ANGUS STEWART CLAIMS SEATTLE GIRL AS BRIDE IN YULETIDE CEREMONY

A Seattle wedding of special interest to their Klamath Basin friends, was that of Joan Havland to Angus Stewart on December 24 in Seattle University Baptist Church.

The bridegroom, born in Klamath Falls, is the son of Mrs. Neal Stewart, now of Honolulu, and the late Neal Stewart. Angus attended Klamath Falls schools until his graduation from KUHS. Return visits as "houseguest" of various family friends have kept up local contacts since he entered the University of Oregon.

His bride also has a circle of Klamath Basin friends through vacation visits here with friends of the Stewarts.

The nuptial service was read at 4 p.m. by the Rev. A. Stanley MacNair, in a setting which was a striking combination of red holly berries, green velvet ribbon and orchids from Hawaii — flown from the islands to Seattle for the occasion.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Havland, Seattle, and her father gave her in marriage.

She wore an ivory de-lustered satin gown with a scooped neck edged in a wide band of embroidered Alencon lace. The dress was designed with a straight front and fullness at the back was caught at the waist into unpressed pleats which fanned gracefully into a chapel train.

A rhinestone and pearl tiara held her fingertip veil of illusion. Her bridal bouquet was of phalaenopsis orchids brought from the islands by the bridegroom's mother, Stephenie, and pikaka leis (sweetheart flower of Hawaii) were the bridal bouquet streamers. The arrangement was designed for the leis to be worn with Joan's going away costume.

The four attendants, maid of honor, Arden Jaeger, Portland; junior bridesmaid, Linda Wagner, whose mother and father were attendants for Joan's parents' wed-

60th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY DATE for Mr. and Mrs. John Metcalf, pictured above, was December 5. They were married on that date in 1895 at Matland, Missouri, at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. E. L. Robison, brother of the bride, officiated. The important date was celebrated with a family reunion at the couple's home, 2204 Eberlein Street.

Present for the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Metcalf, Glen Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Glendale Metcalf and son Paul, all of Chester, California. Others from out of town were Mrs. Truman Scott, Meridian, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Williams and Bobby and Suzanne, Prineville.

From Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Metcalf and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metcalf. The celebrants have lived in Klamath Falls for 25 years—and John and "Babe" as they are known to their host of friends haven't yet found any spare moments to devote to "boredom."

Chapter Night No. 467 WOM

Jean Young, social service chairman, Klamath Falls Chapter No. 467, Women of the Moose, held her recent chapter night program at Moose Temple, 1010 Pine Street.

The regular initiation meeting was called to order by senior regent, Hazel Pulley, and turned over to Mrs. Young who introduced Naomi Miller from the Klamath Falls County Health Department who gave a very informative talk on the Service of the Health Department to the community. She especially stressed the Well Child Clinic, which was of special interest to her audience because one of the principles of the Moose Lodge is taking care of its children.

Mrs. Young then introduced co-worker Fannie Mae Thompson, who read a poem, "The World Is Mine."

Candidates initiated in honor of the social service committee were Mary Midkiff, sponsored by Leona Baker; Etta Edmondson, Virginia Knowles and Beth Pohl all sponsored by Opal Doak; Lela Bell Weston, Erma Gerue; Eola Georges, Viola Greys; Verna Colohan and Nina Sawyer, Jean Young.

Nellie Shepard, reinstated at the same meeting was sponsored by Arvella Johnson.

Members of the social service committee introduced and taken to seats of honor, were Julie Williams, Betty Cool, Thelma Provost and Chumlatte Ashworth.

Make it from me girls... stay Smart and Healthy

By Bessy, the Basin Bossy

If there's anything left of that pre-Christmas budget, get ready to tackle some post-Christmas clearances in your favorite downtown shopping spots. It's a wise thing to do, to hold out an extra few dollars from the budget for just this reason.

And there's lots of things coming up, which make for good bargains at this time of year.

First of all, Christmas stocks which weren't sold must be cleared from the shelves. And since this is the end of the year, new models — from appliances to millinery — are on the block, many of them at good bargain prices.

You've seen, no doubt, that milk is a bargain — even if you drink it for the calcium in it alone. No other food is available to us which can keep us so well supplied with necessary calcium. And remember, you never outgrow your need for milk.

Things - we've - noticed department - Spanking-nice sports jackets for the outdoorish gal — even some imported from as far away as Austria with fancy linings and trim — and fancy price tags, too. But certainly nice, if you can afford it.

Also, for the quick break for the hooded jackets used for skiing. Makes it a practical thing to throw on, pull up the "convertible top" (the hood) and head into the rain or wind or snow (or all three) without having to tie a bandana around the hairline.

Plaid woolen jackets — "scotties" — are ever more popular, with the newest color we've seen on the market place an aqua plaid, with blues, greens and yellows for complements.

The world is full of wonderful things these days. HAPPY NEW YEAR!
