Coaches Compare Bowl Teams

By CHUCK TAYLOR
Stanford Coach

I like to see a Pacific Coast team win in the Rose Bowl, but don't put me on the spot. Sam Brown of UCLA impressed me as the fastest back on either side and the most accomplished runner we faced, including Howard Cassidy in our Ohio State game. Bob Davenport, an exceptionally hard runner from left back and a great blocker, is one of the more formidable defensive backs.

UCLA 21, Stanford 13
Michigan 34, Stanford 14

UCLA is a sound single wing team with exceedingly sharp execution of the fake pass and run series. The reason they haven't run their reverse as much this year is Brown's ability to make yards to the weak side on the fake pass and run.

Chuck Taylor

Michigan State's backs combine speed with hard running. In our game, Clarence Peaks was their most impressive back, but later their sophomore right halfback, a name I can neither pronounce nor spell (editors: Walt Kowalczyk), came on.

Quarterback Earl Morrall, a superlative passer, had good control of his team and was dangerous as a runner. The Spartans throw primarily on the running play backfield action.

You've heard about their multiple offense, but they are primarily a T team with flankers and shift into single wing for only a change of pace and to get more power near the goal. They're in the T with unbalanced line to the right 80 per cent of the time.

I'd probably rate Spartan tackle, Norm Masters ahead of Stanford's fine pair, Paul Wiggin and John Marshall. They throw plenty of linemen at you.

UCLA is bigger and its defensive line excels.

Michigan State has more depth.

In Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BASKETBALL
NEW YORK — San Francisco won its 36th straight, crushing UCLA, 70-53, in the final of the ECAC Holiday Festival.

TRACK
MIAMI — Wes Santee ran the mile in 4:06.3 to easily defeat Joe LaPiere in Orange Bowl meet.

TENNIS
NEW ORLEANS — Top-seeded Fie Seixas beat Gardner Mulloy 3-6, 6-4 and Dick Savitt ousted Tom Brown 6-3, 5-7, 6-4 in the semifinals of the Sugar Bowl tournament.

BROOKLINE, Mass. — Nancy O'Connell won all four girls' in four titles, capturing the younger and older girls' singles and doubles.

By ANDY GUSTAFSON
Miami Coach

It shapes up as power versus finesse in the Sugar Bowl off what Miami ran into when the Hurricanes opposed Pittsburgh and Georgia Tech.

Georgia Tech 14, Miami 6
Pittsburgh 7, Miami 21

Pitt is the power team. It has the stronger line, and is particularly better at the ends. John Pa-luck and Joe Walton are a couple of 220-pound flankers who stand right in the way of the Engineers' greatest asset, more team speed and the threat to the outside.

Georgia Tech has the edge in backfield talent with scooters like George Volkert, Jimmy Thompson, Paul Rothenberry and Stan Flowers featured in the wide sweeps that develop from the flankers. Bobby Dodd features with his split T. Wade Mitchell is an accomplished quarterback of three years' experience, although he's only a junior, with the size to do just as good a job on defense. Tippy Vann is a valuable standby. Tech can hurt you with passing. Pitt is playing the split T for the first time under Johnny Michelson, likes to grind it out along the ground.

Andy Gustafson

The line is big, the type to push you around and make way for typically hard runners such as full-backs Tommy Jenkins and Bobby Griker and halfback Lou Cimarroni.

Their quarterbacks, Pete Neft and Corty Salaverra, do a good job on the option, the bread and butter of the orthodox split T. Neft is the solid type while the unpredictable Salaverra can break up a game.

By DON FAUROT
Missouri Coach

Whichever team gets the best quarterbacking should prevail in the Orange Bowl game between Oklahoma and Maryland.

Maryland 13, Missouri 12
Oklahoma 20, Missouri 0

Both stay pretty much with a standard split or sliding T, using flankers and floaters sparingly. My impressions (for what they may be worth):

Oklahoma—one of the best if not the finest Sooner squads Bud Wilkinson has produced. . . . tremendous team speed. . . . more offensive versatility than Maryland because of deeper backfield talent, more backs capable of breaking a game wide open with long runs—and Tommy McDonald at left half-back could be the difference. . . . Sooner line, sparked by center Jerry Tubbs, guard Cecil Morris and tackle Ed Gray very fast and mobile. . . . big weapon in Oklahoma attack this year is the running pass, thrown by halfbacks McDonald and Bobby Burris.

