Eric Sevareid's Newscast Fills Sunday Video Void

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—CBS-TV has an excellent new program in CBS Sunday News presided over by Eric Sevareid. It fills a void in weekend television news programming.

In his first edition last Sunday Sevareid showed that he recognizes front page news. That's worthy of mention because some television commentators sacrifice front page news for secondary news—chiefly because films of the less important events are available.

As time passes it's probable that Sevareid will be haunted by a frequent paucity of important weekend news. One hopes that he and his CBS force will develop a great variety of news features which on many a dull weekend could well fill 25 minutes of the 30 minutes allotted to CBS Sunday News.

A good example of a news feature was shown Sunday in a report from London on British commercial television.

George Schaefer is one of the most skillful directors in television, as his work on Hallmark Hall of Fame (NBC-TV) regularly reveals. Perhaps it was not his fault that "The Corn is Green," as seen on television Sunday, was inferior to the Broadway stage presentation many years ago starring Ethel Barrymore.

Eva Le Gallienne, as a woman who wants to bring enlightenment to a dark bit of Wales, simply lacked the warmth, gusto and conviction that Miss Barrymore brought to the role. John Kerr lacked the tough abrasive quality of a young Welsh miner. The result, to one viewer, was rather wooden drama—at least in the first hour of the hour and a half show.

The kindest one can be about The NBC Comedy Hour, which was launched on NBC-TV opposite the Ed Sullivan Show on CBS-TV, is this: Let's pretend it wasn't launched last Sunday. Let's pretend it's going to be launched next Sunday when the ways are better greased.

Jonathan Winters and Bob and Ray supplied some fun, but the rest of the hour fell flat. Just what to do about it must be troubling many earnest minds. For one thing, has anybody considered pulling it out of Hollywood?

Hollywood 'Rat Pack' Pokes Fun At Lifeless Film City

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Hollywood latest organization is called "The Rat Pack," a celebrated group devoted to poking a little fun into this sometimes lifeless community.

Some years, the movie colony appears headed toward being everybody's small town with Tony and Janet posing in aprons in the kitchen and glamour queen, claiming they are like the girl next door.

But a handful of senior citizens of the community are keeping some color in the plaster city. They have formed "The Rat Pack."

In some communities a rat pack means a gang of juvenile delinquents, but this gang hangs around an old kidney-shaped swimming pool.

Their "clubhouse" may be a member's Palm Springs mansion and they roam around in Bentleys and Cadillacs instead of hot rods.

Members of this organization are Frank Sinatra, president; Judy Garland, vice president; Humphrey Bogart, in charge of publicity (an art he knows well); restaurateurs Mike and Gloria Romanoff; composer Jimmy Van Heusen; agent Irving Lazar and Lauren Bacall, the den mother of the pack.

So far the rat pack has roamed in only two directions. Last summer, members chartered a bus (with a bar), and startled the citizens of Long Beach by showing up there to see Judy Garland's stage show.

"The club is just for fun, sort of a gag," explained Miss Bacall. "You have to breathe a little life into this old burr now and then. We're a jolly group of people and we like us better than anybody."

The club has a coat-of-arms and a charter. Members, however, cannot release this information yet as they can't agree on it. So far the club has one qualification for members: "You must be a true rat."

The club's slogan: "Never rat on a rat."

The club's full name is "The Rat Pack of Holmby Hills," as the Bogarts live in that elegant suburb. Other celebrities wish to join, but so far membership is closed.

ALL IN A DOG'S DAY

INVERNESS, Fla. (AP)—Leonard Swett is sorry he took his dog along on a hunting trip. When the dog jumped from the car he knocked a pistol to the ground and discharged it. Swett suffered a leg wound. However, the dog helped Swett's son, Bobby, bring in a seven-point buck deer.

A LIGHT EXCUSE

SALISBURY, Md. (AP)—Three hunters were fined $100 each for using an artificial light while hunting. The hunters were charged with using a light to kill a deer. They pleaded innocent and testified they weren't hunting but that two of them were flashing a spotlight through the woods so one of the party could see a deer at night.
