A CHRISTMAS TREE and other festive decorations set the tempo for the Klamath Kennel Club party December 15 at the Log Cabin. A cocktail hour preceded the 8:30 p.m. dinner-dance for about 40.

Arrangements were made by Arnie Molling, Don Stroud and Mrs. Hal Shidler. In the picture, E. Webb Staunton from Tulelake, is doing a little joking with his mother-in-law — "Ma" Hoppe — who can joke right back. Standing left, Johnny Feedback, Kennel Club treasurer; and Jim Stilwell.

Junior Sophisticates Powder Garb for Femmes and Escorts

Holiday time is date time. Lady-like loveliness should cast its aura of glamor over all the boys this year, and no young man can help but act like a little gentleman.

Dance dresses make a girl look more angelic than ever this season. She'll wear them with the new long-torso crinolines. White is popular for holiday wear with glitter here and glitter there.

Young miss hairstyles are as you like it. Pony tail is popular, straight hair is chic. But long or short hair has a styled haircut. Hairdresser Jean DeChant created a charming style for New York girls. It has a flat crown with wavy bangs and sides—ideal for thin-faced types especially.

If you don't know how to pin-curly, ask your hairdresser to show you. Then it will be easier to keep that chic coiffure. Just pin it up each night and comb it out in the morning until the next shampoo.

Heels are worn with formals. Flats are not relegated to the junk heap. Some girls still wear them with party dresses.

And expect your man to show up decked to his topknot on an after-six date. It seems formal clothes are selling like hot cakes according to Samuel Rudolfer, youthful clothing designer. He thinks his "dress right, do right" campaign aimed at schools, department stores, clubs and church groups has finally hit home judging by the sartorial elegance of the below-twentiers. Parents believe that dressing up Sonny will help him act like a good boy.

One "Ivy League" tuxedo is lined with a black and white fabric with matching cummerbund and tie, a style sure to appeal to lots of the young men. (For spring expect to see the hat band matched to tie and cummerbund worn with a white jacket.)

One thing all the girls know is that once their date gets a tuxedo he'll want to use it, one reason why there are more formal parties today, no doubt.

A good date too will supply a corsage for his girl, calling her first and asking her the color of her gown. He'll take her in a car to their destination, making sure the car door is not slammed shut on her dress. He'll open the door for her when it's time for her to get out. He'll pick her up on time and have her home on schedule.

The girl has a few obligations to her date also.

It's assumed she'll be ready with-

In 5 minutes after he arrives, that she'll give him the first and last dance, will not table hop at the shindig they attend, and avoid doing anything that might cause him embarrassment. She shouldn't ask him to hold her purse or stuff his pockets with her comb, compact, lipstick, handkerchief or other paraphernalia.