By JACK MITCHELL
Arkansas Coach

Mississippi whipped Arkansas soundly and physically with superior blocking and tackling.

Noteworthy? Well, we had thought Arkansas might win if we could stop their home run pass.

Tex. Christian 26, Arkansas 7
Mississippi 17, Arkansas 7

Offensively, the Rebels hurt us most with their quarterback roll-out developing into an option run or pass by Eagle Day or John Blackall. Fullback-Paise Cothren, a fine kicker, is an effective field goal kicker from 30 to 40 yards. They favor the 5-4-2 defense with very fine tackle play by Dick Weiss, Dick Goehle and Billy Yelverton. Their defensive quarterback is smart and don't challenge that pass defense too often. Their linemen waste no time getting off the mark. Ole Miss' blocking is sharp, its depth adequate. The Rebs are alert with good balance between running and passing. Against Texas, Christian in the Cotton Bowl, they'll run into a powerful running game. Containing Jim Swink for 60 minutes is like keeping a hold on a greased porker. He's one of the best. The Horned Frog backs do an exceptional job faking.

Don Faurot

You can't concentrate emphatically on their ground attack, because they have a very adequate passer in Chuck Curtis, who completed better than 50 per cent. Texas Christian coaches had Arkansas scouted to a split T. Hugh Pitts, their All-America center, is tough to fake out of position, and equally strong against passing and running. Like Ole Miss, the Horned Frogs lean to a 5-4-2 defense and cover very well against passing.

TROUBLES MULTIPLIED

Dons Rock UCLA, Win 36th Straight

By PETE PEDERSEN
The Associated Press

San Francisco is the type of basketball team that sports writers admire. The Dons make the experts look good.

Sports folks have consistently voted San Francisco tops in the Associated Press collegiate rankings this season. The Golden Gate justified the tribute by sweeping the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference Holiday Festival tournament at Madison Square Garden last night, crushing UCLA 70-53.

Elsewhere, however, top-rated teams fared only so-so in the recent play. Utah, rated No. 7, fell before Notre Dame in the finals of the Sugar Bowl tournament 70-55. Southern Methodist handed Rice, No. 17, its first defeat of the year as the Mustangs got an overtime 76-73 thriller and the championship of the Southwest Conference tournament.

But form held true in the Winter Invitational tournament at College Park, Md., when George Washington, ranked 12th, won the championship from No. 16 Michigan State 85-82.

North Carolina spoiled eighth-place Duke's unbeaten record with a 76-64 triumph in the semifinals of the Dixie Classic at Raleigh, N.C. that set the stage for the Tar Heels' meeting with third-ranked N.C. State in the classic finale today.

N.C. State moved into the finals at the expense of Wake Forest, 70-56.

UNRANKED
Unranked teams stole the spotlight in other sections of the country as the annual holiday tournament frenzy neared an end. West Virginia 35, 47 free throws in the drubbing Miami (Fla.) 83-78 in the finals of the Orange Bowl's inaugural tournament. In Kansas City, little Gary Thompson provided the big points as Iowa State won its first Big 7 Conference tournament crown with a 67-56 victory over Kansas.

The nation's televiewers watched the final half of the Garden market event. All-America Bill Russell and Co. gave the viewers and 16,357 paying customers plenty to gape at as they breezed past the Uclans with ease. The victory, San Francisco's 36th straight, left the Dons only three short of the all-time college mark of 39 consecutive triumphs posted by Long Island U. in 1935-37 and equaled by Seton Hall in 1939-41.

Notre Dame's Sugar Bowl title was its second straight. Key man in the Irish surprise was forward John Smith who netted 27 points. Utah's hopes sagged when center John Bunte fouled out with more than 15 minutes remaining.

OVERTIME
Big Jim Kebs was the hero for SMU when he tallied three quick points in the overtime period to give the Mustangs victory. Rice, led by 6-10 Temple Tucker, had surged from behind to erase a 7-point SMU lead in the final minutes and gain a 67-67 tie.

