Drivers Escape Crash Injuries

There were no injuries in a two-car accident which occurred at the intersection of Shasta Way and Arthur Street at about 7:15 a.m. Wednesday, Oregon State Police reported.

Involved were autos driven by Richard Lee Dick, 5311 Miller Street, and Dorsey D. Kammerer, 1767 Fargo Street.

Police said that Kammerer, westbound on Shasta Way, was attempting a left turn onto Arthur when he was overtaken by Dick, whose auto hit the left rear corner of Kammerer's auto.

Kammerer told police he saw Dick's auto coming, but was unable to dodge it.

City police reported that an auto driven by Charles D. Brown, 1742 Menlo Way, hit a fence at the residence of Mrs. O. T. Johnson, 807 Fulton Street, at about 11:10 p.m. Tuesday.

Brown said he turned into the driveway at the residence, thinking it was a cross street. When he saw the fence, he said, it was too late to avoid hitting it.

Peddicord Plans Innocent Plea

PORTLAND (AP)—Clarence Peddicord, the blind Portland accused of bombing a department store in an extortion attempt last year, will plead innocent because of insanity, his attorney said Wednesday.

Peddicord underwent psychiatric examination after he admitted to police that he had set off a bomb in the Meier and Frank department store in an effort to collect $50,000 from the store president.

KF School Boards Study Expanded Sports Program

The expanding interscholastic sports program, proposed plans for the new junior high school, traffic problems, coming dates in the school calendar and other business was taken up by the boards of Klamath Union High School (No. 2) and of the city elementary schools, (No. 1) at meetings of the two boards on January 9.

The high school board, with Joe Peak, director of physical education and health and head coaches of KUHS, began study of the problem and expenses posed by the anticipated expanding interscholastic sports program as student enrollment increases.

A request will be made to the city council traffic committee for permission for parallel parking on both sides of Monclair Street, back of the high school, to reduce the traffic problem created by the narrow thoroughfare.

Howard Ferrin, Klamath Falls architect submitted a tentative plan for the new junior high school plant at the Mount View site northeast of the city. A special meeting of the board of education will be called at an early date, to be attended by principals of the schools, for further consideration of the plans and a name for the new school.

Alternate plans for the Christmas vacation period of this year are being considered, with three proposals under study: (1) a two

Adult Women Classes Set

The winter and spring gym classes for adult women will start at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, January 12 and will continue for one hour each Thursday at YMCA headquarters until start of the summer vacation period.

The classes designed for physical exercises and conditioning of the body will be directed by Mrs. Dean Howell, teacher of ballet. The classes are open to all interested women who are invited to take advantage of the service offered and to become YMCA members.

Sacred Heart Notebook

Walking through the halls of SHS, you would notice a slight frown of worry deepening upon the foreheads of the students. What could be the cause of all this sudden weariness and worry, the wave of sickness comes over a few as they think back reviewing the last two months. What could all this mean! It's semester test time!

Tests will continue all week and report cards will be given out on January 19. Then, and only then will the feeling of worry be lifted from the shoulders of the students.

The Trojans fought a hard battle with the Panthers on Friday night but they couldn't get ahead. They lost with the mere margin of 40-44. On Saturday evening the boys returned home with the disappointing news of the big loss to the Tulelake Honkers 51-39. Tuesday evening the Malin Mustangs will venture onto the Trojans home floor to rustle a win, if possible.

Student council meeting was held Monday morning under the supervision of Sister Cecil, the student adviser, preparations and plans for the January study body meeting were discussed.

Pep Club members held their weekly meeting on Monday.

weeks vacation, which will delay the dismissal date for the summer vacation in the spring; (2) One week vacation, with return to classes on Monday, December 31, and one day for New Year's Day; (3) return to classes on January 2 after dismissal on December 21. Starting dates for vacation would be Friday, December 21 in the alternative proposals.

Christmas and New Years Day fall on Tuesday, during this school year. Graduation for the senior class of KUHS will be held on Tuesday, May 29, instead of Wednesday, since Memorial Day, May 30, falls on the usual day.

Lillian Redkey Kidd will replace the late Beatrice Kidd as teacher of the seventh grade at Roosevelt School; James Thornton, instructor in mathematics and government at Fremont Junior High School has been transferred to Klamath Union High School. He will be replaced at Fremont by Edward Myers, graduate of the University of Portland. Thornton replaces Helen Roper, resigned.

Lorene Vallancour, who has resigned, Thelma Elliott will assume the duties of payroll clerk for both districts 1 and 2, replacing Verla Lutz who will retire on February 1.

23 Years Ago Monday, January 9, 1933—Tentative plans for the DeMalay state convolve to be held in Klamath Falls on April 21 and 22, are formed, according to committees in charge, and weekly meetings are being held to complete preparations. Dr. M. E. Cooper is the head of the convolve committee, and with other committee heads will hold a meeting on Monday evening to discuss plans. Tuesday, January 10, 1933—Friends of Chet Langslet have received word from him written from Detroit, Mich., where he is spending a month with relatives and friends. He writes that winter sports are in full swing in the east, with lots of snow and cold weather. Langslet is connected with the Associated Oil company in Klamath Falls. Wednesday, January 11, 1933—The next regular meeting of the board of Union high school will be held Monday evening in the office of Wilson S. Wiley, clerk of the board. Routine business will be transacted and bills allowed, according to Wiley, and no special business is scheduled to come up for discussion. Thursday, January 12, 1933—One of the outstanding events of New Years day was the informal reception at the Murray home on Pacific Terrace, when Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murray and their son, Rodney, greeted about a hundred and twenty-five guests who called between the hours of five and eight o'clock. Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Richard M. Smith presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. John H. Houston and Mrs. Glen Kent cut ices. Friday, January 13, 1933—Mrs. Roy Liens entertained with an afternoon of bridge at her home on Grant street, Friday, when three tables were in play with score for high awarded to Mrs. T. C. Griggs and the consolation to Miss June Cunningham. Saturday, January 14, 1933—Mrs. Henri Conradi, Mrs. V. J. Walker and Mrs. Douglas J. Puckett acted as hostesses of a waffle supper, given Wednesday evening at the Episcopal parish house by the Wednesday club when Bishop and Mrs. W. P. Remington were honor guests. Husbands of the members were also guests of the evening. Insure With— THE Landry Co. LIABILITY * FIRE Paul O. Landry V. T. Johnson D. L. Thomas 419 Main Street Phone 2-2526 AUTO * PROPERTY
