At the table, same order, Mrs. Dorothy Lolcano, Mrs. A. W. Westover, Mrs. Ray Reeves and Mrs. Lyle Steers.

The party was occasioned by the Wilsons' move to Seattle where Wilson is assistant credit manager for Sears. He is already settled in his new location; and Mrs. Wilson and their son Jimmy are leaving presently to join him.

Smart and Healthy

By Bessy, the Basin Bossy

The nation's leading women's wear daily (Women's Wear Daily) gives a glimpse into what appeared on Parisian feminine heads at a recent wedding. These hats were worn by some of the most fashionable, so look over the list and pick up some ideas:

A lavender blue velvet toque with a diamond brooch at the center of the drape.

Gathered black and white velvet (worn by the younger girls).

Head-hugging, draped red velvet cap.

White ermine hat with royal blue crown and ermine collar.

We note, too, that stripes are having a recurrence of popularity in what the shops are picking up for the coming spring, summer and fall resort seasons.

These tips, of course, are for your benefit. Smartness in appearance is one of woman's best friends. But further tips toward smartness don't cover just fashions...

There's also health to think about. You'll never look any better than you feel—for very long, at any rate. And to keep feeling tops, drink those three glasses of milk every day. And see to it that your whole family gets its share of fresh, refreshing grade "A" milk, too.

Take it from me, fashion or health, you'll improve your looks with the milk habit.
