

Morning Coffee Honors Former Klamath Falls Resident

THE TWO THOUSAND AND THE TWENTY MILES of blue Pacific that separate Hawaii from the mainland — do not keep old friends apart. Mrs. Neal Stewart, far right, is pictured above with Mrs. Walter Beane, center; and Barbara Adams, Mrs. Beane's daughter — at a morning coffee January 4, in the Pelican Party Room. Mrs. Stewart, has been a friend of the Beane family for a considerable number of years — dating back to her residency here—before she moved to—and established herself as a homeowner in Honolulu.

She was hostess to Mrs. Beane and Mrs. Adams when they were island visitors — and she was their honored guest at the coffee — which also was a last item on Mrs. Beane's and Barbara's social list as hostesses — before they leave for Honolulu and the Orient.

Mrs. Stewart, houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, 2025 Lawrence since late December, has been extensively entertained by local friends — and a number of parties in her honor are scheduled before she leaves for San Francisco to sail for Honolulu on the Lurline, January 18. Mrs. Beane and Mrs. Adams will be fellow passengers on the mid-January crossing. (See story on inside page.) — Photo by Kettler

"MORNING-COFFEE CANDID" of Mrs. Andrew Loney Jr., left; and Mrs. Arnold L. Gralapp, was taken at the coffee given recently for Mrs. Neal Stewart in the Pelican Party Room — where they were two of the nearly 200 guests of Mrs. Walter Beane and her daughter, Mrs. Barbara Adams.

MRS. CARL STEINSEIFER and Mrs. Allen C. (Al) Aldrich pause for a social chat at the Beane-Adams 10 a.m. to noon coffee January 4, in the Pelican Party Room.—Photo by Kettler

Wedding Of Barbara Brosterhous Important Social Event of Holidays

MR. AND MRS. VINCENT N. BAXTER, pictured above after their wedding in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, December 28. The bride is the former Barbara Ann Brosterhous, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Brosterhous, 734 Eldorado Avenue. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas V. Baxter, Staten Island, New York. He is an attorney, associated with the National Cash Register sales division in Oakland, California, where they will live. —Photo by Guderian

SOCIETY

By Milly Ramsby

Kiwanis Club Installation of Officers And Dinner Dance at Willard Hotel Attended by Seventy-Five Couples

A HUSBAND-WIFE COMMITTEE engineered the program for the Kiwanis installation and dancing party, January 7, at the Willard Hotel. A cocktail hour preceded dinner at 8 p.m., and dancing was to music by Sync Halaas.

Pictured above, from the left, are wives on the committee — Mrs. Robert L. Cooper, Mrs. Harry Molatore, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Willard Ward and Mrs. Glen L. Evans. Willard Ward was chairman for the evening. — Photo by Kettler

AT THE KIWANIS installation and dance, Mrs. Andy Silani chats with Mr. and Mrs. Gary E. Robertson. New officers installed were Stanley Miller, president; Joe LaClair, past-president; secretary, John Holzgang, who starts his 8th year in that office; and Bert Thomas treasurer, who was re-elected for the 10th year. — Photo by Kettler

TWO OF THE 75 COUPLES who attended the Kiwanis installation and dance at the Willard, January 7, are from the left, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. (Bob) Ballard and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mack. — Photo by Kettler