

BAKED SMOKED HAM sets the pace for the oncoming festive season. Shown here, the ham has a pineapple-brown sugar glaze. Accompany the ham with mashed sweet potatoes with a marshmallow topping. Green color for the meal might be tender, steamed broccoli with cheddar sauce. With the main course serve a simple salad and hot rolls or biscuits.

Baked Ham

Place the ham, fat side up, on a rack in an open roasting pan. (Note that Swift and Company has reduced the amount of fat on their meat cuts). Insert a meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part. Be careful the bulb does not rest in fat or on a bone. Do not add water. Do not cover.

Roast in a slow oven (300 degrees) until the thermometer registers 160 degrees or allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound.

PINEAPPLE GLAZE
For the pineapple glaze, cook 1/2 cup crushed pineapple, 1/2 cup brown sugar and 1 tablespoon flour, stirring constantly until the mixture thickens. About 1/2 hour before the baked ham is cooked, remove it from the oven and pour off the drippings. Cover it with the pineapple-brown sugar mixture.

Cut pineapple slices in quarters. Decorate the top of the ham with pineapple pieces forming different shaped flowers. Accent the flower arrangement with red maraschino cherries. Slip the baked ham back into the oven to glaze.

VERSATILE
A whole baked ham is probably easier for a small family to use than any other large quantity of meat. It is wonderful served sliced, hot or cold. It is good sandwich material and is a good keeper.

The ham bone is the perfect seasoning for that big pot of beans for lunches during this busy time of year.

HOLIDAY PUDDING

Don't forget that you can substitute part of the liquid in holiday fruit puddings, cookies and cakes with California Sherry. Port or other dessert wine to give fine flavor and keeping quality. Fruit bars and drop cookies take nicely to a wine glaze, simply made by blending powdered sugar with wine. And don't forget to add a little wine to those pudding sauces.

BAKED PEACHES
Here's a quick dessert for holiday meals. Spoon a little mince-meat into the center of canned peach halves. Pour over all some richly-flavored California Port wine and bake in a hot oven just long enough to heat through.
