

Over the GARDEN DATE

TULELAKE
By Mrs. Sam Anderson.

Winners in this year's "Christmas Symbols," Flower Show, sponsored by the Tulelake Garden Club prior to the holiday season were registered from all parts of the Klamath and Tulelake basins.

The show drew an unusual number of outstanding entries in numerous divisions.

Blue ribbon winners in the horticulture division were: Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, African violets; Mrs. Frank Manseau, angel wing begonias; Mrs. J. Walter Brown, large fancy leaf begonias; Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, Christmas cactus; Mrs. Don Portfield, small cacti; Mrs. Don Hurlbut, small leaf coleus; Mrs. Frank Manseau, bedding-type blooming geraniums; Mrs. Theodore Fish, ivy-green and ivy-fancy geraniums; Mrs. E. Webb-Bowen, hoyas; Mrs. Ray Atkins, green-leaf philodendron; Mrs. Carl Jensen, sansevieria over 12 inches; Mrs. Hazel Tucker, spider plant; Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, foliage plants; and Mrs. E. Webb-Bowen, blooming plants.

In the "Collections" division, first-place winners were Chrystal Cheyne for cacti, and Beatrice Wilford for African violets. The "Forced Bulbs" section showed Mrs. Schweitzer a winner in the paper-white daffodil or narcissus class. In "Planters" Mrs. Chet Stonecypher Sr., was first in the large-planter section, and Mrs. Murrell Hooper won the Oregon grape section.

The decorative division winners were Mrs. Hazel Tucker in mantle arrangements, Mrs. Austin Terry in coffee-table arrangements, Mrs. Merton Brown in the occasional-table section, Mrs. Hazel Tucker for lanterns, Mrs. Murrell Hooper for arrangements featuring candles, Mrs. Frank Manseau for arrangements featuring home-made candles, Mrs. Hooper for dining-table arrangements, Mrs. Harry Rinabarger for baskets featuring food, and Mrs. Pat McGinley for a New Years buffet arrangement.

Mrs. Herman Street won the section on arrangements featuring the Virgin Mary. Mrs. Pat McGinley that featuring choicest or angels, Mrs. Chet Main, juniper wreath; Mrs. Earl McCall, wreaths using all dry materials; Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, evergreen wreaths.

In the "Swags" section Mrs. Main won the evergreen division, Mrs. Schweitzer the dry materials prize, and Mrs. Stonecypher the class featuring Christmas symbols. Mrs. Austin Terry won both the corsage and the wrapped package classes.

The decorative division for arrangements by those who have won five or more blue ribbons showed Mrs. Fish first in two classes — arrangements expressing rhythm and those in verticals.

U.S. Banner Waves Over Polar Area

By SAUL PETT

LITTLE AMERICA — The Stars and Stripes were raised again at Little America yesterday. The site of the first two camps built in the antarctic by Rear Adm. Richard Byrd was desolate.

The buildings of the first camp built in 1928 are covered by an estimated 60 feet of snow and ice. The second camp is about 40 feet below us.

All we found on the surface at 3 a.m. were the tops of towers and poles.

The experts aboard the icebreaker USG Glacier haven't decided yet where to build the permanent main base of the current United States antarctic expedition. The base will be used during the next three years by International Geophysical Year scientists.

The experts are seeking a site that would be unlikely to break off and float to sea. The right spot would also be free of crevasses and practical for loading cargo for ships from the bay ice up to the ice shelf.

The specific area known as Little America near the Bay of Whales may not be chosen again but no one here will ever forget the macabre scene.

Sticking up from the wind swept snow are the tops of two steel radio towers built at first Little America. The towers were originally 70 feet high. Today only about eight feet of their peaks are showing.

Also protruding from the snow like fingers frozen in death are the tops of five wooden poles which were used for radio wires at the second Little America between 1933 and 1935.

The second settlement was built directly over the first.

Binghams Schedule Opening Of New Sixth Street Cafe

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bingham, restaurant and fountain operators in Klamath Falls since 1945, have opened a new restaurant business at the Town and Country Shopping Center on South Sixth Street. Formal opening for the business is scheduled for soon after January 1.

They formerly operated the lunch and fountain service in the Greyhound bus depot and more recently the fountain and lunch in McConkey's Drug Store.

The horseshoe-shaped counter and booths in the coffee shop will seat 56 patrons. The dining room at the rear will accommodate 66 guests.

All woodwork including the counter, tables and magazine rack are formica. Walls in the coffee shop are pastel green with one wall highlighted with murals in color of familiar local scenes, the Klamath River canyon, snow scene of Crater Lake, Mt. Thielsen from the rim of Crater Lake, an aerial view of Klamath Falls, a cattle scene from Bly, Lake of the Woods and pelicans on a stream.

One wall of the dining room and the wainscoting is in redwood against pastel walls. Lighting is indirect.

The all-stainless steel kitchen equipment includes a charcoal broiler, innovation for producing sizzling steaks with smoke flavor, a 300-bun-per-hour toaster, completely automatic dish washer, walk-in cooler and other modern equipment.

Minor Debt Brings Murder

TALLULAH, La. (AP)—A 21-year old man who wanted $35 to pay off a debt faces murder charges in the shotgun-robbery slaying of two 66-year-old planters.

Sheriff C. E. Hester of Madison Parish said last night that D. C. Bailey, a Negro, admitted killing the two white men after removing 10 cents from the pocket of one and $46 from the cash register of the other.

In the hurried robbery, the sheriff said, Bailey overlooked more than $500 on his victims, Jesse Nelson and Eddie Montgomery.

The planters, lifelong friends, shared a plantation about 12 miles southeast of here. Montgomery also ran a store nearby.

The sheriff said Bailey owed $35 to another Negro. He told officers he went to the plantation late in the afternoon Tuesday and asked to borrow a shotgun from Nelson to kill a raccoon.

Nelson followed along to watch. Bailey suddenly turned, shot Nelson and removed 10 cents from the victim. In his hurry to get away unseen, he overlooked $420 in the planter's back pocket.

Bailey said he later killed Montgomery at his store, removed $46 from the cash register, again overlooking the victim's back pocket, which contained $100.

Bailey was picked up Tuesday night.

Red Braves Zero Weather To Flee

OSLO, Norway (UP)—A young Russian soldier braved sub-zero Christmas temperatures and made an Arctic Circle flight to freedom, Norwegian sources disclosed today.

Name and rank of the Russian were not disclosed by police who took him into custody at Kirkenes in Northern Norway, but informed sources said he was either an officer or a non-com.

The sources said he was in civilian clothes when found by a police patrol and had spent two nights in the country in temperatures ranging around 22 degrees below zero.

Norwegian sources said the Russian has asked political asylum and will be held pending a decision by the justice ministry on whether to grant asylum.

Gilchrist Signs Wage Contract

Employees of Gilchrist Timber Company, in Northern Klamath County, are to receive the benefit of a wage increase averaging 8 1/2 cents per hour, according to C. L. Irving, managing vice president of Pine Industrial Relations Council. The agreement was signed today.

About 150 men are affected by the agreement.

Irving said similar wage increase had been agreed to at Warm Springs Lumber Company, Warm Springs, Oregon, The Willow Ranch Company and Goose Lake Timber Company, both of Willow Ranch, California, Gonifer Wood Products, Murphy, Oregon, Southern Oregon Plywoods, Inc., Grants Pass, Oregon, and for logging employees of Edward Hines Lumber Co., Hines and Seneca, Oregon. Hines loggers followed plant employees in accepting the graduated increases.
