

CALVIN V. HUDNELL, a fireman on the USS Wright, who was critically injured in an auto accident on Highway 97 on December 3, has recovered sufficiently that he is scheduled to be moved by air today to the Naval Hospital at Seattle. His fiancée, Peggy Wickman of Glenn Ellen, California, and a shipmate, John B. Diamond, were killed in the accident. Members of the grange and various other individuals have presented him with a number of gifts, and nurses at the Klamath Valley Hospital collected a Christmas tree for his room. Two of the gifts were long distance telephone calls to his parents in Orange, Texas.

"DENNIS THE MENACE"

"LOOKS LIKE IT'S GONNA BE ANOTHER PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS!"

PARTY VOTE
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas state police voted to pass up an offer of a Christmas party if the hosts would spend the money on groceries for about 75 needy families. The Arkansas Bus and Truck Assn., which offered to fete the state troopers, yesterday agreed with the plan. The Salvation Army will distribute the food.

Hollywood Children Get Share Of Fabulous Loot

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—While the mothers and fathers of Hollywood rake in diamond bracelets and cars for Christmas, the small fry of the celluloid city get their share of a fabulous loot, too.

Zsa Zsa Gabor's daughter, Francesca Hilton, will be fully educated about the famous Gabor beauties this Christmas. Under her white Christmas tree she'll find four dolls—wiggled and dressed to resemble her grandmother, mother and aunts—Jolie, Zsa Zsa, Eva and Magda.

The dolls are wearing miniature copies of Zsa Zsa's wardrobe that was created by Christian Dior in Paris.

"I made the doll clothes myself," said mother Zsa Zsa. "The governess and I worked for two nights and days to finish them. We used satins and velvets. It was hard work."

Stars who want "store-bought" gifts jam Uncle Bernie's Toy Menagerie in Beverly Hills, where this time of year you'll see more celebrities than at a premier. This huge shop is the Tiffany's of the younger set. Such items as a $500 five-foot-tall stuffed elephant and a $475 boat with foot pedals go fast to Texas millionaires.

But the movie crowd is setting for less staggering items. Eleanor Parker bought a $89.95 phonograph for her child. The front has a kaleidoscope-like gadget that changes colors as the music plays. The Jack Benny's shelled out cash from his basement vault for one for their grandchild.

Jennifer Jones bought a $39.95 stuffed tiger for her baby. Debra Paget spent $95 on a toy battleship and $100 on two "Madame Pompadour" dolls with powdered wigs. The daughter of Edmund O'Brien and Olga San Juan will find under her tree an imported English Dull's carriage and a $100 doll-size replica of Queen Anne's summer house in England.

Lana Turner and Lex Barker wrapped up a $50 bridge-building set for one of his sons. Stuffed tigers at $325, suits of armor at $100 and $39.95 puppet shows were popular items with other customers, including the Humphrey Bogart and Red Skelton.

Temple Slates Xmas Drama

Klamath Temple will be the scene of a beautiful and impressive Christmas drama, "The Shepherd." Time of the service will be 7:30 p.m.

The background and scenery, prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Woodard and Mr. Rose, depict the hills on the outskirts of Bethlehem.

The drama includes four scenes all taking place near the Holy City. The cast includes Tom Cornwall, who will play the part of Ethan; Mrs. Ned Worrell, Rachel; Joseph and Mary will be played by the Rev. and Mrs. Lonnie Sehorn; Mrs. Cecil Jennings, Rebecca; Mrs. Ray Morris, Deborah; Mrs. Harry Lehigh, Amrah.

The boy Reuel will be played by David Sehorn; the three shepherds, Jared, Abel and Zeri, by Ray Morris, Harry Lehigh and Cecil Jennings.

The drama is being directed by Mrs. Harry M. Strachan assisted by Mrs. Eileen Woodward.

There will be special music by the Gauderson trio and Mrs. Woodward.

The children of Klamath Temple will present their program Christmas morning during the Sunday School hour. At that time treats will be given to the children. Following the Sunday School program the Rev. Strachan will bring the message at the worship service.

Merrill Pupils Hold Party

MERRILL — The sixth grade held its Christmas party Wednesday evening in the grade school. Bad weather made it practical to substitute square dancing for caroling.

Chairmen in charge were Maurice O'Keefe, class president; Shields Lusk, games and dancing; Judy Dockery, refreshments, and Bobby Pettit, decorations.

Their teacher, Charles Perry, and Mrs. Perry were advisers and chaperones.

SQUARE DANCE CLUB

MERRILL — The Stepin' Steppin' Square Dance Club of Merrill is planning a New Years Eve dance, open to the public, to be held in the Merrill Recreation Hall on Saturday, December 31, starting at 8 p.m. A planned potluck breakfast of waffles, sausage and accompaniments, will be served after midnight. Jim Bradshaw will call. Those attending are invited to bring the children.

Annual Candle Services Set

For the sixth consecutive year, a traditional candlelight early Christmas morning service will be presented in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church on South Sixth Street.

This early morning service is planned around the great Christmas music and a special Christmas meditation by the pastor, the Rev. D. L. Proett. The service offers an opportunity for families to re-dedicate Christmas as a Holy Day.

Musical selections will include "Comfort Ye," from Handel's Messiah, "O Holy Night," "Gesu Bambino," "Nasareth," "The Virginia Slumber Song," "Go Tell It on the Mountain," and "Gloria" by Mozart by soloists and the adult choir.

Soloists will be Bob Johnson and D. L. Proett. Other vocal groups will include Shirley Crawford, Borell Crawford, Sheri Metler, Helen Haslan and Letha Home.

The director of the adult choir is Carl Hagel. Ernest Armstrong is organist.

Members and friends are invited to participate in this early service.

Regular worship and Sunday School services will be held as usual on Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. At the 9:30 a.m. service the sacrament of infant baptism will be administered. A reception for new members will be held at the 11 a.m. service.
