THE CAMERA CORNER

BY BUD BUESING

The Christmas holidays offer a real challenge to anyone with a camera. It's a memorable time . . . especially in families with children. Memories fade . . . but pictures you take today can preserve that memory bright and clear.

The finest pictures are those with "human interest" . . . whether they're portraits that catch a glimpse of character or snapshots that tell a story about people. The holidays offer untold opportunities for pictures with this human interest appeal . . . if you keep your camera eye open.

Here are some random picture ideas . . . the tree-trimming episode . . . or Dad struggling to untangle the wiring for the tree lights . . . Mom working at midnight Christmas Eve to wrap the final present (with ribbon and paper strewn all around her) . . . The kids during the unwrapping ceremonies on Christmas morning (especially if you can catch the expressions on their faces). Pre-Christmas pictures can tell the story, too . . . such as the day Dad comes up the walk with the Christmas tree . . . or an evening when Mom arrives at the door laden with parcels.

You'll think of other ideas . . . but the main point is to pack those Christmas pictures with human interest. Make them tell a story about your family! . . . And don't forget to see us about those photographic gifts, too. Whether it's film, an accessory or a brand-new camera, we have it for you.

"To remember the past in the future, give a photographic gift."

Kiwanis Plan Annual Party

The Klamath Kiwanis Club will play host to Santa Claus and all the members' children at their regular meeting 12 noon Thursday, December 22 in the Willard Hotel.

President Joe LaClair has communicated with the "old white bearded gent" and has been assured that all of the children present will be in for a special gift.

The committee handling details and assisting Santa Claus is composed of Tom Garrett, Walter Fleet, Howard Austin, Keith Cobo and Bob Bonney.

The Sacred Heart Madrigals will provide a music program of Christmas songs. The Madrigals are under the direction of Sister Cecila Francis and have been well received by the children and Kiwanis at past Christmas parties.

Kiwanis members are reminded that they should invite neighbor's children or other children if their own children are grown or cannot attend.

Kiwanian John Houston will lead the children in the singing of Christmas songs.

New Church Funds Received

DUNSMUIR — Subscriptions and gifts from 140 families totaling $45,221 have been received from the members and friends of the Methodist church toward the $50,000 building fund campaign, it was announced by the drive committee on Thursday.

The campaign leaders believe their goal is attainable since a number of calls are yet to be made. They report a particularly heartening response from those not actually members of the church but participating in the church program and also noted that a high percentage of those people contacted either pledged or made donations.

Solicitation teams are headed by Percy Lindt, Robert Dewey, Durward Gafs and Karl Nelson. The campaign is being directed by J. Eugene Cecil, a fund-raising specialist.

BURGLARS

LONDON (AP) — Burglars broke into the London apartment of Italian film actress Pier Angeli Friday night and made off with jewelry worth $28,000.

Crash Victims' Rites Held

MOUNT SHASTA — Funeral services were held in Mount Shasta Tuesday afternoon, December 13, at the Methodist Church for Virgil Van Hough, 56, and Robert Mark Kidwell, 28, with the Rev. N. P. Knudsen officiating.

Both men were killed in an auto accident on Highway 97 north of Weed early Saturday morning December 10 when their northbound auto skidded on icy pavement and collided with an oncoming truck.

Virgil Van Hough was born in Mississippi February 25, 1899, and was a resident of Mount Shasta for 19 years. He was employed as a watchman for the Mount Shasta Pine Manufacturing Company. Survivors include his widow, Hazel Hough, one daughter, Mrs. Geraldine English, and two granddaughters of Mount Shasta; one son, Govan Hough, Pennsylvania; two brothers, George Hough, Mount Shasta and Chester Hough, Pioneer, Louisiana and two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Thompson, Forrest, Louisiana; and Mrs. Estell Garret, Oak Grove, Louisiana.

Robert Mark Kidwell, was born in Arkansas November 9, 1927. Survivors include his widow, Barbara and one 18 month-old daughter, Robbie Elaine, Mount Shasta; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kidwell, Wilmot, Arkansas; one brother, J. T. Kidwell, Wilmot, Arkansas; five sisters, Mrs. Hazel Hough, Mrs. Florie Hough, Mount Shasta; Mrs. Evelyn Wolf, Dunsmuir; Mrs. Vernie Bean, Anderson, and Mrs. Dorothy Franklin, Missouri.

