

Teens Drive Chairman To Be Named

A Klamath Union High School student will be named Wednesday as county chairman of the Teens Against Polio division of the March of Dimes drive this year, announced Jay Kroksh, campaign chairman, today.

The teen-age chairman will be named by the presidents of the classes and the leaders of other school organizations. The candidates for the post are Kenny Ostrum, Carolyn Nancarrow, Wally Wonder, Carol Larson and Nancy Clark. The chairman will head all the county-wide teen-age polio drive activities for the remainder of the month-long drive.

The first event planned by the teen-agers is a dance on January 21 at the Klamath Falls Armory. Music will be by the Starlighters dance band with dancing from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. The dance is for adults and teen-agers. All proceeds from the dance will be given to the March of Dimes anti-polio campaign fund.

The presidents of the classes in all the county high schools will be in charge of the ticket sales in their respective classes. The high school that sells the most tickets per capita will be the winner of the sale. The winning school will have the privilege of naming a queen for the dance. She will be crowned by the teen-age chairman at the dance. The school that wins will also name the Teens Against Polio chairman for next year's drive. This chairman will compete for the statewide chairmanship.

The Teens Against Polio events will include a Blue Crutch Day, Polio Peanut Sale, Tallent Show and a Toll Bridge.

Tom Perkins, permanent chairman of the Klamath County Chapter, National Polio Foundation, said, "Last year the students of Klamath Union High School did a splendid job. This year the Teens Against Polio has been expanded to include all the high schools of the county."

Former Klamath Resident Killed

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Livingston, 1918 Erie Street, have received word of the death of George G. Johnson, in Oakland on December 23. The information on his death was sent by his daughter, Jessie Barbara McKibben.

Mr. Johnson, who was about 77 years old, was fatally injured when struck by an automobile as he crossed an Oakland street. He made his home with his daughter at 2874 - 35th Avenue.

He was a former resident of Klamath Falls and for many years was head sawyer for the Ewauna Box Company.

IN HOSPITAL

Jefferson Yohn, journalism instructor at Klamath Union High School, was a patient Saturday in Hillside Hospital. Attendants said he was suffering a severe attack of influenza.

POLIO ISN'T LICKED YET!

FILL AND MAIL YOUR MARCH OF DIMES CARD TODAY!

POLIO ISN'T LICKED YET is the theme of this year's March of Dimes drive. These polio contributor's cards, or similar cards, have been mailed to all homes of Klamath County. Jay Kroksh, March of Dimes chairman, urged all residents of the county who plan to contribute to mail their cards to the headquarters as shown on the cards.

Dimes Drive Funds Given

Jay Kroksh, campaign chairman for this year's March of Dimes, announced today that the following firms and individuals have contributed to the anti-polio campaign by returning the advance gifts letters to the drive headquarters.

The contributors are Mrs. J. A. Kincaid, Frank Bogatay, L. Mueller, Henry Perkins, East Side Electric, Ruby Ranker, Dr. Frank Johnson, Brady Narey (The Office) and the Oregon State Nurses Association.

The polio drive chief today said, "The fight against polio is not over. If you have received your advance gift letter and plan to contribute but have overlooked mailing your aid to the anti-polio fund, please mail it today."

Stove Blamed For House Fire

A flooded oil stove at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Coley, 2664 Eberlein, resulted in the only fire call reported by the Klamath Falls Fire Department in the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. Saturday.

It was reported at 11:40 p.m. Friday. There was no damage.

Firemen were also called to wash down gasoline spilled on the highway in the vicinity of Gino's Drive in on East Main at South Sixth Streets at about 10:51 p.m. Friday.

Flood Aid Funds Voted By Lodge

WEED - Financial aid to the flood relief for the Northern California areas was voted by the members of the Atlanta Rebekah Lodge at the last meeting in December. Funds from the lodge and the Olive Branch and the Past Noble Grand's clubs were given through the Red Cross to aid the relief program.

Mrs. Francine Flook, noble grand, presided at the last official meeting of the year preceding the installation of new officers January 7.

Dear Folks....

According to the left-hand column on the front page of this journal, this is 1956... "the year of the political big wind." All of which reminds me of a story I picked up back on the Emporia Gazette.

William Allen White, the late great Kansas editor and a devout Republican, attended the Democratic national convention in 1928. The presiding senator spied him and called on White to open the session with a prayer.

"No," White replied. "I'd better not. I don't want God to know I'm here."

You know, Christmas isn't the only time it is appropriate to send greeting cards. Heck no, there's birthdays, anniversaries, births, graduation and dozens of other events. And WOOD'S DRUG STORE in the Medical Dental building has hundreds of American greeting cards on display. There's every kind of card you can think of...one for every occasion and mood. Each American greeting card shows the fine quality craftsmanship that has made them a favorite for years.

Also at WOOD'S DRUG STORE you'll find a complete line of stationery...stationery that will match your personality. You will find boxes of plain fine-quality linen paper, fancy designs, a box with a snappy fish design for the sportsman, a box showing dozens of teenage activities. Of course WOOD'S have a large stock of special airmail stationery, too.

Everybody knows that you get fast, efficient prescription service at WOOD'S DRUG STORE, so I won't have to mention that.

Visited Klamath Falls newest and finest dining spot this week...BING'S, in the Town and Country Shopping Center. It's easy to see why BING'S is becoming Klamath's most popular eating place after being open only a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bingham, the owners, have a super-efficient staff to serve you in new, luxurious surroundings.

But the real treat is when you taste the food. Those Charcoal broiled steaks, fine family dinners, prime rib roast and special chicken dinners are delicious enough to make even the most particular dinerout come back again and again. It's worth a lot more than the price of the meal just to see the inside of BING'S beautiful new showplace. That's at the Town and Country Shopping Center, where there's plenty of parking.

Here's another little story that comes out of Kansas that might be worth passing on: Wife--John, I'm ashamed of the way we live. Mother pays our rent. Father pays for our car and its upkeep. Aunt Martha buys our clothes. My sister sends us money for food. I don't like to complain, but I'm sorry we can't do better than that."

Husband--"You should be. You've got two uncles that don't send us a dime."

Down at ARBUCKLE'S MODEL SHOE STORE, 717 Main, they are holding the Klamath Basin's greatest Shoe Sale. Men's, Children's and women's...every shoe in the entire stock is now on sale during this terrific value-giving event! But you don't have to believe me...just look at these prices:

Theme Hose, reg. 1.35 a pair, now only 50¢. Kid's shoes, were 7.95, now only $4. Women's slippers, values to 6.95, now only $3. Women's shoes, values to 14.95 and 24.95 now reduced to $7 and $9. Men's shoes, values to 16.95 and 24.95 now only $7 and $9. And those white rubber boots with the fur tops the women like so well are reduced to $5.45. It's the Klamath Basin's greatest Shoe Sale now going on at ARBUCKLE'S MODEL SHOE STORE, 717 Main.

"When's Sana Cuz coming again?" That's the question that Donnie has been putting to us since December 26. It's hard to tell a 3-year-old that Santa won't come for another year...but we still have the excuse that "you haven't played with all the toys he brought you this year."

Sincerely,
Jim
