

FOR A QUICK DINNER before the theater — for a tasty supper after it — for Sunday nights or for those unexplained times when afternoon guests are invited to stay for an impromptu meal — have them cook their own. Here's a menu where the guests do all the work. Pictured are Minted Lamb Patties, Salade Fatigue (Tired Salad), Chilled Coca-Cola, Chips and cheese and a Fruit and Cheese Board.

MAKE A HIT AS A LAZY HOSTESS

Lamb patties can be bought from your butcher all ready to cook. All you need to do is dip each one in mint sauce or mint butter, wrap an onion ring or two around each one (like a rubber band) and spear it with a skewer, then hand it to your guest and offer him the fireplace or the barbecue pit. If you like, your portable barbecue can be used in a cold fireplace.

Two pounds of lamb patties should serve six to eight persons.

MINT SAUCE

This recipe makes about 1 cup; increase according to need.
1½ tablespoons confectionery sugar
3 tablespoons water
1-3 cup finely chopped mint leaves (or use extract)
½ cup strong vinegar

Heat water and dissolve sugar; cool syrup, then add mint leaves and vinegar. (Minted mint jelly, peppered with vinegar can substitute.) This can be made in advance.

MINT BUTTER

If fresh mint is available, make mint butter. If it is not available, make Curry Butter.
¼ cup butter
½ teaspoon salt (if butter is unsalted)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
¼ cup finely chopped mint leaves
Or ¼ teaspoon curry powder
Beat butter until creamy, soupy soft. Add lemon juice slowly. Then add mint or curry powder. Makes about 1 cupful.

CURRENT MINT SAUCE
½ cup currant jelly
1½ tablespoons chopped mint leaves
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
Add 1 tablespoon sherry for variation

Separate jelly into tiny pieces but do not beat. Add other ingredients. Melt on stove to serve warm or serve cool.

SALADE FATIGUE

(Tired Salad)
Make four to six hours before serving. This "tired salad" saves on-the-spot hostess time, fits in with the do-it-the-easy-way motif of the meal.
1 head iceberg lettuce
1 large onion

HERE'S A BUFFET SETUP for a small family. It features Birds Eye quick frozen turkey dinners, complete with parsley potatoes, green peas, cranberry relish. To prepare, preheat oven to 450 degrees. Remove dinner from carton. Leave foilcover in place. Place in hot oven and heat thoroughly — about 25 to 30 minutes. When heated, remove foil and serve in the aluminum plate.

SMALL FAMILY BUFFET

Folks living alone . . . small families with cramped kitchenettes . . . career girls on a budget . . . have a problem with certain kinds of meals. Take a turkey dinner with all the fixins', for instance. It's a big job, admittedly, and an expensive one, to stuff and roast a whole bird, prepare several vegetables, make the gravy. And yet, there are many times when a turkey dinner is just what you want. And now, thanks to Birds Eye, the company that pioneered in the quick-freezing of foods, the small family can enjoy this traditional feast with no trouble and very little expense.

Turkey dinners, complete with rich brown gravy, parsley potatoes, buttery green peas and cranberry relish, are packed in neatly-portioned aluminum trays and quick-frozen. Heat the dinners in a hot oven for about half an hour and your dinner's done. Compare the amount of time (not to mention the trouble) it would take to prepare the same food from scratch.

You can serve the dinners right on their own shining trays or, if you like, arrange the food on your own best china dishes. For a festive holiday meal for a small family or a few friends, you might serve buffet style. Set out as many dinners as you need, add a sparkling tomato aspic ring with creamy mayonnaise, buttered rolls and plenty of hot coffee. Tuck knives, forks and spoons inside folded napkins and line them up alongside the dinners . . . and, to make the job of self-service really comfortable, provide good-sized trays that will hold dinner, salad, and coffee easily.

Beet Sugar

Beet sugar is a product of American farms and industry. Unsurpassed in purity and fineness and in performance, it is used in all kinds of cooking and canning. That beet sugar is just as sweet and performs just as well in cooking as cane sugar has been proved by the chemist, the home economist and the homemaker.

Our own Western Beet Sugar Producers, Inc., have a half dozen free booklets, each containing more than 20 pages of recipes and helpful hints.

Just send a card to Nancy Hannon, Western Beet Sugar Producers, Inc., 515 Phillips Petroleum Building, Salt Lake City 1, Utah.

Among the 10 famous brands of beet sugar, the one probably best known to us here is White Satin, Oregon's own.

PRETTY CUPCAKES, individualized with the initial of each guest, will delight the young crowd. Twenty-four of these cupcakes can be frosted from one package of instant fluffy frosting mix. Tiny candies outline the initial. Photo and recipe courtesy Minute-man Instant Frosting Mix.

Let's Have Pretty Cupcakes

Tween-agers — those who have grown out of young childhood and yet are not teen-age — are perhaps the biggest puzzle of all to their elders. One moment they act grown up — the next, they behave like little children. They like parties, though not always mixed boy and girl groups. But of one thing you can be sure — they like to do things — they love the feeling of accomplishment. So why not let them plan their own parties, make their own refreshments? With cake and frosting mixes for the cakes, and soft drink powders for the beverages, it is easy enough for them to carry out successfully.

Since this is the age when personal identity assumes great importance and they love to see their initials on everything, they will find it fun to personalize each frosted cupcake. The initial of every friend can be outlined in a variety of tiny colored and silver candies. They are available at most chain groceries and ten-cent stores. Easy recipes for making pretty cupcakes and delicious fruited party punch are given below.

PARTY CUPCAKES
1 package instant yellow or devil's food cake mix
1 package instant fluffy frosting mix
Tiny colored candies and silver dragees.

Prepare cake batter and bake in 24 cupcake pans, as directed on the package. Cool.
Then prepare fluffy frosting as directed on the frosting mix package. Spread over top and around sides of inverted cupcakes.
Decorate each cupcake with a guest's initial, using tiny colored candies and silver dragees for the letters.

FRUITED PARTY PUNCH
1 package Root Beer soft drink powder
1 cup sugar
Water and ice cubes to make 2 quarts
8 orange slices, cut in halves
16 pineapple chunks
16 maraschino cherries.
Combine soft drink powder, sugar and water and ice cubes. Stir until soft drink powder and sugar are dissolved. Just before serving, place an orange slice, a pineapple chunk, and a cherry in each punch glass or fruit juice glass. Pour punch slowly over the fruit. Makes 2 quarts, or 16 servings.
