came here from Portland three years ago—where he held a similar position with the Dock Commission. After the picture was taken, an unscheduled much-earlier-than-planned flight of the stork brought a new sister to George Walter—she was born at 8:17 a.m., January 3, at Klamath Valley Hospital. The Barch's had expected another son in about two weeks—so there was a slight delay in deciding on the new daughter's name—Diane Elizabeth. —Photo by Kettler
