Republican Warning on Plans Told

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Sen. Aiken of Oregon said today that the Democrats' plan to "outromise the Democrats" in farm benefits.

Aiken, top GOP member of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said Congress should give direct subsidy to an administration soil bank plan expected to be submitted by Secretary of Agriculture Benson. This plan is designed to take some acreage out of production and put it in grass and trees with the dual purpose of (1) reducing the surplus of crops and (2) improving the soil's fertility for future use.

The program would involve acreage payments to farmers and Aiken said that if these were approved by Congress, political pressure soon would be applied to boost the payments to high levels. "We want a workable farm program," he said. "We don't want to get into a competition of promises because we can never outpromise the Democrats with a program of performance."

Aiken forecast defeat by the Senate of a Democratic move to restore rigid, high-level price supports for major field crops.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, already has called for early action in the new session on a House-passed bill to replace the Eisenhower administration's flexible price support program with rigid supports.

Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler hammered at the term issue again in a weekend speech in Parkersburg, W. Va. He said the farmer's share of the food dollar is at its lowest in 15 years, and suggested that Congress investigate what he called the growing gap between farm and consumer prices.

Benson said Dec. 15 his department is undertaking a study to determine whether middlemen are getting too big a share.