Joe Holup set the All-America teams booming with a 31-point performance for GW's colonials in the Winter Invitational. Holup was named to all-tournament team along with George Klein of GW, Duane Peterson and Hoops McCoy of Michigan State and Bob Kessler of Maryland.

North Carolina thrilled a crowd of 12,400 in Reynolds Coliseum by surrounding a 16-point halftime deficit. The loss was Duke's first in eight starts.

The second annual Richmond Invitational went to Cincinnati's Bearcats, 89-60 victors over Richmond. Cincinnati spurred to a 21-point blitz at halftime.

Washington and Lee faces

Evansville, Ind., today in the finals of the All-American City Evansville stunned previously unbeaten Florida, 85-69, in last night's semifinals. The Generals kept pace perfect record, 88-78.

The undefeated Dutchmen of Hofstra notched their 11th victory, beating Muhlenberg, 91-78, in the finals of the winner's annual tournament. Hofstra's 6-6 center, Bill Thibben, tallied 34 points for a tournament record of 90 points in three games.

The New England tournament title went to Connecticut for the second time in three years when the Uconn outclassed host Colby, 79-71, at Waterville, Maine.

At Fayetteville, W.Va., Marshall eased past Denver, 79-78, to win the Holiday tourney crown.

The pre-tourney favorite, Western Illinois, came through at Omaha to win the NAIA "cup-off" championship with an 83-72 victory over Gustavus Adolphus. The Midwest Collegiate tourney title went to Indiana State's Sycamores, 74-73 victors over the Quantico Marines.

In non-tournament games, fifth-ranked Iowa continued to fade in losing to California's Golden Bears at Berkeley, 70-45. Other tourists fared poorly as host Stan-ford tripped Wisconsin, 65-53. Butler downed Princeton 89-70, and Bradley bounced Dartmouth, 80-74.

Mack Miller Ski Champ

SPOUT SPRINGS, Ore. — Zipping over the course in 64 minutes, 33 seconds, Mack Miller, of McCall, Idaho, outran the field Friday to win the National cross-country ski championship and a possible berth on the U.S. winter Olympics team.

Eighteen seconds behind Miller was Larry Damon of Burlington, Vt., and another probable winner of one of the three spots on the cross-country Olympic team.

Not placed in the standings because he was not eligible to win the national title but third in Norwegian time was Erik Berggren. Norwegian exchange student at the University of Idaho. Only U.S. citizens are eligible for the national title.

No one competed for the U.S. Open title because it was found the cup is restricted to professionals and none skied.

The first competitor to come in who was not among those seeking a berth on the Olympic team was Leo Halmen, Tacoma, who was 16th.

Class B competition was won by Alf Vincette, Highland Falls, N.Y. Vincette, although a member of the Olympic contingent and a possible berth winner, ran in the lower classification because he had not previously been entered in national competition. His time was 69:51.

He was followed by Steve Wilcox, Duluth, Minn., in 74:49; Matt Liskane, Seattle, 78:13; and Miles Lodmell, Walla Walla, 85:06.

L & C Tops Raiders

PORTLAND — Lewis and Clark with Joe Bourin leading the way, stormed to an easy, noncon-tinence basketball victory over Southern Oregon's Red Raiders Friday night, 98-72. Bourin was the game's high point man with 22.

Recruiting Costs 'Bama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — The University of Alabama has been fined $1,000 for illegal recruiting of athletes in violation of the Southeastern Conference grand-stand rule.

The fine was announced Friday by SEC Commissioner B. E. Moore, and it followed closely on the heels of a $1,000 fine against Auburn on similar charges.

Moore said Alabama was fined because a Hueytown, Ala., high school football star voluntarily stated to his office that a group of four Alabama alumni and friends, or supporters, gave him a suit of clothes, an overcoat, a television set and $28.40 in cash.

The player was Richard Rush, Hueytown quarterback. Moore said that since Rush already had signed an athletic scholarship with Auburn, the question of his eligibility was not raised.

Dr. O. C. Carmichael, university president, said "the university is humiliated at the fact that some of our friends and supporters have violated regulations. We hope that this experience will deter others from engaging in such practices in the future."
