Ham and Spinach Casserole Dish

Here is a recipe for left over baked smoked ham from the meat expert, Reba Slager, of the National Live Stock and Meat Board in Chicago.

This dish is easy on the budget and is a good one to include in your menu between Christmas and New Years. It is a good way to use leftover ham from Christmas.

CASSEROLE
2 cups cubed cooked ham
1 cup ham drippings or lard
1/2 cup enriched flour
2 cups milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 No. 2 cans or 2 14-ounce packages frozen spinach
3 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs

1 teaspoon melted butter
Melt drippings and stir in flour; add milk and seasonings. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened.

Combine cooked spinach with white sauce. Arrange layer in bottom of greased baking dish. Next layer the cubed ham over the spinach. Continue in alternate layers, topping with spinach mixture. Melt butter and combine with crumbs. Sprinkle crumbs over top. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) for 20 minutes. Serves six to eight. Combine this dish with baked potatoes, a jellied fruit salad, hard rolls, butter or margarine, a light dessert and it is a meal that will really warm you up during these cold days.

DRY LIMAS
When a favorite recipe calls for cooked lima beans, it's convenient to know that dry limas will double in bulk when cooked.

Tastes so Good!
Costs so Little!

Just add milk and butter... heat and serve. Takes five minutes to prepare a main-dish meal for 10c or less per serving.
