SOCIETY

Santa might need his hair trimmed out of his eyes a bit—but he does not have double vision. The picture isn't a double exposure, either. That's four sets of twins—and all of them from the first three grades at Henley School.

ALL-TWIN GUEST LIST FOR "DOUBLE-OR-NOTHING" PARTY

IF YOU WEREN'T a twin—you weren't invited to the "double-or-nothing" birthday party, December 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, Merrill Highway. Charles and John Elliott were 7 December 6—and the party was to celebrate the birthday anniversary. No girl twins qualified—so the all afternoon and evening social whirl was strictly stag. The celebrants and their guests met at the Elliott home before show time, and were driven to the Pelican Theater for the matinee. They returned to the Elliott home afterward for a lively "social hour" and "after-show" supper. The by-request menu featured baked beans, hot dogs, relishes, assorted beverages including milk and elaborate twin birthday cakes. In the picture with Santa—(individual identities not certain) from the left, Ronnie and Lonnie Blafsky, who were 7 April 16; Terry and Jerry Norris, 7 September 7; Charles and John Elliott, 7 December 6; and Billy and Freddy Rapp, 8 June 22. (Story on inside page).

SIX HOURS after they met at 1 p.m., the boys were still going strong—and all went to the table equipped with appetites that did justice to the hearty dinner. —Photos by Milly Ramsby

BEFORE the grand entrance into the dining room, the young hosts and guests pause for a picture on the stairs.
