Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moak Feted On 50th Anniversary

The Golden Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Moak was celebrated Sunday afternoon, November 27, at a beautifully arranged reception given for them in the Pelican Party Room.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiggins, son-in-law and daughter of the feted couple planned the celebration; and the Wiggins' daughter, Marcelyn, and her husband, Robert Haines were here from San Francisco to stand in the receiving line with parents and grandparents.

The Moaks were married November 26, 1905, in Braxton, Mississippi, and moved to Klamath Falls in 1923. He was retired in 1947 from Long-Bell Lumber Company — after 25 years with the firm.

Of their 50 married years, 32 of them have been as residents of Klamath Falls — and approximately 150 of their many friends called between the hours of three to five to extend congratulations.

A three-tiered Golden Anniversary Wedding cake centered the candlelighted buffet table from which varieties of party refreshments and punch were served with the cake during the reception hours.

One gift, "just for Mrs. Moak," was most thoughtful and unique. The congratulatory card of the afternoon — a son of Mrs. Moak's and a miniature jeweled wedding bell signed by a ring which was inscribed for the occasion, a good luck charm with the couple's names and year of their marriage, and a small gold heart inscribed "Marcelyn" — Marcelyn Haines is their only grandchild.

The sentimental and long-planned gift was sent from a sister of Mrs. Moak, Mrs. Ida Haines of New Orleans, who couldn't be here for the reception.

Assisting the Wiggins during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd East, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wiedemann and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gaynor, former Klamath Falls residents of the Moaks, and living in Wood.

One out of town guest is daughter, Mrs. Vera Manning, who is a nurse and wife of a doctor, and Mrs. H. P. Westerland, Eugene, and Loni and Ching Lu, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gaynor, Wood.

LODGE NO. 373

WEED — Election of new officers and an annual Christmas party will complete the agenda for the December 14 meeting of the Atlanta Rebekah Lodge No. 373.

The stated election follows the second nominations for the new officers at the November 23 meeting of the lodge and included the nominations of Mrs. Harry Hodge, vice-president; Mrs. William Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Emma Berg, secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Williams, treasurer.

MR. AND MRS. BENNETT WAYNE ROBERTSON—married Thanksgiving Day, November 24, in Klamath Lutheran Church. The 10 a.m. double ring marriage service was read by the Rev. Kent Spaulding in the presence of close friends and relatives. The bride is the former Nancy Lee Plughaupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wesland, 2143 Orchard Avenue; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Robertson, 1463 Greensprings Drive.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. James Carlos Baker, Bend; and organist, Mary Ann Munson, played incidental wedding music and accompanied soloist, Lois Robertson, bridegroom's sister who sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The couple will live in Klamath Falls where both are graduates of UHHS. He is employed by Weyerhaeuser Timber Company. For the informal wedding the bride wore a peach-pink knit suit, rhinestone jewelry and a black velvet hat. She carried a small arrangement of champagne pink chrysanthemums tied with white satin ribbon. Special guest at the wedding was Mrs. Martha Sjodin, bridegroom's grandmother, from Bellingham. —Photo by Forebag.
