Worden Dies In Portland

A member of a former well-known Klamath Falls family, Robert Charles Worden, 47, died at the family home in Portland on New Year's Day. He was a nephew of Mrs. Burge Mason Sr., of this city. Death followed a heart attack.

Worden community, adjacent to the city of Klamath Falls, was named for Worden's father, Will Worden, former Klamath County judge. His grandfather, also a resident of this county, was Major Charles E. Worden. Robert Worden was president of the Lincoln Memorial Park, Portland, for six years and was a director of the Western Cemetery alliance and a past president of the Oregon Interment Association. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice Worden, a son, Ray, and three daughters, Nancy and Susan Worden, all of Portland and Mrs. Joan Scherizer, New York.

Youths Still Must Face Military Duty

WASHINGTON (UP) — About 1,200,000 youths will come of military age this year. What are their chances of seeing military service? During the year only about 1 out of 4 of this "new crop" will go into regular or reserve units. But the chances are about 7 out of 9 that the qualified youths will be put in uniform sometime before they reach age 29 — either voluntarily or involuntarily. Such odds do not jibe with the popular impression. With draft calls falling to the lowest level since the start of the Korean War, many youths seem to have come to the conclusion that the odds are in favor of escaping military service altogether. Here is how the Defense Department experts figure the odds by placing the number of men needed by the military during the year versus the number qualified for military service: During the coming year, about 1,200,000 youths will turn 18 1/2 — the military draft age. Of this group about 240,000 will be disqualified for military service on physical, mental or moral grounds. Odds Catch Up That leaves 960,000 fit and ready for military duty. And during the coming year the military expects to take in 700,000 persons from civilian life — either through draft or enlistment — to meet their manpower needs. Thus the 7 in 9 odds. It is true that most of the 700,000 to be taken in this year will come from older age groups. But the odds will catch up with the new crop in future years. Defense manpower experts conceded that the probability is that the 18 1/2 year old will not be drafted immediately. Draft boards now are inducting men at an average age of between 22 and 23, and in some states the age has gone up over 24. With the present odds that a youth will see military service,

Travis Free Of Charges

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (UP)—No charges will be pressed against song writer Merle Travis, 37, who climaxed an all-night drinking spree yesterday by slugging his wife with a pistol and barricading himself in his San Fernando Valley home for more than 90 minutes. Travis, who will earn an estimated $75,000 from his current song hit "Sixteen Tons," said he "didn't remember a thing" after 30 policemen armed with rifles, shotguns and tear gas stormed his modest bungalow. Police said the husky composer, dressed in pajamas and a robe, was drunk when they found him unarmed in his living room. After a short snooze at the Van Nuys jail, he was released when his wife Bettie, 31, refused to sign a wife-beating complaint. "I love him very much," she said. "He's really a very nice guy, but he was drinking." Mrs. Travis said her husband began drinking Monday night after a television appearance. In the morning she said she found him fondling a bottle of scotch and a Luger automatic. When she threw the cartridge clip into the back yard, she said, he hit her with the pistol. She was treated later for a one-inch gash behind her ear. As she herded her two sons by a previous marriage, Mike, 8, and Dennis, 10, to a neighbor's, Mrs. Travis said her husband threatened: "If anybody shows up I'm going to shoot them." But police, who kept a tense vigil outside the house, said Travis surrendered meekly when a raiding party led by Police Lt. Ernest Johnson finally knocked on the door. Travis told officers all he needed was sleep and added: "You don't do such things as shoot people. I'm the happiest guy in the world."

THIS EVIDENCE OF VANDALISM was found by the owners of several cabins at Rocky Point last week. The cabins had doors broken, windows smashed out and dishes and food scattered around the rooms. The Oregon State Police are investigating the wave of vandalism. The Rocky Point Resort and a store were also broken into by the vandals.

McKay Has No Intention Of Leaving

WASHINGTON (UP)—Interior Secretary Douglas McKay said today he has no intention of resigning during President Eisenhower's current term. Speculation that he might resign started when McKay said in Honolulu Dec. 20 that he would like to retire and take it easy in places like his home state of Oregon and Hawaii. "I was appointed by President Eisenhower to serve at his pleasure," McKay said in an interview, "and I certainly will continue to do that through his term." But McKay would not be pinned down on whether he would continue in his post if Mr. Eisenhower were to be reelected and asked him to serve again. He made it clear without stating his position in so many words that that would be a question to be answered by the White House. "We'll cross that bridge when we come to it," he said. The former Oregon governor also said he is not perturbed by reports that Democratic leaders will demand his resignation because of timber, wildlife, water resources and other policies the interior department has followed under his administration. He has been accused of following a "giveaway" policy with public resources. "When I was governor somebody was always mad at me," McKay said. "I just go down the line and do what I think is best and forget it." Reaching for his brief case, he pulled out a typewritten quotation by Lincoln and handed it to a reporter. The opening line read: "If I were to try to read, much less answer, all the attacks made on me, this shop might as well be closed for any other business." McKay said he did not seek his appointment as interior secretary in the first place. "But when I asked my wife what shall I do?" she replied, "No one can refuse President Eisenhower."

It looks high priced

...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced-looking Chevrolet models.

Who wouldn't mistake this handsome new Chevrolet for a high-priced car! It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new full-width grille. Even the details would do credit to an expensive car . . . like the sleek, high-fashion taillights (the left one conceals the gas cap!). But, even beyond the costly appearance of its Fisher Body, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. You'll see what we mean when you take one out on the highway. You'll feel the added security of Chevrolet's nailed-down stability. You'll thrill at the way it wheels around tight turns—as footsure as a cat on a carpet! When you need a quick sprint for safer passing — you've got it! V8 horsepower now ranges all the way up to 205. All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters. Besides, you get safety door latches in all models. You can also have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost. There's a new Chevrolet just made for you to have fun with! So come on in and highway-test it.
