"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"HOW COME YOU HAVE TO PAY FOR IT? I THOUGHT THIS WAS A GIFT SHOP!"

Girls Plan Seal Sales

Christmas Seals of the Tuberculosis and Health Association will be available again next Saturday, December 17 at the Klamath Falls Branch, First National Bank of Portland and the U.S. National Bank.

Girl Scouts and Camp Fire girls assisted with the sale on December 10 in the two banks.

Girl Scouts who staffed the booth at the First National Bank were Donna Yuk, Ann Baxter, Susan Schell, Karen Ramey, Phyllis Whitby, Jean Ledbetter and Ruth Russell.

Chemult Civic Improvement Club Holds Annual Party

CHEMULT—The Chemult Civic Improvement Club held its annual Christmas party on Wednesday, December 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Gooch at Beaver Marsh, Mrs. John Herman and Mrs. Lloyd Hauptman, were co-hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Richard Clauson, presided over the short business session.

Committees were named to decorate the Christmas tree at the club house for the Christmas program scheduled for the evening of December 23. Mrs. Robert Barlow will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Ray Darnell and Mrs. C. C. Long will be in charge of preparing gift bags for the children which will be distributed by Santa Claus.

Women members of the club are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Vera I. Brader the morning of December 21 to make popcorn balls and fill sacks. Lunch will be served.

Mrs. Clauson announced that $50 has been collected for the United Food drive. This amount has been given many times over through the payroll deduction plan of the many employes of both the Great Northern and Southern Pacific and the two major truck lines, the Beemer Portland and the Pacific States Mountain Express, all of which count on the quota of the terminal town. Some sort of benefit will be held in January for the March of Dimes.

Following the business meeting, there was a gift exchange between members. At the close of the evening, a surprise birthday greeting and shower of cards was extended to the two who had birthday anniversaries on December 7, Mrs. Carl Ramsey and Mrs. Myrtle Hasel. Included also was Mrs. John Herman, whose birthday anniversary was in late November.

FATALITY BURNED
 DALLAS (AP)—A. L. Foster, 8-year-old paralyzed pensioner, was fatally burned yesterday by flames that engulfed his overinflated child chair. County Fire Marshal Hal Hood said the fire apparently started when a cigarette fell from the man's lips. A 40-year-old girl daughter, a 10-year-old boy and a 5-year-old girl were unable to hear his screams.

Security Board Meets Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special bipartisan commission created by Congress meets today to organize and start an inquiry into all aspects of the government's security program.

Vice President Nixon sent out the call for the meeting Dec. 3, saying he had been requested to do so by President Eisenhower.

Nixon planned to welcome the members, drawn equally from public and private life, and then depart. He is not a member of the commission.

The commission was approved by Congress last summer. Some members of Congress expressed hope its study would help to lift the controversy over the administration's employee security program out of politics.

With this in mind, the date for the groups' report was set after next year's election.

The commission's study is not confined, however, to the employee security program. It embraces all laws, presidential orders and administrative regulations relating to internal security.

As directed by Congress, Eisenhower, Nixon and Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.) each appointed four members of the commission.

Opponents Of Dixon-Yates Want Congressional Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic foes of the repudiated Dixon-Yates contract want Congress to take a direct hand in a "no holds barred" court fight against the private power group's claim for $1 1/2 million in damages.

Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn.) announced yesterday he plans to introduce a resolution calling for the appointment of a special counsel to fight the Dixon-Yates suit, filed earlier in the day at the U.S. Court of Claims.

Kefauver, who joined Sen. Anderson (D-Mn.), who said such a special lawyer should make certain the "no milk defense" against the Dixon-Yates claim. The Justice Department regularly defends the government in suits against it.

There was no immediate comment from the department.

Anderson, chairman of the Senate-Atomic Energy Committee, said the proposed special counsel should also hunt for evidence of possible law violations in connection with negotiations which led up to the signing of the power contract more than a year ago.

