TOUCHING UP THE PAINT on new toys manufactured by the Industrial Arts Class at Fremont Junior High School was Max Baker, student in the class. The students design the toys and manufacture them on an assembly line basis. The toys will be distributed through the United Fund to the needy children of Klamath Falls.

County Clubs Meet Tonight

The Klamath County Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs of high school youth are holding their annual induction and installation Tuesday evening December 13 at the First Presbyterian Church at 7:30 p.m.

This event is one of the major highlights of the year and will see 90 to 100 new members inducted. The nine chapters of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y embody some 300 members at KUHS.

The candlelight affair is one in which new members as well as old review the aims and purposes of the program. All new inductees, prior to joining a club, underwent an extensive orientation program which included a four-page syllabus and a two-page test. The induction will conclude the member qualification steps.

The induction team includes Sharon Bliss, Twila Green and Sharon Taylor of the K-Deb Chapter of Tri-Hi-Y and Larry Worden, Marvin Worden and David Berg of the McKy Chapter of Hi-Y.

Wenatchee, Kent, Roso, and Pelican chapters of Tri-Hi-Y are in charge of the social hour in the church social rooms after the ceremony. Talamath and Tri-eit chapters of Tri-Hi-Y were in charge of the invitations. Modoc Hi-Y members are in charge of ushering and arrangements.

Invited to the affair are all parents of members and all others interested.

Sheriff Gives Check Warning

A wave of bogus check passing in Klamath County prompted Sheriff Murray Britton Tuesday to issue another warning to merchants to be on guard against spurious penmen.

In the meantime, Deputy Sheriff Dale Mattoon was notified that two alleged phony check passers wanted here had been apprehended in California.

According to Mattoon, George Leffew, 32, who is charged with cashing a forged check for $45 at the Empire Hotel, is under arrest in Redding.

The other reputed check passer, James T. Turner, 50, alias Walter Scott, has been picked up by police in Sacramento. Mattoon said Turner cashed a bogus check in a Klamath Falls poolhall.

Late Monday afternoon, Ralph Houck, 43-year-old service station attendant, pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg to obtaining money under false pretenses. Houck cashed a worthless check for $10 at Ray Reeves' service station.

The defendant also admitted to Judge Vandenberg that he passed five other bogus check and used the proceeds to gamble. The judge deferred passing sentence.

Shuman Urges Soil Bank

CHICAGO (UP) — Charles B. Shuman, leader of 1,600,000 farmers, said today a soil bank could help fight slipping farm prices.

But he told the American Farm Bureau Federation he heads that the idea can also backfire and create even greater farm surpluses.

The soil bank program must be coupled with flexible price supports, such as those backed by the Eisenhower administration, he said.

Shuman, a 48-year-old farmer from Sullivan, Ill., gave an accounting of his first year as president of the federation at its 37th annual meeting.

He talked to 5000 delegates, who are expected to reelect him Thursday and also approve some kind of soil bank proposal for 1956.

The soil bank approach has been growing in popularity as a method of cutting down price depressing farm surpluses.

It would return to grass those farm lands which are spilling out surpluses for the government to buy and store.

The Eisenhower administration has been reported considering the soil bank approach as a possible part of its new farm proposals to Congress.

Shuman said that total net farm income has declined about 28 per cent in the last five years. An economist told the convention yesterday it may go down another 5 per cent during 1956.

The nation is producing 15 per cent more than it can consume domestically, Shuman said, and, surpluses are piling up at such a rate that the government will be holding 10 million dollars worth by next March 1.

Washington Floods Recede

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Western Washington's rain-swollen streams crept slowly back within their beds Tuesday, soothed by a blanket of cold arctic air which sent temperatures dipping below the freezing point from Canada to Oregon.

Many Western Washington streams, fed by torrents of rain over the weekend, foamed over their banks Monday. The most spectacular rise was that of the Green River.

The Green's muddy waters spread over hundreds of acres of rich farmland in the Kent-Auburn Valley, forcing the evacuation of scores of farm families from their flood-gripped homes. Traffic snarled as the water crept over roads and lapped at the undersides of bridges.

No loss of life or heavy property damage was reported.

Rail traffic was moving through the Cascades again as crews worked to repair washouts completely and to clear away the remains of slides which blocked both the Milwaukee and Northern Pacific lines.

Rebels Riddle Military Convoy

ALGIERS (AP) — Terrorist rebels stormed a military convoy, bombed two Algerian theaters and set a $7,000 fire.

From 14 to 22 persons were wounded in the theater bombings and an official French source said Tuesday the military convoy ambushed near Guelma lost 10 dead, five wounded and six missing.

