

Big Jim Tatum Takes Over At North Carolina

By BOB SELLING
United Press Sports Writer
COLLEGE PARK, Md. (UP)—Big Jim Tatum, the drawing-defensive genius who molded a gridiron dynasty at Maryland, today took on the job of re-building North Carolina's football fortunes.

A few hours after announcing his resignation as the Terrapins' head coach, Tatum flew to Los Angeles where he indicated one of his main tasks was to start looking for coaching assistants in his new post.

Tatum made it clear that he would like to take his current assistants at Maryland to Chapel Hill with him — Line Coach Bob Ward, Backfield Coach Tommy Mott, Assistant Coach Emmett Check, End Coach Ed Kenler and Chief Scout Eddie Teague. But he also said "they may want to stay at Maryland and certainly Maryland should have a chance to retain them."

Tatum accepted North Carolina's offer of a reported five-year contract at $15,000 a year plus other inducements that would top his current annual salary of approximately $17,000. Some sources claimed the North Carolina agreement is for 10 years but Tatum refused to comment on this except to say "ten years is a long time."

San Francisco, Dayton At Head On Winner List

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Francisco and Dayton, the mighty and the high among the nation's college basketball teams, should have little trouble extending their unbeaten streaks this week.

But don't bet on it.

Particularly after the hectic action over the weekend, when four of the top 10 teams — including second-ranked North Carolina State — were beaten. The Wolfpack, after 23 straight successes, dropped a 68-58 decision to Duke.

If top-rated San Francisco wins both its games this week it will equal the collegiate record for consecutive victories — 29.

The Dons play Santa Clara tomorrow and Fresno State Friday. Neither is expected to spring the big surprise, but Santa Clara has shown improvement in winning its last three games.

Dayton's tall Flyers, led by seven-foot center Bill Uhl, were easy winners over Iowa State 83-64. They'll take their 11-0 state title at Buffalo's Memorial Auditorium Saturday night against Canisius. The standings of the Big Ten are likely to be scrambled tonight.

Boxing Managers Guild Tosses In Sponge; New York Commission Wins

NEW YORK (UP)—Its back broken, its morale shattered, the once-defiant New York Boxing Managers Guild was ready today to surrender unconditionally to the State Athletic Commission.

The guild's board of governors scheduled a meeting late today, and one informant told the Associated Press the organization would be voted out of existence.

Just four days ago the guild voted 86-0 to defy Julius Helfand, chairman of the State Athletic Commission, who ordered the guild to dissolve by Jan. 16 because he alleged some of the pilots were consorting with criminals.

But the swift-moving developments that followed the guild's vote led to an abrupt turnaround. They included:

1. The International Boxing Club headed by Jim Norris, the biggest promoter in the country, aligning itself behind Helfand.

2. The refusal of the Maryland state commission to sanction bouts by the London Sporting Club, which has been operating at St. Nicholas Arena here.

3. The resignation of Al Weill, manager of heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano, from the guild.

Said one guild member: "Most of us were badly advised when we were told to refuse to testify at the recent hearings Helfand conducted. Everyone knows that the International Boxing Guild (the parent body to the New York local) ran things. But we needed it for the fine things it did in negotiating television and other contracts."

"We will ask Helfand to form an organization acceptable to him. Certainly if our members are 'clean' he cannot object."

Bobby Gleason, a manager of heavyweight Nino Valdes, said he would try to revive the old "Ring Board of Trade," which would act as a managers' association.

Opinions Differ As To Baseball Hall Of Fame; Length Of Service Eyed

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (UP)—The baseball writers are balloting today on candidates for the Hall of Fame and there is a sharp division of opinion in the typewriter ranks as to whether many more old timers deserve the honor or whether it has become a popularity contest.

One group contends that the Hall of Fame is being cheapened by the addition of players who did not have the long and distinguished careers of such as Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Cy Young, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Walter Johnson and others of their dandy and durable ilk.

"The other faction holds that anybody who made a distinguished contribution, regardless of length of service in the game, should be voted in. This would include such as, for example, Bill Wambagans, who made the only triple play in World Series history."

This corner has to go with the latter contingent.

It is my feeling that a Hall of Fame is to honor famous players. It doesn't rule that the fame must be earned over a long period of say 20 or even 10 years. If a pitcher lasted only one season, but happened to win the unheard-of modern total of 40 games, and never pitched again, certainly he should be given a niche at Cooperstown.

Ty Cobb recently ventured, with a great deal of caution, that "there should be some dividing line."

His pitch is that the old time ball player performed over a greater span of years and compiled dazzling statistics in a dead era. But it should be admitted that the pace is much swifter today, the overall pitching is better and every facet of the game has been improved.

It is the feeling here that deserving of a spot are such players as Hank Greenberg, Hack Wilson, Lefty Gomez, Tony Lazzeri, Red Ruffing, Zack Wheat, Luke Appling, Earl Combs and Mule Haas, and rounding out my ballot is Wambagans, who, lucky or not, did something that nobody has done before or since.

Those bemoaning the "popularity contest" have the feeling that all the really famous already are in the Hall of Fame and that those who will follow are simply voted in automatically as the best of what is left.

Nor do they seem to realize that, as the years progress, there will be a host of new candidates.

Five active players, at least, are sure shot candidates five years after they wind up their careers. They are Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Bob Feller, Robin Roberts and Jackie Robinson.

I also have to go for Roy Campanella, whether he lasts "ten years" or not, because he's the best catcher I ever saw—and I watched Bill Dickey. You also can make a case for such as Yogi Berra, Allied Reynolds, Phil Rizzuto, Peevée Reese, Marty Marion and Ralph Kiner, plus a lot of others.

You can bet that this one ballot, at least, will never go in completely blank.