Both Anderson and Kefauver, who heads a Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee which held hearings on the contract, indicated plainly they do not want to trust the Justice Department to handle the claim case alone.

Anderson said the department had been involved in negotiations "looking toward paying Dixon-Yates money."

Kefauver said that if administration officials were "doing their duty they would have a case in court against Dixon-Yates by this time, trying to recover some of the real damages suffered by the government through the conflict of interest which permeates this entire contract. Energy Commission, which negotiated the contract for a 107-million-dollar private power plant with the Dixon-Yates group at President Eisenhower's direction, repudiated the contract last month. It based its action on an opinion by AEC General Counsel William Mitchell that Antipope H. Wenzell served as an adviser to the government in the contract talks "while having a conflicting private interest."

Dixon-Yates challenged this contention in the suit it filed yesterday.

Wenzell was a Budget Bureau consultant during this period while also serving as a top official of the First Boston Corp., a New York financial house that later became fiscal agent for the Dixon-Yates group.

USAF Officer Shot In Hunt

A U.S. Air Force captain was a shooting victim on December 10, opening day of the doe season in Modoc County.

Critically injured is Captain Lyle E. McMichael, 36, 573 Canary Street, North Highland, California.

The officer was shot by an unidentified hunter as he stooped to pick up fire wood two miles north of the California state quarantine station. The bullet from a high-powered rifle passed through the lower lungs from the rear, splintering the pelvic bones.

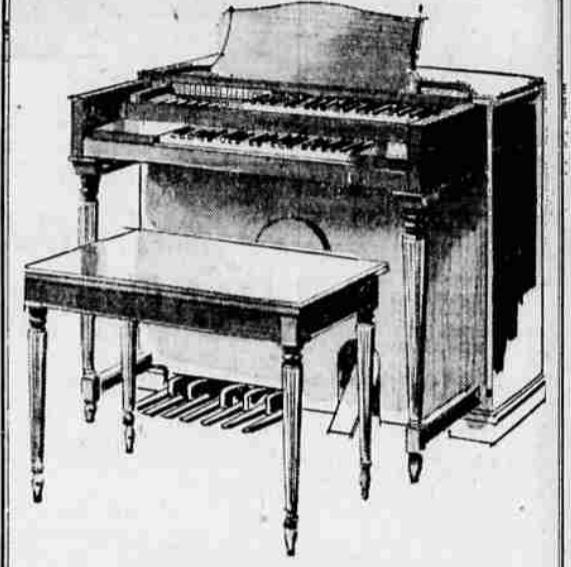

He was taken to the Modoc Medical Center, Alturas, by ambulance from that city.

Gerald C. Wilson, Modoc County deputy sheriff, in reconstructing the accident, said "bullets were flying everywhere," when Del Baxter, fish and game warden and Jim Collins, California Highway Patrolman, were advising the accident. The two men crawled behind brush to the stricken man to escape being hit.

Wilson, also called to the scene, said 3,500 doe permits were issued and probably 90 per cent of that number were hunting in the small area between Tionesta and Perez.

McMichael was injured within 150 yards east of State Highway 139 on the Meads Road which is near the Glass Mountain Brick Company.

McMichael's injuries indicated that both his legs were paralyzed.

Strike Enters Second Week

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit is trying to get along without its three regular daily newspapers, but it isn't easy.

The strike, which has paralyzed the presses of the Detroit News, the Detroit Times and the Detroit Free Press ended its second week today.

Most people have turned to stepped-up radio and television news, or to the eight-page local emergency paper.

The struck newspapers have continued collecting local news through a jointly operated hotel newsroom. They provide it to radio and television stations without cost.

Swamped by a rainfall of local advertising, the stations have canceled some of their national programs for local shows punctuated with commercials.

Retail stores, without newspaper advertising, report Christmas business falling short of anticipated record levels.

Advertisers are turning to other media. Neighborhood weeklies have expanded. A foreign language newspaper switched to English pages. A strike-born union newspaper and "throwaway" shopping guides have appeared.