Kidwell had been a resident of Mount Shasta for the past 10 years and was employed as a timber faller for the Smith Lumber Company.

Kindly Motorist Aids Runaways

NEVADA CITY (UP)—A kindly motorist bought hot soup for a bedraggled pair of youthful hitchhikers last night unaware they were the object of a widespread search by officers who believed them armed and dangerous.

Pete Ingram, Nevada City newspaper reporter, picked up the pair, a boy 15 and a girl 13, on his way to Washington, Calif. He bought them hot soup in Washington and then started back with them for Nevada City.

Officers stopped him at a roadblock and told him his companions were wanted for escaping from the Yuba County Detention Home in Marysville, for stealing a car, for burglarizing a ranch house and taking a shotgun. Ingram took the pair on to Nevada City and turned them over to authorities.

Drunken Driving Charges Filed

DUNSMUIR—Two drunken driving fines were levied in Dunsmuir judicial court last week.

Albert U. Ketchum of Dunsmuir and Jack Rodine of McCloud both paid $203 fines upon being found guilty of driving under the influence of alcohol. Judge A. A. Smith also recommended license suspensions for both men.

Alturas Banks Extends Hours

ALTURAS — Two more hours of banking service are being offered customers of Alturas' Bank of America branch, according to N. G. Mathews, manager.

The bank is now remaining open until 5 p.m. on Fridays instead of closing at 3 p.m.

Arctic Cold Hits Canada Prairies

EDMONTON, Alta. (AP) — The Canadian prairies, still reeling from a fierce blizzard early this week, were locked Saturday in the grip of arctic cold with temperatures dropping swiftly from above zero to 20 below. Winds gusting up to 40 miles an hour accompanied the cold front.

The arctic air moved into Alberta during the night and by early morning covered all of Alberta and much of Saskatchewan.

Light snow fell and the winds caused drifting. This would hamper the [illegible] unplugging highways and rail lines, clogged with drifts as high as 25 feet during the earlier blizzard.

Long-Bell Plans Party

WEED — Long-Bell Lumber Company, Weed Division, will be Santa Claus again this year to the eligible children of the Weed, Tennant and Etna, Long-Bell Lumber Company employes.

In Weed Tuesday night, December 20, at the lawn area adjacent to the Long-Bell Lumber Company office, the Long-Bell Company will be host for selected Christmas stockings packed full of choice candies and prizes to be given to 1,000 children under 12 years of age who are of Long-Bell families and have official tickets for the affair. Tickets were issued to the employes this week. In Tennant 125 children of the Long Bell employes there will receive the same kind of packed stockings and at Etna the party will be for 22 children.

This will be the seventh annual Christmas party for the children of the lumber company employes given by the Long-Bell Weed Division of which John Mantle is the general manger. Jack Calkins heads the party committee for this year and with the assistance of numerous Long-Bell employes has planned a bigger and better party this year.

The holiday affair will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Christmas lighted lawn area of the Long-Bell Company office on main street of Weed and musical entertainment will round out the party event.

Captain Roger Hinkson, 167-pounder from Hempstead, N.Y., is the only senior on Yale's wrestling team.

PAUL KAELIN, foreman of a crew digging a deep pit at Fort Smith, Ark., is near collapse shortly after he clawed his way to freedom after the walls of the 15-foot-deep hole caved in. Two others fought their way to safety while two more are believed to have been buried alive under tons of earth. Rescue efforts continued for more than 24 hours in an attempt to free the victims.

Navy Ask Bids On KF Jet Base

SEATTLE (AP — The Navy said Saturday it was accepting bids on two projects in the Klamath Falls area.

One is the construction of a runway extension and installation of taxiways and approach lighting at the Klamath Falls Air Force Base.

The other is for the resettlement of Klamath Project facilities, U.S. Department of Interior, Bureau of Reclamation at Klamath Falls and Tulelake, Calif.

The sealed bids will be opened Dec. 29 in the Public Works office of the 13th Naval District here.
