RECITAL

EAST SIDE — Mrs. Bradley presented two of her pupils in private recital at her home on December 12. The two received this recognition as an award memorization of eight pieces, playing them by memory only.

Audrey Milap's selections were "Narcissus," "Columbine," "Maiden's Prayer," "Edelweiss Glade," "Underneath the Double Eagle March," "Over There with Variations," and the "Nervous Kid."

May Malson, the other student, played "Ecossaise," "Alpine Flowers," "The Barn Dance," "Jolly Dances," "Elmer's Tune," "Morning Prayer," "Happy Farmer," and "Waiting in Old Vienna."

Games were played and refreshments served following the program to the participants and the Kay Kilfoil, Hazel VanCleave, Arlene Herbert, Arlene and Darlene Robnett, Sharon VanCleave, Roy and Mary Milap, Charles and Rose Pitschner, Alice Spencer, Milton Davis, Ronnie, Malson and Clayton Bradley.

NEW HOME STYLES
Homes are more cleanly styled today. The lines are simpler and the gingerbread look of the houses in the 20's and 30's is disappearing as builders make better use of materials. Roofs are generally low pitched. Builders are paying closer attention to orienting the house on the lot so the homeowner can enjoy his property to the full.

IT WAS ALSO the birthday anniversary of Clark Good, golf pro at Reames, last Sunday, December 18. He is shown during the open house (a dual celebration for him) with Mrs. Good—each of them holding the makings for a "toast" which was proposed shortly after the photographer took the candid of them.

REMINISCENT MOMENT was shared by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mullis when the above picture was taken at Reames last Sunday.

The December 18 open house at the club was also the anniversary date of their marriage 20 years ago in Yuma, Arizona—doubly festive for them—celebrated with fellow members and their respective guests invited to help usher in "Christmas Week."

Bridge Party

MACDOEL—Mrs. Ora Garey was hostess to a potluck bridge luncheon and gift exchange at her Macdoel home Tuesday afternoon December 13.

Those attending were Mrs. Byrd Kelly, Mrs. A. O. Christenson, Mrs. R. E. Jones, Mrs. Dale Goode, Mrs. Daisy Selberg and Mrs. Joe Foote, Dorris; Mrs. Warren Farnham, Mrs. Kenneth Holbrook, Mrs. Had Noakes, Mrs. Grant Longmore, Katie Garey, Macdoel; and Mrs. Ted Schlapfer of Mt. Hebron.

Our very best wishes to our friends for the brightest and merriest holiday season ever.
