Patton-Reeves Vows Pledged In Presence Of 250 Guests

MERRILL — The Merrill Presbyterian Church was the setting for the mid-winter wedding of Constance Mae (Connie) Reeves and Tommie L. Patton, who exchanged vows in a ceremony read by the Rev. George A. Milne, December 18 at 2 p.m.

The bride, member of a well-known Merrill family, was given in marriage by her father, Orville Verle Reeves, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Patton, Carmichael, California.

The traditional white gown worn by Connie was also the "something borrowed" — from Mrs. Dick Reeves, her sister-in-law, a white lace over satin wedding dress, made en train, with long sleeves and scalloped detail outlined the low oval neckline.

Her three-quarter length veil was of illusion and she carried a large white orchid surrounded with white stephanotis flowers tied with white satin streamers.

For something old she wore an heirloom bracelet belonging to her great-grandmother; a penny was in her slipper; and she wore a blue garter. For sentiment she wore her mother's pearl necklace.

Matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dick Reeves; and bridesmaids, Mrs. Jerry Gissell and Betty Daniels. The latter two were high school classmates of the bride at Merrill.

Mrs. Reeves wore a rose crystal ballroom length frock with matching carnations in her hair and bouquet. The bridesmaids were in identically styled aqua dresses and they wore matching flowers.

Cindy Duncan, little four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Duncan, Merrill, was flower girl. Her aqua in-step-length dress was similar in style to the bridesmaids — and she wore matching carnations in her hair.

Ring bearer, Bobby Trotman, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trotman, Merrill, wore a white jacket and navy blue trousers. Jerry Patton, USAF, Tucson, Arizona, served his brother as best man; Dick Reeves, brother of the bride, El Paso; and Jerry Smalley, Malin, matron of honor's brother, ushered.

Deep Tones Of Red And Green Featured At Blind-Riley Wedding In Sacred Heart

Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the setting for a pre-holiday wedding, December 18, when a popular young couple exchanged vows in a 2 p.m. service read by the Rev. Timothy Collins in the presence of some 250 friends and relatives.

The bride is the former Caroline Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. James Riley, 522 North 5th Street; and her husband, Ronald Erhardt Blind, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt Blind, Medford.

Caroline, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white tissue tulle designed with a full flared skirt from a draped long torso waistline. The long semi-fitted bodice was long sleeved and the square neckline was outlined in tiny pearls. A small cap held her fingertip veil of illusion — and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis. Her mother made the bridal gown and the frocks worn by the attendants.

Maid of honor, Pat Wagner, Mt. Angel, was the bride's roommate at Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene; and the bridesmaid, Marjorie Blind, is sister of the bridegroom.

Both of the attendants wore deep green tissue tulle frocks made from the same pattern as the bride's with the exception of sleeve and skirt length. Red poinsettias tied with red ribbon were carried with stunning effect against the green of the dresses.

Best man, George Nitchelm, is a fraternity brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were David Riley, brother of the bride; Donald Mick-elwaite, Eugene; and Robert Ormg-dulph, Portland; both fraternity brothers of Ronnie.

Mrs. George McIntyre, organist, accompanied vocal soloist, Jerry Fales.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Riley wore a soft gray fallie dress with pink accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. The senior Mrs. Blind wore teal blue tulle with black accessories and her corsage was also of pink rosebuds.

The reception was in the parish hall immediately after the ceremony, and the newlyweds left from there for their honeymoon — destination not revealed.

Both are graduates of KUHS; Caroline is continuing her studies as a senior student nurse at Sacred Heart School of Nursing in Eugene. Ronnie is a graduate of the University of Oregon in accounting. He is presently associated with a Eugene firm of accountants. On the campus he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. Next October he reports to Fort Benning, for service in the U.S. Army.

Out-of-town guests included Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Leiler and son, Steve, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Dimelli, Thornton, California; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mogenssen and family, Fruitland, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Mel Fruitado, San Jose; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Redfield, Glendale, Oregon; Mr. and

Ideas IN PAINT and WALLPAPER

By JACK NEIPP IF YOU LOVE LIFE ... You love color! Think for a moment what a drab world this would be without color ... if everything you looked at were grey and colorless — the sky, trees, grass, flowers ... your clothes, your food, your home. If they were all without color, much of the beauty and joy of living would be lost. Color is one of the most important factors in home planning. With color, you can set a mood, enhance a style, make a whole room come to life. A feeling of elegance was desired in the dining room in the accompanying sketch. To achieve it, a color scheme of rich cedar green and oyster white was used. A wide, white cloverleaf mold crowns the wood dado and a bridge between the cedar green of the dado and the patterned wallpaper — green on a white background. If we don't have the colors you want in our ready mixed paint, we'll gladly mix them for you. We'll be most happy to assist you in any way that we can. If you wish, we'll recommend a reputable painting contractor to you. Call on us ... anytime.
