

Alcoholics Anonymous Plan Annual New Year's Party

Coffee will flow like water at the annual New Year's Party of Alcoholics Anonymous, Saturday night, December 31, in the AA Center, 120 Riverside.

The only spirits present will be the spirit of fun and the spirit of happiness when the Klamath Falls AA group entertains fellow members and friends from Alturas, Bend, Grants Pass, Medford, Camp White, Ashland and Yreka.

A buffet dinner, dancing and other entertainment will be preceded by an open meeting at which prominent non-alcoholics will speak.

The annual New Year's party is one of the top events on the AA calendar. Leaders of the organization say 1955 has been a big year for AA in the Klamath Basin. AA is not a temperance organization. It is not interested in halting the liquor traffic. Its main purpose is to aid persons who are victims of alcoholism, now universally recognized as a specific disease.

Alcoholics Anonymous has been acclaimed by leading medical authorities as having the best method of arresting alcoholism. AA has no dues or fees and is not aligned with any sect, denomination, politics, organizations or institutions.

The primary purpose of its members is to stay sober and help other alcoholics who want to quit drinking to attain sobriety.

Meetings are held regularly every Tuesday and Friday at 8:30 p.m. in the Klamath Falls AA Center. The Tuesday night meeting is open only to alcoholics. The Friday night meeting is open to anyone concerned with an alcoholic problem.

Skeens Stops

At $32,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Stanley Skeens, coal miner and clergyman, stopped at the $32,000 level Tuesday night in the CBS radio and television quiz show, "The $64,000 Question."

"The Lord has been very gracious and good to me up to this point," Skeens said in announcing his decision not to try to double his prize money. Had he missed, he would have received a consolation prize of an expensive car.

He said up to the last minute he thought he might try for the $64,000.

Skeens, 26, won his money by answering questions about the Bible. He said he would take the money back to West Virginia and "tuck it in the little bank of Danville."

Yreka Officers Promote Course

YREKA—At the December meeting of the Siskiyou County Peace Officers Association, the group went on record to promote a drivers' training course for students throughout the county school system.

Preparations are to be made by the group for a training program for grammar school students in school traffic control.

The group voted in favor of a movement to obtain a juvenile detention hall at Yreka.

President George Banich announced the January meeting for the evening of January 12 at Dunsmuir.

Four Hungarians Flee To West

GRAZ, Austria (AP) — Four Hungarian workers dashed to freedom in a do-it-yourself tank this week, police said Wednesday.

Police said the workers got a truck, covered it with iron and steel plates, and drove it at top speed through wire fences guarding the Hungarian border.

Before reaching the Austrian side of the border, an exploding mine tore off one of the truck's wheels. The group had to run for it as border guards opened fire. They swam the icy Pinka River and reached Austria half-frozen.

Summerfield Gives Minute

WASHINGTON (AP) — Postmaster General Summerfield Wednesday asked the public not to try to spot mail delivery of Christmas cards and parcels for Christmas Eve.

"The thought behind the gift or card, not the time of arrival, is the important consideration," he said in a statement.

Summerfield stressed that shooing for Dec. 24 delivery puts an extra burden on postal employees and facilities.

Summerfield said the postal service is being geared for another record volume and that every effort will be made to have all Christmas mail delivered by Christmas. He added:

"By following the simple suggestions of mailing early, wrapping carefully, and addressing plainly, patrons will be assured of the safe and timely arrival of all Christmas mail."

INSPECTING THE WORLD SERVICE display at the YMCA are these Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y members: Larry Worden, left, Estline Kiger and Sybil Meador. The YMCA youth organizations will hold an International Buffet dinner Thursday from 6 to 8 p.m.

Youth Groups Plan Dinner

The McKy, Wenatchee and Kent chapters of Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y will hold an International Buffet Dinner at the YMCA, 722 Pine Street Thursday from 6 to 8 p.m.

This is a YMCA world services event. A table of international dishes will carry the theme of the buffet.

Rooms will also be decorated illustrating where YMCA world services are carried on. The front office display of "Operation Map-face" will also provide interesting ideas on why "Youth Includes the World."

A record hop for those students attending will be held following the dinner.

Tickets will be on sale at the door and the public is invited. Bill Cornell, Y program director, said the program will be of interest to the entire family and urged everyone to come out.

Lakeview Tots To Phone Santa

LAKEVIEW—By special arrangement of the Lions Club, Lakeview boys and girls may place telephone calls direct to Santa Claus at the North Pole on Monday night, December 19 from 6 to 8 p.m.

Gene Anderson, chairman, reports the West Coast Telephone Company is cooperating with the club and will place the calls direct to Santa. Assisting in the project are George Iremonger, Bob Howard, James Scroggins, Rodney Marlan, Don Maxwell, Stanley Tooke, O. C. Lervik, Jack Groom, Jack Pendleton and Lee Hanson.

A table of international dishes will carry the theme of the buffet. Rooms will also be decorated illustrating where YMCA world services are carried on. The front office display of "Operation Map-face" will also provide interesting ideas on why "Youth Includes the World."

Former Professor Names 34 Persons As Communists

CHICAGO (AP) — A former college professor has named some 34 persons he said he knew as fellow Communists in the federal government before and during World War II. Included were 16 lawyers employed by the National Labor Relations Board.

Prof. Herbert Fuchs, 39, testified in Chicago yesterday before the House Un-American Activities Committee. He was dropped from the law faculty of American University in Washington after testifying before the committee in a closed session July 15. The hearings continue today.

Fuchs, who said he dropped out of the Communist party in 1946, declared the 16 NLRB lawyers were members with him of a Communist party cell in the NLRB from 1937 to 1942.

He also named Communists he said were on the old War Labor Board and other government agencies in the Democratic administrations of former Presidents Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman.

Several persons Fuchs named denied the accusations. Lester Asher of Chicago, one of the former NLRB attorneys named by Fuchs, said when he joined the agency in 1938 "Fuchs tried to sell me on communism and was unsuccessful." Asher said he attended one or two cell meetings and quit.

In Washington, Ruth Weyand, another former NLRB attorney, said Fuchs' testimony was "nonsense." She said, "He never organized me. I am now and always have been a loyal American."

In Denver, Edward Scheinman denied Fuchs' accusation and, speaking for himself and his wife Cecilia, also named, said, "I have never been and am not now a member of the Communist party."

Louis G. Silverberg, NLRB press chief, said in Washington that none of the 16 attorneys named by Fuchs is now employed by the agency.