Heavily armed French reinforcements were summoned to the area.

Rebel arsonists cut the wires leading to Zeralda, 30 miles south of Algiers, late Monday night and set fire to a big fruit packing house. Damage was estimated at 20 million francs ($57,000).

Shooting Fray Blinds Mother

SAN FRANCISCO (UP) — The mother of three small children lost the sight of her eyes, her youngest child was slightly wounded and her estranged husband was hospitalized with critical wounds as the result of a Rincon Hill shooting spree last night.

Victims of the shooting were Edna Smith, 26, who was blasted in the face with shotgun pellets fired by her estranged husband, Clarence, 52, a laborer; and their 1-year-old child, Gwendolyn, who was slightly wounded in the head.

After shooting his wife and child, Smith turned the gun on himself and wounded himself critically in the head and face.

Mrs. Smith had begun divorce proceedings five weeks ago after leaving Smith. She took their three children, Gerber, 5, Gail, 2, and Gwendolyn with her.

Smith called yesterday after telling a neighbor he would "rather burn in hell" than make support payments. He burst into a neighbor's apartment where Mrs. Smith was sitting with her children and fired the gun.

Police charged Smith with attempted murder.

HOME EXTENSION

BLY

By Mrs. Ted Hyde

The December meeting of the Bly Home Extension Unit was held at the home of Mrs William Hatzi, president, Thursday December 8. Twelve members and one guest were present for the meeting. The project was on "Picture Selection and Framing," presented by Hope Holbrook, county home extension agent.

Miss Holbrook opened the meeting with a timely discussion of gifts from cloth, especially nylon stuffed animals, for which patterns were available. The morning was then devoted to a discussion of picture selection including what to look for in a picture, types, use and other things which must be taken into consideration. Reproductions of various paintings were shown and discussed.

After the usual delicious potluck luncheon, the techniques of framing your own pictures were presented by Miss Holbrook. Special interest was shown in the simpler modern frames.

After a brief business session, the meeting adjourned. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Howard Bingham and will be on "Care of the Hair." All interested women are cordially invited to attend.

MIDLAND

By Mrs. Joe Horsley

Mrs. Leon Andrieu and Mrs. George Andrieu were leaders for the December 8 meeting of the Midland Home Extension Unit, held at the fairgrounds. The project lesson was on "Making Cakes Attractive."

The leaders demonstrated numerous ways including the use of frosting flowers for cake trim.

Following the lesson Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Gerald Paschal and Mrs. Norman Risley decorated the tree and the room. Mrs. Jess Walker made the candles for the table. The leaders made the many attractive cakes.

Mrs. Lane Smith, Klamath County committeewoman from the Keno unit explained about the county committee selling cake tips to raise money for the treasury.

The next meeting will be held January 12 at the fairgrounds. The project will be "Rolls and Bread from Sweet Dough." Anyone interested is invited.

ALTAMONT

The selection and framing of pictures was the topic of the day for 23 members of the Altamont Extension Unit when they met at Joan's Kitchen on December 6.

Hope Holbrook, home demonstration agent, presented the project lesson which was divided into two parts: first, showing a beautiful collection of reproductions she pointed out some of the points that should be taken into consideration in selecting pictures for the home. A few of the rules to be considered are balance, dark and light areas, line and rhythm, unity and color. These rules should all be in compatibility with the location of the picture in the home.

The second part of the demonstration dealt with the framing of pictures. A picture can be enhanced or minimized by the way it is framed and Miss Holbrook pointed out the types of frames suited to certain types of pictures. In addition she displayed and explained the construction of several types of simple frames which can be constructed at home.

The special prize, which was a beautiful Christmas wreath constructed by Mrs. J. R. Miller, was won by Mrs. L. F. Hartley.

A delicious spaghetti luncheon was served by Mrs. E. L. Sehorn, Mrs. Harriett McCollum, Mrs. Charles Thurman, Mrs. William Kunz and Mrs. Graham Berry.

The next meeting will be held on January 3. The topic will be "Making Sweet Rolls."

Jap Renegades Surrender On Isle

JAKRTA, Indonesia, (AP) — Nine Japanese soldiers have surrendered in Morotai, a remote Indonesian island in the Eastern Moluccas.

The Air Force recently discovered 50 Japanese encamped in the center of the island. They were growing tobacco and sugar cane. Army patrols were sent out and the nine Japanese surrendered with full arms and equipment.

BRUCKER VISITS

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — U. S. Army Secretary Wilber M. Brucker today visited Quemoy, Nationalist-held island in Formosa Strait within artillery range of the Chinese Communist mainland.
