

BASIN BRIEFS

Camp Fire Meeting — The South Klamath District Camp Fire Girls Leaders Association will meet at 10 a. m. Thursday at the Mardun Peltie residence, 234 Summer Lane. Demonstrations of decorations and flowers for dads and daughters banquets are planned.

To Portland — Mrs. Donald Evans, New Pine Creek, president of the Lake County PTA Council, will attend a legislative workshop on January 4 and a board of managers meeting of the Oregon Congress of PTA at the Portland PTA office on January 5. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Eldred Hanson, Klamath Falls, junior vice president of this region.

Left Out — The name of Gienger's store in Chiloquin was inadvertently left out of the list of sponsors of the free merchants' show at the Chiloquin theater. The list was published Friday.

William Wilson — of Alturas, died December 28 at the Modoc Medical Center in Alturas.

A Son — weighing 7 lbs. 10 oz. was born December 30 at the Modoc Medical Center, Alturas. To Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cervantes of Alturas.

Bieber — Drs. James and Audrey Mertz of Bieber are parents of a baby girl weighing 5 lbs. 14 1/2 oz. born December 30 at 7:50 a. m. at the Modoc Medical Center in Alturas.

Anyone — knowing the whereabouts of Donna Thompson, wife of the late Ira Thompson, Alturas, is asked to get in touch with the Modoc County sheriff's office, phone 451, or George Royall, phone 2101, Alturas.

A Special Meeting — of Prosperity Social Club, Malm OES, will be held Thursday, January 5, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Mervyn Wilde to plan the guinea feed.

Malm — The American Legion Auxiliary will hold its January meeting Wednesday evening at 7 p. m. to dispose of business in time to hear Sgt. James B. Shrum speak on civil defense and show films. The program will start at 8:30 p. m. with all organizations invited. There will be refreshments, according to Hazel Kalina, president.

David Evenson — arrived in Malm December 23 to spend Christmas with his sisters, Mrs. Alice Dokken and Mrs. Ruth Rick and their families. A former employe of Bank of America in Tulelake, he is with Bank of America in Japan where he has signed up for another three years. It is his first trip back in three years.

Guests — for the weekend at the home of Mrs. Howard Schmidt, Bonanza, were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Womack and David Wayne of Pórtola, California.

Returned — Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schmor and sons returned to Bonanza Friday after spending the holidays with her parents in Eugene.

J. A. Barratt — has returned to Bonanza after spending Christmas with his daughter at Bend.

Patsy Tofell — leaves Bonanza today to return to training at St. Patrick's Hospital at Missoula, Montana, after Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tofell.

Mrs. O. C. Wells — of Tulelake is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Peppie at Bonanza.

The Ben Norks — had as guests Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Oral Wagner of Los Angeles and their son, Charlie Wagner and daughter, Mrs. Joe Nork of Klamath Falls.

Flood Damage — More than 600 acres of the Wolf ranch on Sprague are still flooded as a result of last week's high water. For several days the water covered the Sprague River Highway both in the ranch area and just above Lone Pine near one of the Giesinger ranch hay sheds, near Chiloquin.

A Third Fire — in Chiloquin in two days was extinguished without having to call the fire department when Mr. and Mrs. Orville Weddle discovered and put out a fire Thursday.

Chiloquin — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ravizza, Sally and Mike spent Christmas Day in Bend with Susan at St. Charles Memorial Hospital. Susan, injured recently in an automobile crash, will undergo surgery January 4 after two weeks with her right leg in traction. It is hoped she can be moved either to Klamath Falls or home in 10 days. She will be unable to return to the University of Oregon until the spring term.

Navy Leave — Morrilee Griffin, formerly of Chiloquin, has been there visiting friends. He returns to duty in Rhode Island mid-January.

Klamath Agency — Twila Knight-pipe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Knightpipe, has a special Christmas vacation at home from Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kansas, where she is a senior.

Moves — Mrs. Dee (Todd) Deffenbacher and daughter Denise left last week for Waleska, Georgia, to make their home. Her husband was killed in a Labor Day logging accident and she has sold their local property. They were accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Catherine Brown, who has been at Chiloquin during the fall months while on leave of absence from her post as dietitian in a college in Georgia.

From Portland — The Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Buck were Christmas week guests of their daughters and their families, the Forest Freids of Chiloquin and the Roy Giesingers of Sprague River. They left Tuesday to return to Pleasant Home, a Portland suburb, where the Rev. Buck is pastor of the Methodist church.

Dairy — Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Thew and family left Wednesday for their home at La Mesa, California, after Christmas here and in Sprague River and Lakeview.

Christmas — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jones of Dairy spent Christmas at Grants Pass with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones.