Al Lightner Effigy Hanged At Berkeley

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—Referee Al Lightner was hanged in effigy Sunday at the University of California where he forfeited a basketball game to Southern Cal after throwing objects hit him.

The official, who is sports editor of the Oregon Statesman at Salem, said: "I was thinking not only of my personal safety but also of the players on the floor who might also have been hit or might have stepped on one of those pennies, slipped, fallen and broken a leg."

After a coin hit him in the right eye, he said, he had an announcer warn rooters. He forfeited the game when he was hit on the neck.

Southern Cal was ahead, 77-64, when the game stopped with 3 minutes to go.

It was not determined whether the coins were thrown by students.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Portland State apparently has no intention of giving up the Oregon Collegiate Conference basketball crown it won last year.

The Portlanders wallowed Oregon Tech twice over the weekend, and made free use of reserves in doing it. The Saturday night margin was 95-67 and Fletcher came off the bench and led the victory with 24 points.

He had to yield top honors, however, to Oregon Tech's surprise find, center Charley Bogle, who scored 25 points to lead his team again. The games were played at Portland.

Eastern Oregon, also playing at home, kept pace by downing Southern Oregon twice, although the Saturday night game was close at times.

Eastern Oregon won out, 95-90, with center John Reinking tossing in 27 points and Lowell Kolbaba and Ted Schadewitz scoring 24 each.

In this one, too, high point honors went to a player on a losing team. Lloyd Hoffine of Southern Oregon scored 33. Teammate Bill Hollingsworth added 23.

Eastern Oregon trailed only in the opening minutes. By halftime the lead was 48-40.

Oregon College of Education, which lost its pair of weekend games at Seattle Pacific, will get into conference play Tuesday, entertaining Portland State at 7 p.m.

Devlin Scores New Ski Jump Record

SOUTH COLTON, N.Y. (UP)—Art Devlin, an old hand at ski jump records, soared to another Sunday.

The senior member of the U.S. Olympic ski-jump team set a competitive record for the 55-meter hill in St. Lawrence University's Ski Bowl with a leap of 184 feet.

Devlin also made another jump of 182 feet, equalling the old competitive mark set by Art Tinkle four years ago.

Devlin's jumps were in a special event that climaxed the fourth annual St. Lawrence Invitation ski meet.

Bruins Leading In PCC Hoop Scramble, But Field Still Open For Anybody

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The UCLA Bruins are out in front in the Pacific Coast Conference basketball scramble, but the field still is anybody's race.

The Bruins made it two straight over a young Idaho team, 78-61, Saturday night while other PCC squads wound up season-opening two-game stands with splits.

The Washington Huskies, 59-40 victors over Stanford Friday night, went down, 58-46, Saturday night. Oregon State beat Washington State, 59-40, in their opener, but lost the finale, 52-58, California and Southern California also split. The Bears won the first game, 52-51, but the second was declared forfeited and awarded to the Trojans when referee Al Lightner called the game with 3:15 remaining after someone threw coins onto the floor. Southern California was a shoo-in, 77-64, at the time, and the score stands.

Oregon beat Portland University, 67-61, in a nonconference game. The schedule for this week sends UCLA to Washington State, Idaho to Stanford, California to Oregon and Oregon State to Southern California.

Washington and Stanford saved all their energy for the second half at Seattle Saturday night. Both teams used tight defenses and Washington was leading 21-18 at the intermission. Stanford began to connect at the start of the second half. The teams traded the lead four times and the score was tied

Hula Bowl Sees Pros Triumph

HONOLULU (UP)—The pros say they had fun and the college boys say they got some schooling—and the final score of Sunday's 10th annual Hula Bowl football game bears them out.

The 11 pros, playing for the Hawaii All-Stars, swamped the college All-Star squad, 51-20, before 24,000 in Honolulu Stadium.

San Francisco 49er quarterback Y. A. Title, who had as good a time as anyone tossing six touchdown passes, summed up for the pros:

"It was lots of fun. But it's not this easy at Kezar Stadium," the 49er's home ground.

Title and the other businessmen gave the impression of old grads having fun at a class reunion.

Norm Masters, Michigan State tackle, voiced the dressing room views of a number of the 17 mainland college stars:

"The pros were good. I learned a lot in that game."

"The lessons came thick and fast, not only from Title but from his 49er teammates Carroll Hardy and Hugh McElenny, the retiring Don Walker of the Detroit Lions and end Elroy Hirsch of the Los Angeles Rams."

Hirsch snared three touchdowns passes. Hardy caught two and went over a third time on a spectacular 97-yard kickoff reverse play with Sunday after finishing with a 68 and booted all seven extra points.

Mangrum In Finals Of Open

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Lloyd Mangrum, one of the great chip-down golfers of modern times, goes into the final round of the $30,000 Los Angeles Open tournament today looking like a shoo-in for victory.

Noted as one of the toughest fighters in the business, Mangrum has a five-stroke lead over the rest of the crowd — and the way he has been tearing the Rancho course apart, it isn't likely that anyone will catch him.

"I've lost only one tournament in my life when I led at the end of the third round," Mangrum said Sunday after finishing with a 68 to go with earlier rounds of 68 and 66 for a 200 total.

"That was the Western Open in Chicago some years ago and in that one I led by only one stroke."

While Tommy Bolt was fading to an even-par 71 Sunday after his scintillating 63 in the second round, Mangrum was the picture of perfection for the third straight day.

Tied for second place were Bolt and Jerry Barber, each with 205 totals. Bolt had started the day only two strokes behind Mangrum, but couldn't keep up the pace. Barber, on the other hand, gained by shooting a 67. In his collection of excellent shots was a 40-yard chip-in on the ninth green for an eagle-three.

They were about the only ones with a chance to catch the leader.
