

THANKSGIVING DAY will be the wedding anniversary day for Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Palmer Gwyn, who were married on November 24, this year. The bride is the former Marion Arlene Brolier.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Gwyn At Home After Honeymoon On Oregon-California Coast

Late fall chrysanthemums in shades of gold and bronze carried out the colors chosen by Marion Arlene Brolier for her wedding to Graydon Palmer Gwyn in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, November 24.

The Rev. Dale Hewitt, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church read the service at 12 noon, in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Erma GerRue, 2027 Applegate, was given in marriage by her brother, Donald Brolier; and was attended by her sister, Norma Ann Brolier.

Mr. Gwyn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gwyn, 238 Fulton. His attendants were Garwood Walp, best man; and John Baker and Johnny Franks, ushers.

For the high noon nuptials, Arlene wore a white lace street-length dress with a low oval neckline, elbow sleeves and a moderately full skirt which flared from a softly fitted dropped waistline.

She wore a white head-budding half hat and she carried a white orchid and stephanotis bouquet atop a white prayer book.

The maid of honor's pale gold brocade frock and fall shades chosen for her bouquet and headpiece of chrysanthemums were in the bride's wedding colors.

James Chance, principal of the Bly school, was vocal soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. GerRue wore a bronze with satin afternoon dress with brown accessories and her corsage was of Tullman roses. The senior Mrs. Gwyn wore a blue faille with matching accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

The reception was in the church parlors immediately after the ceremony — and from there the newlyweds left for their honeymoon trip to Grants Pass, Coquille and Crescent City. They are at home, 2420 Vine.

The new Mrs. Gwyn, a graduate of Linfield College Class of '54, is teaching high school at Merrill. Her husband will graduate from OIT this term. While overseas during his term of service, he was instrumental in providing clothing for many orphaned and needy Korean children. He is current president of the local 20-30 Club.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jones and Lester, San Leandro; Mrs. Jones is the bride's grandmother. Also from San Leandro, the bride's uncle, Ernest Brolier; from Bellingham, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. William P. (Ann) Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Elster Snider, Buena Vista, California; and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Stoppel, Westwood, California.

Reindeer On The Roof

Christmas Eve — that night of magic when tiny ears listen wistfully for the hoofbeats of reindeer on the rooftop, when gifts are glitter-wrapped with loving hands, and you, playing the role of Santa Claus, bring out the toys and stealthily place them beneath the lighted tree.

You'd never guess that several of the toys in the accompanying sketch were old favorites, would you? They've been given a shining newness with a fresh coat of paint. The bike, table and chairs and wagon all look like they had just come out of Santa's jolly workshop.

Brick chimney breast has been freshened up with a coat of paint also... made ready for the holiday festivities, a reminder that the heart is really where the heart of Christmas resides.

Tri Taus Make Clown Dolls And Exchange Gifts

Kapok and fingers flew at the December 13 meeting, as Tri Taus stuffed and dressed clown dolls, under the guidance of demonstrator, Mrs. Glen Kircher, Sprague River. Costumes, sock bodies and other materials were provided by Mrs. Kircher and members sewed and assembled the dolls during last Tuesday evening. Lending her home for this holiday project was Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu.

Gifts arranged under a table-top Christmas tree were distributed during the serving of refreshments. Members voted to send three CARE packages to Korea.

Those making dolls were Mrs. Richard Fennell, Mrs. James Rodgers, Mrs. William Sari, Mrs. Pat Ryan, Mrs. William Long, Mrs. Fern Hough, Mrs. Leslie Carr, Mrs. Owen Robbins, Mrs. Sam Ramsey, Mrs. Lewis Hamblin, Mrs. Kenneth Schneider, Mrs. Kircher and Mrs. Bilyeu.

Mrs. Paul Stewart, Mrs. George Cunha and Mrs. Donald Baldwin were absent.

January 10 is the date of the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Carr, with Mrs. Long as demonstrator.

PLAYERS CLUB

"Winter" was the decoration theme for the Players Club meeting Wednesday evening, November 7, in the Library Club Room.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. George Gates, Mrs. L. P. Costel, Mrs. Charles Packer and Mona Dixon. Refreshments were served before the short business meeting, after which cards were played.

High in bridge went to Mrs. Richard Wilson; and low to Mrs. Dan Parks. Pinochle high, Mrs. Ervin Kramer; and low, Mrs. Sam Jones.

Mrs. Richard Wilson has resigned as vice president and Mrs. Eugene Jackson has been selected to take her place for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Charles Packer is the new Remembrance chairman. Next meeting is December 21, at 8 p.m., and there will be a Christmas gift exchange.

Concert Guests

LAKEVIEW — Soroptimist members and their 16 guests attended the community Christmas concert Sunday afternoon, December 11.

A tea at the home of Mrs. Con Fitzgerald Jr., followed and Mrs. Anne Sprague presided at the tea table. Christmas nosegays of juniper and cedar were presented to the guests.

Mrs. Eva Arthur, chairman of the Soroptimist Second Horizon project, and her committee, Mrs. Kathleen Hobart, Mrs. Emma Carter and Beatrice Getty, arranged the party.

AMARANTH

At the last stated meeting of Friendship Court No. 11, Order of Amaranth, Catherine Wright, royal matron, and Ted Huey, royal patron, presided.

Fast royal matrons and patrons were honored during the evening and each was presented with a gift.

There will be a program of entertainment at the next meeting, December 21, at the new Masonic Hall.

Mrs. James Ogilvie, Mrs. Jack Pendleton, Mrs. Robert Ogilvie and Mrs. Alex Zevely Jr. were in charge of the tea.

FAREWELLS SAID AT RECEPTION FOR MR. AND MRS. ROY BENEDICT

MR. AND MRS. ROY BENEDICT, above, and their daughter, Patti, who left Klamath Falls December 11, to make their home in Portland.

During the four years they lived in Klamath Falls, Roy Benedict, who came from San Francisco in 1951 as general sales manager for Lorenz Company, and his wife, Blanche have been closely identified with church, civic and social life in the town. And for short-term residents—they leave an impressive record of accomplishment and hours donated to "making a better community."

A farewell reception was given for them Wednesday evening, December 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wales Jr., 4512 Clinton Avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Grubb assisting. Approximately 75 of their many friends called to bid them goodbye.

In Portland, Benedict will be with Woodbury-Lorenz Hardware Company as sales promotion and merchandise manager for all the firm's industrial branches including Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict and daughter Patti moved to Klamath Falls from San Francisco in 1951 when Mr. Benedict became general sales manager for Lorenz Company.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Benedict have been active members of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, where for two years, Mr. Benedict has been a vestryman and church school superintendent.

Mrs. Benedict was a member of the Altar Society; and has for the past year been the president of the Woman's Auxiliary.

Benedict holds membership in the Klamath Falls Masonic lodge.

ies and the Kiwanis Club. Mrs. Benedict is a member of Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile.

The Benedicts left Friday, December 11 to make their home in Portland, where he will be sales promotion and merchandise manager in the central office for Woodbury-Lorenz Hardware Company, Klamath Falls, and all the industrial branches.

The Benedicts' address in Portland is 5135 S. W. Scholls Ferry Road.
