Browns, Rams Will Meet December 26 In NFL Playoff Tilt

By RIP WATSON
The Associated Press

It'll be the Cleveland Browns vs. the Los Angeles Rams again for the National Football League title Dec. 26, and if past playoff records mean anything, look out, brother!

Otto Graham and company haven't met the Rams in a playoff in the last three years, but the Cleveland-Los Angeles battles of 1950 and 1951 had the fans gasping.

The Browns, completing their triumphant switch from the All-America Conference to the NFL, won the first time 30-28 on Lou Groza's 16-yard field goal with 28 seconds to play. The Rams evened the count the next year 24-17, with the winning touchdown a 73-yard pass play from Norm Van Brocklin to Tom Fears.

Van Brocklin was pitching at the same old stand yesterday as the Rams clinched the Western Conference title with a 31-17 victory over Green Bay. But it was a rookie, ex-Maryland star Ron Waller, who brought the cheers from the crowd of 90,535 in Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum. The crowd, incidentally, was the biggest of the professional season, although that figure probably will be topped in the playoff on the same field.

The Rams went into the game knowing they had to win, for the scoreboard showed the second-place Chicago Bears had completed their season by beating Philadelphia 17-10. Waller ripped off a 55-yard touchdown run on the fourth play of the game and the Rams were never headed. He also scored two more touchdowns on short plunges.

The victory left Los Angeles with an 8-3-1 mark compared to Chicago's 8-4.

The Browns, with their sixth straight Eastern Conference title already tucked away, apparently suffered something of a letdown and had to go all out with three touchdowns in the last five minutes to down the Chicago Cardinals 35-24.

Graham, making what he said was positively his last appearance before the home folks, passed for three touchdowns, including a play covering 41 yards to Ray Renfro for the winner. He also clinched the league passing title with an average of 9.30 yards for every pass thrown.

Another NFL star wound up his career at home, but in less successful fashion, as the New York Giants downed Detroit 24-19 despite Doak Walker's 11 points. The Lion star scored a touchdown, kicked a field goal and two conversions to win the scoring title with 96 points.

Baltimore's rookie star Alan Ameche was held to 29 yards as San Francisco whipped the Colts 35-24, but he wound up with the league rushing title on 961 yards.

Vic Janowicz scored 10 points to get a Washington record of 88 on the season as the Redskins wound up their best year since their 1945 championship with a 28-17 victory over Pittsburgh.

Jet Tabs J. Witte For Honor

Football season is over, but still the honors come flowing in for Klamath Falls' John Witte, junior tackle at Oregon State College. The latest news of recognition for Witte's past season with the OSC Beavers is his selection to the first team of Jet's All-American football squad.

Jet, the nation's only Negro weekly magazine, announced its All-American after it had polled the leading coaches and professional scouts, and waded through a mountain of records assembled in its sports office. According to Jet's experts, the first eleven of the team is rated by almost all as the "cream of the nation's college football players."

UCLA, Ohio State and Michigan state shared the major honors on Jet's annual All-American selections. UCLA placed two men on the first team as did Ohio State and Michigan State. Oregon State, with Witte's selection, Maryland, Iowa, West Virginia and Michigan were the other schools who placed gridders on the first team.

Ronimie Loudd of UCLA and Ron Kramer of Michigan were selected as ends. Witte and Sam Huff of West Virginia were named to the tackle positions. Cal Jones of Iowa and Jim Parker of Ohio State earned the guard nods and Maryland's pivotman Bob Pellagrini nailed down the center honors. In the backfield, UCLA's Sam Brown was chosen as was Michigan State's Gerry Planutis and Earl Morrall and the fourth position went to the player of the year, Howard "Hopalong" Cassady of Ohio State.

On the second team were: ends Ron Beagle of Navy and Menan Schriewer of Texas; tackles Norm Masters of Michigan State and John Jankins, Arizona State; guards Bo Bollinger, Oklahoma and Hardiman Cureton, UCLA; center Ken Vargo, Ohio State, and backs Claude Benham of Columbia, Jim Swink of TCU, Lenny Moore of Penn State and Don Schaefer of Notre Dame.

Witte's selection by Jet is an added tribute to his already bulging list of awards. Earlier in the year he was named to the INS first team All-America, the Associated Press' third team All-America and both the AP and United Press All-Pacific Coast teams.

