour. Makes four generous servings.

Serve the famous noodle that won't slide off the fork!