Out-of-town newspapers and all kinds of magazines sell faster than usual.

The effect of the strike on retail trade since Dec. 1 is difficult to measure. Some stores say sales still are running ahead of last year. But most say they were anticipating even higher increases over 1954. Other stores say sales are off considerably as compared with a year ago.

Attendance is reported below normal at sports events, movies and other entertainments, lacking the usual newspaper publicity.

Khrushchev Makes Boast

NEW DELHI (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev boasted Tuesday of "annoying America" over the issue of Portuguese India and said he did not mind "if our remarks are disliked and resented."

Speaking to a group representing the Indian Assn. of the Indian Parliament, Khrushchev said:

"I have said that Goa (the chief Portuguese settlement in India) must come to India, which has a rightful claim over it.

"But that annoyed America—and they came out with strong support of Portuguese possession of Goa."

Soviet Premier Bulganin announced in a recorded broadcast that Russia and India had agreed on important questions concerning "further development of economic and scientific cooperation between our countries." He gave no details.

Khrushchev's remarks about American views on Goa referred to a joint statement issued in Washington by Secretary of State Dulles and visiting Portuguese Foreign Minister Joao Cunha. Dulles and Cunha referred to the "Portuguese provinces" in India and condemned speeches which the two top Russian leaders—Khrushchev and Premier Bulganin—were making in India.

The joint statement said these speeches were designed to foment trouble between East and West.

Later Dulles denied that, by issuing the statement with Cunha, he had put the United States on Portugal's side in the dispute over Portuguese India.

The two Kremlin bigwigs gave a lavish eight-course dinner Monday night for Prime Minister Nehru and nearly 1,000 other guests. The party was given at a palace which once belonged to the wealthy Nizam of Hyderabad. It was the last Russian entertainment in India during the Khrushchev-Bulganin tour.

Mrs. Galbreath Visits Portland

CHEMULT—Mrs. Corwin Galbreath spent the weekend in Portland with Mrs. Karl Waldron of Oretch, attending the Cancer Society training school held at the Multnomah Hotel. The women were delegates from this area.

Mrs. Galbreath will report on the training school to the Chemult Garden Club, the Gilchrist Garden Club and the PTA group in Gilchrist, of which she is treasurer. Mrs. Galbreath is active in the Civic Club and is president of the Gilchrist Garden Club.

Stormy Seas Sinks Ship

LONDON (AP)—One ship was sunk, another was missing and several were in distress Wednesday in stormy seas and fog around Great Britain.

There was no immediate report of any loss of life.

The British motor vessel Victoria City sank off the Dutch island of Texel early Wednesday after a collision in the fog with the Italian ship Valentina Bibolini.

Fifty crewmen of the 6,162-ton Victoria City were taken aboard the Polish ship Worlovo, believed to be a trawler, which was in the vicinity.

The Valentina Bibolini was damaged extensively and was being towed to Emden by a Dutch tug.

An English fishing boat, the Progress, was missing off the east coast of Britain. She had been due to return to Whitby Tuesday. Search by helicopter and other fishing vessels failed to show any trace of the small ship carrying a crew of five.

Amaranth Order Plans Meeting

Courts Number 11, Order of the Amaranth, will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, December 21, in the new Masonic Hall.

The last meeting, held November 16, was a delayed meeting because of early snow in November.

The November meeting opened with Catherine Wright, royal mistress, and Ted Huey, royal patron, in their chairs. Past mistresses and patrons and grand officers were escorted to the throne and presented with gifts from the lodge. The serving of refreshments closed the evening meeting.

Syrian Positions Open Fighting

JERUSALEM, Israel, Sept. 17—Syrian positions opened rifle fire shortly before noon Wednesday at members of the Hagan settlement, an Israeli military spokesman announced.

Hagan is a village at the southwestern end of the Sea of Galilee.

The incident was the first reported between Israelis and Syrians since the battle at the eastern shores of the Sea of Galilee Sunday night.