Witte is a graduate of Klamath Union High School where he starred three years in football and wrestling. At the present time he is preparing for his bid for national acclaim in the intercollegiate wrestling spotlight. In his freshman year at OSC, John advanced to the finals before being beaten.

The 210 pound OSC gridder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Witte of Klamath Falls.

Football Rules Committee Facing Dull Time At Meet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the past two years, since it took the radical step of abolishing the platoon system, the national football rules committee has made only a few minor changes in the playing code of college football. Most of them couldn't even be noticed by the fans.

When it meets next month, the committee apparently won't have much more work to do according to indications in the annual Associated Press post-season survey, writers and broadcasters participating indicated that there's no marked desire for a change in the 1955 rules.

Out of 149 experts replying to the AP questionnaire, 95 said there was no marked agitation for changes. Twenty gave flat affirmative answers and 14 detected some minor moves for changes. The 20 who left the space blank presumably can be added to the "no" total.

Given a chance to make suggestions of their own or to relay the ideas to others, the writers and broadcasters came up with a few proposals which may or may not be considered by the rules committee.

No. 1 on the list was a return to the platoon system. Fourteen listed that proposal—some merely as a reflection of coaches' ideas. Others advocated it strongly as providing the fans with a better brand of technical football and giving more players opportunity for action. Six more suggested liberalizing the substitution rule in various ways and two favored tightening it.

Other suggestions:

Make officials be specific instead of calling "illegal procedure," "personal foul" etc.

Penalties should be lengthened to a limit of 50 yards for certain underhanded plays because there is too much aggressiveness and not enough sport.

Possibly change number of time outs permitted. There have been more delays this year.

Change dead ball rule. Call the ball down if runner is hit and goes down, whether or not in grasp of opponent. Permit runner to get up if he slips without being hit.

Let either team run with a recovered fumble.

One-yard marking system should be made part of rules.

Change in equipment in accordance with finding of Cornell research.

NBA Men Check On Bribe Tale

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Maurice Podoloff, president of the National Basketball Assn., said today the league definitely was trying to check on a series of mysterious telephone calls in which three coaches have been offered bribes to either lose a game or control the point spread.

Al Cervi, coach of the Syracuse Nationals, and Bobby Wanzer, player-coach of the Rochester Royals, reported that they received calls from unidentified men before yesterday's games. Last week Charlie Eckman of the Fort Wayne Pistons received two telephone calls.

"We are trying to check them," said Podoloff, "even though I think they are the work of crackpots. But we are stabbing in the dark since all of the calls were long distance and it was impossible to trace them."

He said Eckman's calls came from Minneapolis and Chicago. The call to Cervi, received by an office attendant, came from Minneapolis. Wanzer said his call was from St. Louis. All the coaches reported the incidents to the police.

"Tell Cervi to lose this game (with Boston) or not win it by more than six points," was the information relayed to the Syracuse coach. "Tell him there will be $1,000 in it for him and a couple of hundred for yourself."

Wanzer said he was told not to win the game with the St. Louis Hawks by more than seven points and "there will be $1,000 in the mail for you tomorrow."

Syracuse won its game from Boston 101-89 for its seventh straight home victory. The Royals beat the Hawks 98-91 to take over first place in the Western Division. In the only other league action yesterday Fort Wayne downed the Philadelphia Warriors 99-91.

Canadiens Put On Point Run

By UNITED PRESS

The pace-setting Montreal Canadiens, riding along on a six-game winning streak, opening up a 10-point lead over the second-place New York Rangers today in the National Hockey League race.

The Canadiens, aiming to bust the race wide open, scored three third period goals Sunday night to down the Boston Bruins, 4-2, while the Rangers dropped their second game in as many nights, losing to the third-place Detroit Red Wings, 2-0. The Chicago Black Hawks and Toronto Maple Leafs battled to a 3-3 tie in another game.

Henri (Little Rocket) Richard started the Montreal rally by scoring at 6:27 of the final period and less than six minutes later Jean Gilbert put the Canadiens two-up. Cal Gardner tallied less than a minute later to cut the lead to 3-2, but Claude Provost gained the insurance marker with a little more than two minutes left in the game.

Rookie John Bucyk scored his first NHL goal in the second period and the veteran Red Kelly added Detroit's insurance marker in the last period to seal the win for Detroit over New York. The victory put the Red Wings eight points back of the Rangers.

The Hawks built up a 2-1 lead in the first period and held it until 2:37 of the third period when Dick Duff knotted the score. Ted Sloan gave scored for the Leafs, but the Hawks gained the equalizer on Gaye by [illegible]'s goal at 13:43.

Grant High Wins Swimming Meet

EUGENE (AP) — Grant High School of Portland won its fourth consecutive championship at the prep swimming meet here Saturday, rolling up 52 points.

J. D. Brown set the only record for the winning team, swimming 120-yard individual medley relay in 1 minute, 15.5 seconds.

Terry Kelly of Portland's Lincoln High established two records—2:03.4 for the 200-yard freestyle, and 51.4 for the 100-yard freestyle.

Team totals: Grant 52, Benson 21, Eugene 19, Lake Oswego 19, Lincoln 16, North Salem 10, Junction City 10, Washington 9, South Salem 8, Central Catholic 2, Franklin 1, Roosevelt 1.

Olson Facing Suit For Breach

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A $[illegible] breach of contract suit against former middleweight champion Carl (Bobo) Olson and his manager Sid Flaherty will be heard in federal district court today. Herbert Campos, who is instituting the action, claims that Olson and Flaherty ran out on a contract in which he was supposed to get one third of Olson's earnings from 1951 until July 1959. Campos contends he was Olson's first manager.

Bowlers Vie In Big Championship

CHICAGO (AP) — All-star hopefuls Monday cheered leading Roy Blath, of Brentwood, Mo., and Delores Wreglewski, of Detroit, on the third day of the individual match game championship.

Each of the leaders had commanding margins.

Miss Wreglewski, a bowling instructress, was in front by 44 pins with an even 1000 for the eight-game route. She slipped Sunday to a 752 after her opening day record 858 but still held command.

Blath, who operates a bowling alley in the St. Louis suburb, also failed to better his opening day score of 1302 when he came in with a 1299. But his 2601 put him in front of Detroit's Ed Lubanski and Joe Schmidt, of Albany, N.Y., by 20 pins. Lubanski and Schmidt are tied for second. Both have 2621.

Leading College Hoopster Teams Toe Mark This Week

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

This will be "put up or shut up" week for many of the nation's leading college basketball teams seeking to escape the fate of high-ranking Kentucky and Illinois.

San Francisco will swing back into action Friday night after a 10-day layoff to meet a good Marquette club in the opener of the DePaul Tournament in Chicago. The Dons, defending NCAA champs and No. 1 in the preseason Associated Press poll, are 3-0 on victories over Chico State, Southern California and San Francisco State.

The Chicago tourney is certain to prove a stiff test for them. Even if they get past Marquette, it's likely the winner of the second Duquesne-DePaul tilt will be rough in the finals Saturday.

Duquesne was one of the teams which showed to good advantage over the weekend, winning the Steel Bowl title 71-49 over Pittsburgh.

North Carolina State, Utah, Alabama, Dayton and Brigham Young were among the other top-ranked schools to go unscathed.

But not so for Kentucky (No. 2) and Illinois (No. 8). The Wildcats, who almost never lose at home, were surprised by Temple 73-61 while Illinois, after running up a 13-point halftime lead, bowed to Missouri 74-73.

Third-ranked N. C. State downed Eastern Kentucky with ease for its fourth in a row and 18th straight victory over a two-year span. Utah, No. 5, continued to impress with a [illegible] triumph over Arizona. Alabama, rated sixth, won the Birmingham Classic by overwhelming Valparaiso 82-60. Seventh-ranked Dayton tripped Toledo [illegible] and Brigham Young, No. 10, rolled over Oregon 83-52.

There might be a few surprises after tonight's action.

Fourth-ranked Iowa meets Colorado, which has looked good in victories over Oregon State and Oregon.

Kentucky will have an opportunity to make amends against DePaul, which is 3-1 for the year.

In other important games, Louisiana State is at Rice, Oklahoma at Ohio State, SMU at Wisconsin, Tulane at Texas A&M and Oklahoma A&M at Baylor.
